New Officers Preside Over First Rebekah Meeting of New Year

Sans Souci Rebekah lodge No. 33 held its first regular meeting of the new year on January 15 with Noble Grand Lucille Parrish presiding, and all but two newly elected officers present.

In addition to the regular business of the lodge, the charter was draped in memory of Ocel Inskeep, a former Hardman resident and member of Willow Lodge No. 66, IOOF, for many years.

In commemoration of the founding of Oddfellowship in America 183 years ago this month, Mrs. M. N. Kirk, right support to noble grand, conducted a question and answer period on the life of Thomas Wiley.

Mrs. Parrish was hostess during the social hour, serving apple spice cake and coffee to the 17 members and one guest present. Lodge colors of pink and green were carried out in table and cake decorations.

Following are the new slate of officers elected to serve for the coming year: Lucille Parrish, noble grand; Mrs. Larry Cook, vice grand; Mrs. Orian Wright, recording secretary; Mrs. Norah Rasmus, treasurer; Mrs. Tom Huston, financial secretary; Mrs. Lincoln Nash, warden; Mrs. Robert Dobbs, conductor; Mrs. M. N. Kirk, r. support to noble grand; Mrs. Rachael Harnett, l. support to noble grand; Mrs. Ola Ruggles, chaplain; Mrs. Dean Connor, musician; Alice Luttrell, color bearer; Mrs. Frank Ayers, r. support vice grand; Mrs. Gerald Hood, l. support vice grand; Mrs. Lena Kelly, inside guardian; Mrs. Eva Griffith, outside guardian; Mrs. Prudy Casebeer, junior past noble grand; Mrs. Letha Archer, r. support past n.g.; Esther Bergstrom, l. support past n.g.; Mrs. Mattie Green, r. support chaplain; Mrs. R. G. McMurry, l. support chaplain; Mrs. Archie Padberg, r. altar bearer; Mrs. Ed LaTrace, l. altar bearer.

Special recognition was given two retiring officers for faithful years of service, Mrs. Lena Kelly as recording secretary, and Esther Bergstrom as financial secretary.

New Ironing Ideas Presented to Unit

Members of the Heppner Extension Unit met last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Bud Peck for the project lesson, "New Wrinkles in Ironing," with demonstrations by January project leaders, Mrs. Keithley Blake and Mrs. Alice McCabe.

It was announced during the business meeting that the February unit meeting will be held Tuesday, February 9, in the basement of the Nazarene church. Also announced were plans for a food sale to be held Saturday, February 13.

Attending the meeting and potluck luncheon were Mrs. David Eckman, Mrs. William Heath, Mrs. Frank Connor, Mrs. Ray Drake, Mrs. Keithley Blake, Mrs. Jim McCabe, Mrs. Paul Warren, the hostess, Mrs. Peck, and a guest, Mrs. Bud Marshall.

Burkenbine Honored At Surprise Dinner

Forrest Burkenbine was pleasantly surprised Saturday evening when several couples arrived at his home for a birthday potluck dinner and card party in his honor.

Enjoying an evening of pinocchle play were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Fetsch, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Keithley, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Alstott, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKinnon, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Jensen and Mr. and Mrs. Burkenbine.

Prizes for high pinocchle score went to Mrs. McKinnon, low score was tallied by Larry Fetsch and the traveling pinocchle prize ended in the possession of Lyle Jensen.

Travels in Mexico Viewed With Interest By Soroptimist Club

The bright and colorful life of Mexico and its people were shown to members and guests of the Soroptimist club at its luncheon meeting last Thursday noon by Mrs. Gene Ferguson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson traveled by train last October with 58 other tourists over a wide area of Mexico. Colored slides taken on the tour gave an interesting account of life, customs, art and natural beauty seen in the neighboring country to the south.

The tourists were able to witness religious ceremonies of the people, view wide varieties of the Mexican art, climb historic pyramids in the Temple of the Sun, see industries and types of living conditions for all classes. The colorful stone mosaics covering fronts of many public buildings were especially interesting to the viewers.

The guest speaker was introduced by Mrs. Charles Starks, program chairman.

Communications with members of the sister club in Tamworth, England, received here during the holidays were shared during recent meetings. Announcement was made of the annual citizenship award contest for high school seniors this month, and encouragement given to have local students participate. Club bulletins were distributed by Mrs. Carl McDaniel, bulletin chairman. Northwest Regional meeting was announced for April 23 and 24 in Salem.

Couple Planning Spring Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph G. Franklin of Route 2, Milton-Freewater, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Linda Lee Franklin, also of Milton-Freewater to Frank Jepsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jepsen of Ione.

Miss Mahon is Bride Of Walla Walla Man At December Wedding

The marriage of Miss JoAnne Mahon, daughter of Mrs. Maxine Mahon of Elgin, to Aaron M. Stubblefield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emery Stubblefield of Walla Walla, was solemnized in a pretty winter ceremony Saturday, December 26. Vows were repeated in the Elgin Church of the Nazarene at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Under an arch of evergreen boughs, flanked by tapers in candelabra, the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Leonard Gallivan. Soloist was Mrs. Gallivan, who sang "Because" and "Whither Thou Goest," accompanied by Mrs. Mabel Bendishler at the organ.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her uncle, Jack Mahon of Council, Idaho. Her full length gown of white bridal satin and lace was fashioned with scalloped neckline and long pointed sleeves. Her finger tip illusion veil was held in place by a crown of seed pearls and rhinestones, and she carried a white Bible topped with white rose bouquet. She wore a string of pearls, a gift of her great-grandmother, Mrs. Maude Robison of Heppner.

Maid of honor was Miss Linda Kennedy, wearing a floor length gown of red satin and short red blushing veil. Miss Sharilyn Mahon, cousin of the bride, served as bridesmaid, wearing a red satin street length dress. Candelights were twin sisters of the groom, also dressed in red.

Elmer Stubblefield was best man for his brother, and ushers were Bob Mahon, brother of the bride, and Albert Stubblefield, brother of the groom. Young Mike Mahon, brother of the bride, acted as ring bearer, and little Patsy Rae Mahon, cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Mahon chose a blue jacket ensemble. Mrs. Stubblefield, mother of the groom, wore a red afternoon dress. Both wore pink rosebud corsages.

Due to closed roads and impossible traveling conditions at the time, the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam McDaniel of Hardman, and Mrs. Joe Mahon of Heppner, as well as the great grandmother, Mrs. Maude Robison, Heppner, were unable to attend. Parents, brothers and sisters of the groom, and the Jack Mahon family of Council, Idaho, however, were present.

The couple greeted their friends and relatives at a reception at the church following the ceremony. A beautiful three-tiered wedding cake, topped with miniature bride and groom and trimmed in red roses, centered the serving table.

For going away, the bride wore a white knit suit. The couple now live in Walla Walla, where the bridegroom is employed as a correctional officer at the State Penitentiary, and the new matron is a dental assistant.

New Officers Take Over Year's Duties In Oddfellows Lodge

Recently installed officers of Willow Lodge No. 66, IOOF, presided at the first meeting of their new year in the lodge hall last Wednesday evening.

Installation, held jointly with Sans Souci Rebekah lodge on January 9, was presided over by Deputy Grand Master Cecil Jones of Lexington, with the assistance of Oris Padberg, grand secretary; Gene Cole, grand treasurer; Ed Hunt, grand warden, all of Lexington; Corneil Green, deputy grand marshal, and John Wightman, deputy grand chaplain.

Elected and installed to serve as noble grand for the year is Leon Ball. Seated with him were Ron Haguwood, vice grand; Durwood Tash, secretary-treasurer. Appointive officers include Pete McMurry, r. support N. G.; Corneil Green, l. support N. G.; Bill Farra, warden; Bob Lowe, conductor; Lincoln Nash, chaplain; Herman Green, inside guardian; Archie Parberg, outside guardian; Clarence Bauman, r. support vice grand, and John Wightman, l. support vice grand. Willow Lodge members participated in the enjoyment of a Swiss steak dinner prior to installation ceremonies with Sans Souci and visitors from neighboring lodges.

Ruth Assembly Plans Installation Sunday

Ruth Assembly No. 50, Order of Rainbow for Girls, will seat a complete slate of officers and board members at a public installation, scheduled for Sunday, January 24, at the Masonic hall, beginning at 2 p.m.

The assembly extends a special invitation to all Masons, Eastern Star members, their families and friends to attend the afternoon ceremony.

Big Crowd Served At Pre-Game Feed

A good turnout of Heppner, Lexington and Ione residents patronized the PTA-sponsored chili and noodle feed before the lone-Heppner game Tuesday evening. The kitchen committee desperately sent out several calls for help before all were fed, for additional food for the much larger than average crowd.

Appreciation is extended by the PTA ways and means committee to all those who came from other towns, to those who worked and to those who provided food. Proceeds will go into the PTA scholarship fund.
