

Shower Party Honors
Bride of Few Weeks

Mrs. Dave Barnett, the former Fran Heath, was honored Saturday with a post-nuptial shower given by Mrs. Bill Brannon, Mrs. Donald Eubanks and Mrs. Larry Angell at the Brannon home.

A lovely corsage of pink and white flowers, accented with miniature wedding bells, was presented to the new matron by the hostesses. The recent bride's mother and mother-in-law, Mrs. Darrell Vinson and Mrs. Ray Barnett, each received a corsage of red and white rosebuds. Red roses beautifully arranged in a silver bowl and flanked on each side with red tapers in silver holders, centered the serving table.

Cake was served with a fruit salad to guests by the co-hostesses and Mrs. Herman Blottell poured coffee and tea. Several games were enjoyed by guests during the social afternoon and prize winners were Mrs. Don Munkers and Mrs. Clyde Allstott. Kay Moore was winner of the door prize.

Others on hand to compliment the new Mrs. Barnett were Mrs. John Privett, Mrs. Larry Fetsch, Mrs. John Mollahan, Mrs. Ralph Marlatt, Mrs. Bill Heath and Linda, Mrs. Anna Tatum, Mrs. Mary Bryant, Mrs. Sonny Biddle and Mrs. Ed LaTrace.

Auxiliary to Sponsor Food Sale Next Week

Mrs. Hubert Wilson, president of the local American Legion Auxiliary has announced that the auxiliary is planning a food sale for Saturday, February 6, beginning at 9 a.m. at the Heppner Red and White store.

Also on the Legion's February agenda is the regularly scheduled monthly meetings of the two organizations to be held Monday, February 1, at the Legion hall, beginning at 8 p.m. There will be no potluck dinner.

Mrs. Walter Becket returned home from Pendleton General hospital Friday where she was taken for what first appeared to be a broken hip bone. X-rays failed to prove that the bone was broken, and after treatment was permitted to return home, but will be confined for some time.

WORTHY ADVISOR KITTY O'HARRA

Kitty O'Harra Installed Worthy Advisor
In Order of Rainbow Here Sunday

Kitty O'Harra, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. O'Harra, was installed as the new worthy advisor of Ruth Assembly No. 39, Order of Rainbow for Girls, in an impressive ceremony, Sunday afternoon in the Masonic hall. Seated along with Miss O'Harra was a new mother advisor, Mrs. Dean Hunt, a complete slate of Rainbow officers and six advisory board members.

Green and white, the colors chosen by the new worthy advisor for her installation, were carried out in the hues of her brocade formal gown and in a lovely floral arrangement placed near the podium in the East. Her installing officers were each presented corsages of white carnations.

Escorted to the altar for the crowning ceremony by her two brothers, Cecil Berry and Jack Ray, Miss O'Harra was then crowned by her sister, Patricia O'Harra. Crown bearer was another brother, Raymond O'Harra. Judy Jones was accompanied at the piano by Janice Baker as she sang, "How Great Thou Art." Miss O'Harra then introduced members of her family and Mrs. Harold Becket, Grand Deputy of the International Order of the Rainbow for Girls, and Shirley Erwin, Grand Representative to Maryland of the International Order of the Rainbow for Girls.

Complete slate of officers installed during the afternoon were Mrs. Dean Hunt, mother advisor; Kitty O'Harra, worthy advisor; Shirley Erwin, associate worthy advisor; Janice Baker, charity; Jan Hager, hope; Kathy Melby, faith; Teresa Munkers, treasurer; Peggy Snyder, chaplain; Judy Jones, drill leader; Christine Munkers, religion; Linda Heath, nature; Pam Hughes, immortality; Jeannine Hunt, fidelity; Debbie Young, patriotism; Jill Padberg, service; Linda Orwick, inner observer, and Susan Melby.

Jean Siewert was the installing worthy advisor. Other installing officers included Rogenia Wilson, chaplain; Kathy Ray, marshal; Dianne Schaffitz, recorder, and Janice Baker, musician.

Installed as advisory board members were Mrs. James Prock, Mrs. Jerry Schubert, Mrs. Joe Wright, Mrs. Roy Quackenbush, Mrs. Don Turner, Mrs. Tom Hughes, Hubert Wilson and Herman Winter.

The new worthy advisor presented a surprise gift from the assembly to Jean Siewert in appreciation of her work for the assembly as past worthy advisor.

Coffee, tea, punch and cake were served to those attending the reception, immediately following the installation ceremony, from a table beautifully appointed with a white floral arrangement and white tapers. Mrs. Cecil Berry and Mrs. Merritt Gray poured and Mrs. W. A. Johnson served three large cakes, frosted with green basket design and white roses. Assisting were Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Tom Hughes and Mrs. Harold Erwin.

Reports of Christmas Projects Well Received

JONES — The January meeting of the lone Garden club was held at the home of Mrs. Oscar Lundell with 13 members and three guests present. Mrs. F. T. Martin, chairman of the Christmas project, reported that 18 Christmas packages of candy, cookies, dates, nuts, jellies, etc., donated by Garden club members, were given to different people in the community who would be alone most of the holidays.

Mrs. Omar Rietmann, chairman, reported about 30 attended the Twelfth Night burning of the Christmas greens. Eldon Tucker and Larry Rietmann lit the fire and Mrs. Rietmann, Mrs. Ralph Crum, and Mrs. Phil Emert served cup cakes to the group.

Mrs. Ernest Christopherson and Mrs. Ernest were in charge of lighting the fireplace in the park for Christmas with the assistance of Nell, Ronnie, and Greg Christopherson.

Mrs. Martin, chairman of the street tree planting committee, stated she had given a talk on the subject at the Lion's club meeting January 11. Mrs. Christopherson and Nels Anderson have been appointed to work on the street tree planting committee.

Mrs. Crum reported on junior gardeners. It is planned to give seeds to children to grow, with the idea that they would exhibit the results at the fall flower show. Garden club members with junior gardener age children will work with the committee on this project.

It was reported that the Horticulture magazine is arriving at the library and is available to anyone who cares to read it. Mrs. Martin was recommended by club members as district director.
