

Public Ceremony Installs Rainbow Girls Officers

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE — The new Worthy Advisor of Rainbow Assembly No. 89 is Mary Nichols, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Nichols of Ione, who was installed at public installation ceremonies on Sunday afternoon at the Masonic hall. Installing officer was Bonnie Jo Hynd, junior past worthy advisor, assisted by Lee O'Connor, recorder; Cheryl Corley, chaplain; Karen Hams, marshal; and Susan Lindstrom, musician.

Hamlett, love; Cindy Smith, religion; Geri Krebs, nature; Linda Nichols, immortality; Bonnie Morgan, fidelity; Marsha Ball, patriotism; Susan Jepsen, service; Connie Emert, confidential officer; Terri O'Connor, musician; Marianne Williams, choir director. Members of the choir are Bonnie Hynd, Susan Lindstrom, Lee O'Connor, Karen Hams, Betty Greenup, Tanya Tucker and Betty Hausler.

Also installed was the advisory board for 1965. They are Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, mother advisor, and Mrs. Omar Rietmann, Mrs. Adon Hamlett, Mrs. E. R. Schaffer, Berli Akers, Lewis Halvorsen, and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom, board members.

Mary chose white and gold for her colors and "You'll Never Walk Alone" for her theme. The crowning ceremony was performed by Mary's brother-in-law, David McBeth, assisted by Karen Hams. During the crowning, Teresa Tucker sang "You'll Never Walk Alone," accompanied by Terri O'Connor at the piano.

Following a talk by the new worthy advisor, she introduced the members of her family and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adkins of Heppner and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Padberg of Heppner.

Shirley Nichols and Jan Ekstrom were in charge of the programs and Linda Nichols took charge of the guest book.

Special guests were Susan Lindstrom, grand choir director of Grand Assembly in Oregon, and Cheryl Corley, grand choir member in 1964. Cheryl was honored with an addendum by the officers. They each presented her with a long stemmed artificial flower and the Assembly gave her an engraved charm.

At the reception following the meeting, Mrs. Nichols poured punch and Mrs. Eulena Corley poured coffee from a white lined covered table, centered with a gold and white cake and gold tapers.

Mrs. Jepsen Heads Amica Club

Election of officers was held at Amica club on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. John Jepsen elected president, Mrs. Ed Patton, vice-president, and Mrs. Gene Rietmann, secretary-treasurer. Names for secret pals for the coming year were also drawn. After the meeting, which was held at the home of Mrs. Jepsen with Mrs. Dick Krebs assisting, the members played court whist. Winning prizes were Mrs. Bill Rietmann, high; Mrs. Ralph Kincaid, low; and Mrs. Carol Miller, the door prize.

Mr. and Mrs. John Turner of Baker were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rietmann on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Rietmann went home with her sister for a visit. They also visited from Wednesday to Friday at the home of Mrs. Rietmann's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Den Rhode at Kennewick. They returned to Ione on Tuesday of this week.

Rollo Crawford and John Jepsen have been spending several days pumping out the swimming pool, which was completely filled with mud and debris during the December 22 flood. Much trouble was encountered with everything from bits of wood to flower bulbs clogging up the pump, as the job progressed.
