Hobbies, Crafts to be Exhibited At Ione PTA Show on March 10

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE — The Ione PTA is sponsoring a hobby and craft show on Wednesday, March 10, to begin at 7:30 p.m. Exhibits may be placed in the afternoon from 3:30 to 6:00 p.m.

Following a short business meeting, Mrs. Ewing Hynd, past president of the Oregon Cow-Belles, will demonstrate pine needle artistry and Robert Jepsen will show slides of some of his mountain climbing expeditions.

The committee in charge, Mrs. Garry Tullis, Mrs. Pete Cannon, Mrs. Ray Boyce, Mrs. Adon Hamlett, and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom, may be contacted for any information an exhibitor may desire and will also be present in the afternoon to assist in arranging displays. As far as possible exhibitors should furnish card tables on which to display their hobby.

It is hoped many people will give the community the opportunity to see the various hobbies and crafts which they enjoy in our area. Mothers of the fifth and sixth grades are in charge of refreshments.

Kindergarten classes started Monday morning at the Ione elementary school. Mrs. Earl McCabe is the teacher for the morning classes. Those children enrolled are Kathy Kincaid, Kurt McKinney, Yvonne White, Donna Palmer, Brian Rietmann, Arlene Cannon, Robin Hausler, Pam Miller, Debora Palmer, Barbara Smith, Billy Joe Lindstrom, Alvin Holstein, and Debbie Patton.

Miss Ruth Bailey, director of Christian Education of the United Church of Christ, will be guest speaker at the family night potluck supper at the church on Sunday, March 7. Miss Bailey will provide a program of slides of her world tour and visits to various missions, beginning promptly at 5:00 p.m., followed by the supper sponsored by the deacons and deaconesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pierce and daughter were visitors at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sherer over the week-end.
