Large Family Dinner Honors B. Bothwells

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bothwell were guests of honor at a family dinner Sunday at the Wes Marlatt home on the occasion of their 44th wedding anniversary.

Children of the honored couple, Mrs. Pete Hams, Wade Bothwell, Mrs. Joanne Warren and Mrs. Wes Marlatt, arranged the anniversary observance.

Bruce Bothwell and Vera Cowins were married in Heppner on March 6, 1921. They have raised their family here, which includes the four children, twelve grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Only one grandchild was unable to attend, Lee Hams who is presently in the U. S. Navy stationed on the USS Aircraft Carrier Hornet.

Also celebrated was the birthday of Rosanna Marlatt, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wes Marlatt.

MR. AND MRS. DONALD S. FOSTER

Mary Shannon Weds Donald Foster Feb. 14 In Alameda Ceremony

In a quiet, informal ceremony in Alameda, Calif., Miss Mary Shannon, daughter of Mrs. Carl King, Heppner, became the bride of Donald S. Foster, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Foster of 559 Buena Vista Ave., Alameda.

Vows were exchanged Sunday, February 14, at Christ Church Parish in Alameda, in the presence of relatives and friends.

The bride is a graduate of Heppner High school with the class of 1962. She attended Oregon State University one year and has since been employed in the offices of Fiberboard Products, Inc., in San Francisco.

Mr. Foster formerly attended San Francisco State College, and now has a position in the head office of Wells Fargo Bank in San Francisco.

Their home address is now 1416 Ninth Street, Alameda, Calif.

Leaders in School Chapters are Chosen King, Queen of Ball

Dean Robinson and Kitty O'Harra were the royal pair named to reign as king and queen over this year's Sweetheart's Ball held Saturday evening, February 27, in the high school multipurpose room, gaily decorated around the theme, "Love Makes the World Go 'Round." Dean Robinson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Creston Robinson and Queen Kitty is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. O'Harra. Both have been very active in FHA and FFA and held prominent offices in their respective organizations.

One of the highlights of the high school social season, the annual formal ball is sponsored by the local chapters of the Future Homemakers and Future Farmers of America. Chapter advisors are Miss Virginia Buch, home economics instructor, and Gerald Jonasson, shop instructor.

Chairmen organizing the event and delegating the various committees were Jean Healy and Larry Heath.

The crowning ceremony, performed by Miss Dianne Schafitz, was the highlight of the mid-evening intermission, taking place amid gay red and white decorations of streamers, hearts and white wrought iron lawn furniture.

Enjoyable dance music was provided by "The Jents," a six-man modern dance combo from the Tri-Cities. A floorshow type interpretive dance number was presented by one of the members of the combo.

Birthday is Occasion For Afternoon Party

Marsha Lovgren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Lovgren, celebrated her 15th birthday Sunday with a lively group of teenage friends, who gathered at the Lovgren home for an afternoon of games, refreshments and record playing amid decorations of brightly colored balloons, banners and pennants.

Ice cream and beverages were served with portions of a large sheet cake, frosted in yellow and brown, to Marsha's guests who included Kit Anderson, David Clark, Tim Driscoll, Nancy Doherty, Ruby Fullerton, Gene Heliker, Bill McLeod, Sally Morgan, Mary Pierce, Paula Siewert, John Van Winkle and Deborah Young.

Gordons Are Honored At Social Evening

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie McCabe were hosts Saturday evening to a small gathering of friends including Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gordon, who will leave this month to make their home in Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnie Hedman and Mr. and Mrs. David McLeod were the other couples present for the informal evening of bridge play and visiting. The hosts served a midnight lunch to their guests.

Miss Martin Honored At Pre-Nuptial Shower

IONE — Miss Jean Martin, a senior at Oregon State University at Corvallis and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick T. Martin of Ione, was honored at a bridal shower on Saturday afternoon, March 6, at the ranch home of Mrs. Roland Bergstrom. Assisting hostess was Mrs. William Rawlins.

Miss Martin opened her packages at a gift table decorated with blue net over a white cloth with blue streamers reaching from cluster to cluster of pale blue flowers across the front of the table. Miss Evelyn Jepsen, a senior at Northwest Christian College at Eugene and a classmate of Jean's through all twelve years of pre-college education, assisted with opening the gifts. Also helping about the rooms were Carley, Shauna, Kay, and Lori Bergstrom and Mrs. Melvin Martin.

The gift table was also used as the tea table and was centered with a large bridal doll, dressed in white lace, belonging to Carol Rawlins. Mrs. Martin poured tea and coffee from a silver service to about forty guests. Assorted individual decorated cream pies, mints and nuts were also served from the tea table. Carley Bergstrom entertained the guests with a piano solo.

Jonasson Home Scene Of Going-away Party

The Bridge Biddies honored Mrs. Jim Gordon with a farewell bridge party, last Tuesday evening at the Gerald Jonasson home, where three tables of cards were in play during the evening.

Prize for high score went to Mrs. Bob Clough and Mrs. Creston Robinson was second high. The traveling prize went to Mrs. LaVern Van Marter, Jr. A going-away gift from the card club members was presented to Mrs. Gordon.

Mrs. Jonasson served a chilled dessert with coffee to her guests that also included Mrs. David McLeod, Mrs. Ernie McCabe, Mrs. Don McClure, Mrs. Gordon Pratt, Mrs. Arnie Hedman, Mrs. Riley Munkers, Mrs. Terry Thompson and Mrs. Bob Jones.

Miss Martin's wedding to Albert Brazell will be solemnized at the First Methodist Church in Corvallis on Saturday, March 20, at two o'clock in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Nash and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Connor were week-end guests at the Bob Parsons' home in Beaverton.
