Ernie French Dies In Forest Grove

Ernest H. French, 57, who was born in the Hardman area on May 21, 1907, died in Forest Grove, where he had lived for many years, on Saturday, March 18. Funeral services were held last Wednesday in Forest Grove. French, who is remembered by many here, was the son of William Harrison French and Martha L. York French, who ranched near Hardman. When he was three years old his mother died and he went to Reedville to live with his grandmother.

Although he went through school in Forest Grove, he returned during some of the summers as a young man to work at Hardman. Only last fall he came back on a hunting trip here and dropped in to visit Mr. and Mrs. Carey Hastings. He had operated Tualatin Valley Plumbing Company in Forest Grove but more recently with his son, Duane, opened and operated French's Men's Wear in Forest Grove. The son purchased his interest in the business in 1960.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stewart and son Richard of Turlock, Calif., visited with Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Britz during the weekend of March 12 to 14. Mrs. Stewart is a niece of the Britts and Mr. Stewart worked here several years ago. On Monday, March 1, they continued on to Boise, Idaho, to visit her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson, and the Johnson's son, Larry.

ly of Oklahoma City and Mrs. Maude Hampton at Boonesville, Ark. When they returned to Pendleton they were met by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shannon who brought them to Kinzua the next day.

Mrs. Richard Mortimore and sons were in Heppner Thursday for business, shopping and medical care for Gene.

The regular Camp 5 Women's card party met Thursday with Lola Ferrel as hostess. High was won by Carol Norris, low by Barbara Mortimore, and floating by Carol Norris and Sue Mattison. Others present were Nancy Hawk, Jean Medlock, Pat McMinn, Marie Hulet, Marie Rhon, May James, Billie Jean Sitton, and Shirley Kyle.

Two Houghton Teachers Attend Education Meet

By LVELLE PARTLOW
IRRIGON — Mrs. Helen Stitzel and Miss Rose Hoosier, teachers at A. C. Houghton school, Irrigon, were delegates to the Northwest Regional Conference of the Department of Classroom Teachers of the National Education Association, in Rawlins, Wyo., the latter part of last week. Mrs. Stitzel attended the conference as a representative of Morrow County Oregon Education Association and Miss Hoosier in her position as State President of the Oregon Department of Classroom Teachers.

Both teachers reported an excellent conference, at which dynamic speeches by both Senator Gail McGee of Wyoming and Thelma Davis, national president of DCT, emphasized the need for placing education in a position of first priority in the nation.

Mrs. Vernon Stewart, Sharon and Tommy spent the week-end in La Grande with her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reeder. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stewart.

The Irrigon Assembly of God Women's Missionary Council met Wednesday afternoon at the home of their president, Mrs. Walt Agee, and worked on missionary projects.

Irrigon Ladies' Home Extension Unit met at the old Irrigon school Thursday for their all-day meeting. Luncheon hostesses were Mrs. Fred Murtishaw, Mrs. Eva Anderson and Mrs. Andrew Skiles. Mrs. Elmer Zehner demonstrated the project for the day, entitled "Dealing With Your Tensions." The ladies also discussed the May festival held annually in Heppner. The Irrigon unit will participate in the festival with a skit on dealing with tensions.

A. D. Crispin, Hermiston, was a Sunday afternoon dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Rees Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Leighton are parents of a baby boy, Daniel Harold, born at St. Anthony hospital, Pendleton, March 15. The baby weighed 8 lb., 8 oz. and was 22 inches long. He joins two brothers and a sister. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hill, Irrigon, and maternal great-grandmother is Mrs. Sedalia Dexter, Irrigon.

Mrs. Leon Ritzer and children drove to La Grande to visit Mrs. Ritzer's mother, Alice Smith, who has been a patient at St. Joseph hospital the past three months.

A. C. Houghton school was especially honored recently when Thelma Davis, National president of the Department of Classroom Teachers, spent several hours visiting teachers and students. Mrs. Davis, who is from Griffin, Ga., charmed all with her gracious manner and southern accent, and readily answered numerous questions about her home state and wide travels.

Mrs. Davis' hostess while traveling throughout Eastern Oregon, was Miss Hoosier, State DCT president, and fifth grade teacher at A. C. Houghton.

The third grade class at A. C. Houghton school, presented a skit entitled "Bill Visits Mexico" at the school student body meeting last Tuesday. The skit, directed by the students' teacher, Mrs. Ellen Canille, was enlightening, as well as entertaining.

The children sang two songs in Spanish, "Row, Row, Row Your Boat," and "Ten Little Indian Boys." They also counted in Spanish, said Spanish poems and told of living conditions in Mexico, including types of housing and food. Some of the children costumed and pantomimed an outdoor marketplace vending various Mexican wares. Seventeen third-graders and their teacher, Mrs. Bruce Wakeman and son, were Sunday afternoon dinner guests of Mrs. Mary Adams, Rev. and Mrs.

SALEM, ORE.—Special Centennial emblem, designed for the 100th Anniversary of the Oregon State Fair, August 29-September 6, 1905, was revealed in Salem, today by Mrs. Marion T. Weatherford, chairman of the State Fair board of commissioners and Howard Maple, Fair Manager. Colorful symbol, which will appear on Fair's printed material and throughout the fairsgrounds, symbolizes Oregon's tourist industry, the state's mountain and forest regions, its ocean and river areas and Oregon's agriculture and industry.

Lexington Grange Plans Special April Meeting

By DELPHA JONES

LEXINGTON — Home Ec club of the Lexington Grange met at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Smouse last Thursday. Plans were discussed for the Church Sunday which is scheduled for April 4 at the grange hall. This will be a potluck dinner and program, followed by Grange.

Roll call was answered with an Irish joke, and Mrs. Smouse, instead of giving an Irish joke, played several Irish songs on her violin and the group sang.

Following the meeting a birthday party was enjoyed for the following ladies: Mrs. Martha Van Scholack, Mrs. Ed Hunt and Mrs. Armin Whilon. Each lady was presented a gift and a lovely cake was served. Mrs. Ola Ruggles, district chairman, presented Mrs. Whilon with a past HEC chairman pin for her fine work as chairman in 1962 and 1963.

A. C. Houghton PTA met at the school cafeteria last Monday night, with Mrs. Kenneth Eppenbaugh presiding. Following the business meeting, a film entitled "Freedom to Learn" was shown. The evening concluded with refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel McCoy, Vancouver, Wn., and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Richards and Julia Anne, Huntington Beach, Calif., spent Tuesday to Thursday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Albert Partlow and Sheryl and Mrs. Myrtle Markham. They also drove to Hermiston to visit Mrs. McCoy's mother, Mrs. True, who is a patient at the Valle Vista Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Pamela Vrontakis and infant son Jeffrey, Portland, spent the week-end with Mrs. Vrontakis' folks, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Warner.

Smouse and son Carl of Ione. The next meeting is planned for the Steagall home.

Mrs. C. C. Jones entertained with a coffee hour for Mrs. Armin Whilon last Thursday morning. Those present were Mrs. A. F. Majeske, Mrs. Charles Colley, Mrs. Alonzo Henderson, Mrs. O. W. Cutsforth, Mrs. Florence McMillan and Mrs. Clell Rea. Mrs. Whilon visited a couple of days this week at the Jones home.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Breeding and son Donald were Lexington visitors from their home in Portland over the week-end. They visited his mother, Mrs. Lola Breeding and other friends and relatives.

Mrs. Lola Breeding is at home for a few days after a stay in Hood River of several weeks.

Kenneth Green is home after a stay in Pioneer Memorial hospital.

Mrs. Joe Yocom is employed at the D and E Cafe in Lexington.

Holly Rebekah Lodge met last Thursday for its regular meeting with Noble Grand Ardith Hunt in the chair. Plans were discussed for initiation and the April meeting was planned. Mrs. Elaine Rietmann, district deputy president from Ione, was present and presented the following ladies with their seals for unwritten work: Mrs. June Field, Mrs. Oris Padberg and Mrs. A. F. Majeske. Following the meeting, birthday cake and coffee were served jointly with the Old Fellows in the dining room. Those honored for birthdays Wayne Papineau, Mrs. Armin Whilon, Mrs. Ed Hunt and Mrs. Charles Colley.
