

Grand Officers Attend Ione OES District Meeting

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE—Locust Chapter No. 119, Order of the Eastern Star, was host to a district meeting on Friday evening at the Masonic Hall. Mrs. Merle E. Lamar, of Silverton, worthy grand matron of the Grand Chapter of Oregon was present to inspect the work of Locust Chapter and Ruth Chapter No. 32 of Heppner, who were also present.

Other grand officers at the meeting were Mrs. Winifred Nelson, of Coos Bay, grand Martha, and Mrs. Helen Tate of Sublimity, grand warden, and Mrs. Inez Huffman of Heppner and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom Ione, grand committee members.

A dinner was served to members and guests before the meeting. Mrs. E. R. Schaffer and Mrs. Omar Rietmann were co-chairman for the buffet and Rainbow girls Susan Lindstrom, Terrie O'Connor, Linda Rowell, Mary Nichols, Judy Eubanks, and Betty Greenup, served beverages and were on the clear-up committee.

Cake, punch, and coffee were served from a table centered with spring flowers following the meeting. Mrs. James Barnett and Mrs. Walter Jacobs were in charge of the social hour.

The 4-H horse club enjoyed a trail ride over the hills to the Garry Tullis ranch on Saturday. About 12 members and their leader, Ed Haseloff, went on the ride. After practicing at the Tullis', Mrs. Tullis served punch and chili with their sack lunches.

Frank Halvorsen received a badly cut right arm in a fall through the glass door of the entrance to the hall at the school cafeteria, following the physical education class on Monday. He was taken to a physician in Heppner, where about 15 stitches were required to close the wound.

Mrs. Ella Burgoyne was taken to Community hospital in Pendleton on Sunday for observation. She had been seriously ill for several days.

Cheryl Lundell, a senior at Ione High and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lundell is confined to home with rheumatic fever. She will probably have to be out of school for several weeks.
