State Officers Attend Meeting

Women's Fellowship met at the United Church of Christ last Thursday afternoon with members of the state Women's Fellowship present to lead the discussion on "Witness—The Christian's Calling." Mrs. Brian Tichenor, Sherwood, who is state president of Women's Fellowship was present in addition to Mrs. Harold Miller, Milwaukie, and Mrs. Theodore Kister, Portland, both past presidents and members of the Commission of Lay, Life, and Work; and Mrs. Tom Carter, Ashland, state witness chairman. Mrs. W. C. Crawford and Mrs. Walter B. Crowell were hostesses for the coffee hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Lindstrom and family moved back into their home on Friday. They were flooded with 14 inches of water in the house last December 22, and have had the first floor completely remodeled due to the damage done by the water.

Ione High school band members accompanied by their director, Carol Miller, drove to La Grande on Saturday to participate in the Eastern Oregon

Music competition. They received a grading of "1" or the highest grade possible in the class B division for schools under 100. The band held a preliminary concert on March 17 and will hold the spring concert on May 13.

Gary Morgan has been spending his spring vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan. He returned to Columbia Basin College on Sunday.

The primary department of the United Church of Christ enjoyed an Easter Egg hunt and party at the church on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Lindstrom are spending a few days in Portland on business.

Changing mail routes in this area July 1 will make little or no difference in arrival or dispatch of the mail at the post office in Ione according to Postmaster June O'Connor. Mail will arrive from Ione approximately a half hour later in the morning than it has been. Bids are now being received for carrying the mail from Lexington to Ione to the Cecil Star Route, which goes about eleven miles below Cecil. Anyone interested may obtain further information from the post office.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Crowell this week are Mrs. Crowell's sister, Mrs. Bertha Cool and daughter, Maude Cool from Chelan, Wn. On Monday evening Mrs. Crowell had a family dinner honoring Mrs. Cool on her 81st birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bergstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Crowell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Patton and family, and Mrs. Doris Gollyhorn.

IS OREGON REALLY A FIR-LINED TOURIST TRAP?

Yes. But a trap that leaves the victim revived, revitalized, and restored. It's the kind of trap that more states should set. But they just don't have our trappings. They don't have our Crater Lake, our Mt. Hood. They don't have our fun-filled Coast. They don't have our Portland Zoo and baby elephants, our high mountain lakes and meadows, or historic Gold Rush towns. They don't have our fish-filled waters, our parks and fields, our mighty Columbia River dams and reservoirs. They don't have our Ashland Shakespearean Festival, our Portland Rose Festival, our Pendleton Round-up, our many fine restaurants, our sights and sounds.

It's up to you to set the trap. Pacific Northwest Bell will help provide the bait.

Tourism is one of Oregon's major industries. For reasons both selfish and unselfish Pacific Northwest Bell wants to help bring even more tourists to our green and lovely land. (Selfishly: we realize that tourists make phone calls. Unselfishly: we grew up around here.) To help you lure, entice, and otherwise convince your poor, unfortunate, out-of-state friends that Oregon is the place to spend this year's two weeks (or months) your PNB has gathered together four booklets—we call them "The Convincers"—that extoll our state's many virtues. There's a special Convincer on fishing, plus a complete set of beautiful booklets packed with things to see and do in Oregon. Just fill out the coupon; we'll be glad to send them along for you to send along.

We'll also send along a record entitled "The Fabulous Sounds of the Pacific Northwest," ferry boat whistles, bucking broncos, tree-felling, Indian chants, seagulls, jazz bands, and like that. If you can't convince them by booklets and such, you're sure to make a sale by just asking your friends to play it by ear. We'll also send along a supply of handy litter-trapping Litter Bags for use in your car (to help keep Oregon even cleaner and tidier for both us natives and our guests.)

What's in it for you?

We thought you'd never ask. Simply this: tourists spend money. They provide employment, they boost the state's economy. And another thing. If we're as good as we think we are, they'll keep coming back — year after year. (Besides that, you get the free litter bags.)

☐ Zap! I get the point. Send me a set of Convincers.
☐ On second thought, better send me along (2, 3, 4, or 5) sets because I'm a pretty friendly fellow. (And don't forget the free litter bags.)
