

Services Mark Easter Season in Ione

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE — Confirmation of four young people was held at the Ione United Church of Christ on Sunday morning during the worship services. Those being confirmed by Rev. Walter B. Crowell, who has been their class instructor, were Kristina Nelson, Charles Herrick, Susan Jane Jepsen, and Barbara Boyce.

Baptism services were also held during the morning worship hour for Natalie Ann Peck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Peck of Portland. Sponsors for the baby were Mrs. Francis Stack of Tacoma and Gary Morgan, brother of Mrs. Peck. Special music was sung by the choir directed by Carol Miller.

Church was preceded by a program during the church school hour presented by the primary department. Songs, recitations, and prayers were presented by the children under the direction of the primary teachers, Mrs. Git Lujan, Ms. Roy Goodrow, Mrs. Bill Kietmann, Mrs. James West, and Mrs. Lee Palmer.

The United Church of Christ is announcing a Maundy Thursday service at the church with Holy Communion on Thursday evening at 8:00 p.m. Services next Sunday for Easter will include a sunrise service at 6:00 a.m. at Woolery City Park conducted by the high school and junior high church school classes. An Easter breakfast will be served by the men of the church at 6:45 a.m. Church school classes will be at 9:45 a.m. followed by the Easter worship service at 11:00 a.m. Rev. Walter B. Crowell will be one of the pastors taking part in the Union Good Friday service at the Heppner Methodist church from 12:30 to 3:00 based on Christ's "Seven Last Words." He will speak on "It is Finished."

Easter services at Valby Lutheran church will begin with worship services at 8:00 a.m. followed by an Easter breakfast at 9:00 a.m. Carl Troedson will be chairman of the breakfast. The nursery choir under the leadership of Mrs. Roland Bergstrom will sing during the Easter services. On Palm Sunday, the Junior choir sang with Mrs. Donald Peterson in charge.
