Easter is Observed At Elks Buffet Dinner

Gaily colored table decorations enhanced the Easter season atmosphere that prevailed Sunday, when many families gathered at the Elks Temple for the Elks' annual Easter buffet dinner.

Ham and turkey were served with mashed white potatoes, gravy, candied sweet potatoes, fruit salad and dessert between the hours of one and five in the afternoon.

Working with dinner committee chairman, Frank Hamlin, were Mrs. Hamlin, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thorpe, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Casebeer, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ployhar, Mr. and Mrs. Len Ray Schwartz, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Connor, Mr. and Mrs. Don Belenbrock, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Josi, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Harsin and Mr. and Mrs. Vern Keithley.

Juniors Make Plans To Entertain Seniors

Committees and advisors of the junior class of Heppner High school are busy getting the final touches completed for the annual Junior Senior banquet and prom, scheduled for the coming week.

Both affairs will be held in the high school multipurpose room. The banquet, set for Wednesday evening, April 23, at 6:30 p.m., will be prepared by mothers of the junior class members, with Sheridan Wyman serving as general chairman.

The formal prom will follow on Saturday evening, May 1, between the hours of 9:00 p.m. and 1:00 a.m. Couples will dance to the live music of a combo from Pasco. Chairman of the decorating committee is Erna Winchest-er.

Class advisors are Mrs. Bernice Struckmeier, Bill Nelson and Pete Glennie.

Nash Home is Scene Of Family Gathering

Easter Sunday was observed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Nash when their children and their families joined them in the first family reunion in several years.

Coming from Beaverton were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parsons and daughters Terri Lee and 3-month-old Michelle Rene, who was baptized Sunday morning at the Methodist church.

Others present included Mr. and Mrs. Lee Palmer and daughters of Ione, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Jensen and sons, and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Connor and daughter of Heppner.

Plans are being made by their children, inviting their many friends in the area to call between the hours of 7 and 9:00 p.m. to extend their greetings to their parents.

Club Marks Charter Anniversary Date; Plans Service Project

Special recognition was given the founding of the Soroptimist club of Heppner at its meetings on April 9 and 13, as it reached its 17th anniversary on April 10. Two of the 22 original members, Mrs. Ed Gonty and Mrs. Loyal Parker, who signed the charter April 10, 1948, were present. Others still on the membership roster, although inactive, are Mrs. Grace Nickerson, Mrs. Leta Thomas, Mrs. Olive Hughes and Mrs. Lucy Rogers.

At the April 15 meeting, Mrs. Jim Hager, chairman of the public relations committee, presented a drawing of the "Tree of Life" of the organization, with its roots naming the charter members, and the limbs sustaining the names of the club officers on its branches through the past 17 years. A special club birthday cake was prepared by Mrs. Gonty, courtesy chairman.

Discussion was held on the service project recently voted by the club, the sponsoring of a Golden Age club for retired and elderly citizens of the community. Mrs. Wavel Wilkinson reported on the success which a similar club has had in Hemiston and felt it would be well received here.

Mrs. Roice Fulleton, youth chairman, announced plans for serving the Elk's youth parties on April 23 and 30 for high school and junior high students in Heppner and Ione. The Elks lodge furnishes the refreshments and Soroptimist members prepare and serve the food.

Two members, Mrs. Wes Sherman, president, and Mrs. Charles Starks, recording secretary, will represent the club at the 47th Northwestern Regional conference in Salem this weekend, with headquarters in the Marion Hotel. It is expected that most of the 95 clubs in the Northwestern Region will be represented, with clubs of Corvallis, Eugene, Hood River, Klamath Falls, McMinnville, Oregon City, Portland and The Dalles assisting the host Salem club.

Rhea Unit to Host Homemakers' Festival

Plans for the Homemakers' Festival luncheon, to be held May 12, were discussed by members of the Rhea Creek Grange Home Economics Club which met last Thursday at the Elmer Palmer home for a potluck luncheon and business meeting in the afternoon.

The Rhea Creek Extension Unit will host the festival and the Grange H. E. C. will prepare and serve the luncheon at the Grange hall.

Grange members are encouraged to enter the Oregon Grange White Satin sugar 25th canning contest. Mrs. Delpha Jones, Pomona H. E. C. chairman, reports that entries must be at the Lexington Grange Hall by May 3 to be judged.

This year, each Pomona Grange will have its preliminary contest to determine county winners in each of the contest's two classes. Two identical jars or glasses of products will be entered in the Pomona contests, where one jar or glass will be opened and judged. The second jar or glass of the first place winner in each class is to be delivered to the State Grange Home Economics committee at the State Grange Convention, to be held in Pendleton on June 14, where judging of the contest's state finals will be held. The contest is limited to Grange members.

Another item of business on the Rhea Creek HEC agenda is a clean-up day scheduled for Monday, May 10, at the Grange hall.

The club will convene for a potluck luncheon Thursday, May 20, at the home of Mrs. Harold Wright.

CowBelle Luncheon Hosts Slate Officers

Three of the state officers will be special guests of the Morrow County CowBelles when they hold their spring no-host luncheon on Monday, April 26, starting at 12:00 noon in the Heppner Hotel dining rooms.

Attending will be Marge Hankins, state president; Baker; Mrs. Marge Davis, state vice president; North Powder, and Mrs. Jean Weight, state secretary, Durkee.

Wives and daughters of all stock growers of Morrow county are urged to attend, whether they have or have not paid the 1965 dues.

This luncheon will be the last big meeting until fall.

Week-end guests of Mrs. Lucy Peterson were her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Ployhar, their daughters, Susan and Marti, of Spokane, Wn., another daughter, Ruth Peterson, and Bill Hasle of Portland. Oversight guests early this week at the C. J. D. Bauman home were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Vawters of Boise, Ida. Mrs. Vawters is a niece of Bauman.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rose and their three children, were Easter week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Burkenbine. Mrs. Rose and Mrs. Burkenbine are sisters.

Wolff Heads Slate Of Installed Officers For Elks' Club Year

Past Exalted Ruler Bob Platt led the Heppner Elks Lodge No. 338 in the installation of a slate of 11 new officers and five trustees at its first meeting in April.
