

Mrs. Marion Weatherford Talks To Ione PTA on Conservation

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE—Mrs. Marion Weatherford of Arlington was the speaker at the meeting of the Ione PTA last Wednesday evening at the cafeterium.

Mrs. Weatherford, who is presently chairman of the Oregon State Fair Commission, is a very active citizen. She has been state president of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, has served on several General Federation committees, including conservation department, and has been on various other boards and committees relating to conservation.

Because of her deep interest in the subject she chose to speak on "Conservation as it Applies to Citizenship." She stressed the importance of using the wealth of our natural resources to best advantage so that our children and their children may also enjoy them. "All generations are totally dependent on them for future use," she said.

She told of many ways parents can begin teaching their children at a very young age the beauty of the world around them and the proper use of the things they see and use.

During the business meeting Lee O'Connor led the flag salute and Susan Lindstrom the prayer. Mrs. Robert Davidson was elected president for the 1963-64 school year; Mrs. Ernest Christopherson Jr., vice-president, and Mrs. Blaine Chapel,

Zing into spring! Chevrolet Impala

Chevrolet Impala Super Sport Coupe—one of two bucket-sealed beauties for '65.

People who buy other big expensive-looking cars get one thing you won't (big expensive-looking payments)

It looks like a big car. And is—by almost any standard you want to apply.

Width? Nobody builds a car as much as one inch wider. Length? It grew three inches this year. Roominess? Every closed model's got three inches more shoulder room, front and rear, and more leg and foot room up front too. Luxury? Nice little touches like the look of mellow walnut across the Impala's instrument panel. And big touches. Like the fineness of the same body by Fisher workmanship that makes some of America's most expensive cars look so expensive. How about the ride? Chevrolet engineers took the Jet-smooth one and smoothed it out even more this year. Also made it more stable by widening the wheel stance. Price? That's where Chevrolets fall way short of the other big expensive-looking cars. But we wouldn't have it any other way. Would you?

One last question: How soon can you make a good spring buy on a Chevrolet? One last answer: Just as soon as you can get down to your Chevrolet dealer's.
