Mrs. Martin Elected District Garden Club Director for Year

Mrs. Fredrick T. Martin of the lone Garden Club was elected District Director for the Blue Mountain District Number 10 of Oregon State Federation of Garden Clubs at the annual spring meeting at Columbia Grange Hall in Hermiston on Thursday, April 22. Mrs. DeVoras, Pendleton, was elected assistant director and Mrs. Charles C. Jones of Lexington, member of the lone club, was elected secretary-treasurer. All will serve a two-year term.

The Hermiston Garden club was hostess to 109 registered club members and guests representing twelve clubs from Milton-Freewater, Pendleton, Echo, Pilot Rock, Umatilla, Boardman, Stanfield, and Ione.

Mrs. Harry Andrews of Echo, outgoing district director, was presented a state life membership and a cash gift for her three years of continuous service. She had been in garden club work for many years and was organizer of the lone Garden club, when she was district director in 1949.

Lewis Gregory of Hermiston, an amateur chrysanthemum exhibitor, gave an informative demonstration on chrysanthemum culture and growing mums for exhibition purposes.

Mrs. Ardis Carter, a Hermiston florist, discussed flower arranging as she made many for exhibits.

Three state officers were present for the all day meeting: Mrs. J. W. Scheel of Corvallis, state president of the Oregon Federation of Garden Clubs; Mrs. Allen B. Scott, recording secretary of Corvallis, and Mrs. Ben Andrews, corresponding secretary of Eugene.

Those attending from lone Garden club were Mrs. Oscar Lundell, local president, Mrs. Kenneth Palmer, Mrs. Alonzo Henderson, Mrs. Charles C. Jones, and Mrs. Martin.

Oregon will be host to the National Federation of Garden Clubs at the Hilton Hotel in Portland May 23-27. Mrs. Martin will serve as a page at this meeting.

On display at the district meeting were a few of the 500 decorative rock heads made by the Umatilla Garden Club for favors at an evening banquet at the national convention.

The new district directors of the state will be installed at the annual state convention in Klamath Falls June 14-16.

Friends Greet Couple On 25th Anniversary

The home of Father and Mrs. C. Bruce Spencer was the scene of a pleasant open-house gathering Saturday evening when friends and relatives called to compliment them on their 25th wedding anniversary. Planning the arrangements were their daughter, Mrs. Ned Clark, and their son, Bruce.

The couple was presented many lovely gifts and extended good wishes from those who called. Guests were served refreshments of anniversary cake, tea and coffee by the hosts.

Special guests for the occasion were the Rev. and Mrs. M. C. Moynihan of Toledo, parents of Mrs. Spencer, who were house guests from Thursday until Tuesday.

Easter Wedding Vows Unite Cheryl Crist To Raymond F. Berry

Mr. and Mrs. Winn L. Crist are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Cheryl Wynn, to Raymond Franklin Berry, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Franklin Berry, of Colorado Springs, Colo.

The Easter marriage ceremony was performed Saturday, April 17, at Pilgrim Holiness Church in Colorado Springs. In the presence of relatives and many friends, Parents of the bride, however, were unable to attend.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Meredith Franklin Crist, Sr., of Sterling, Colo., appeared in a full length gown of lace over taffeta, with lace edging the short illusion veil. Her bridal bouquet was of rosebuds, centered with an orchid.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Raymond Holmes, who chose to wear a gown of pale rose, and a floral headdress.

Serving as bridesmaids were Misses Sandra and Judy Henderson, twin classmates of the bride. They wore matching gowns of pale pink and floral headdresses.

Attending as best man was Raymond Holmes.

All the attendants were of Colorado Springs.

A large reception was arranged and given in their honor by their many friends in the church and community.

The couple took a short wedding trip. For going away the bride wore a pale blue suit with navy blue and white accessories, and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The new Mrs. Berry, after her graduation from Heppner High school in 1962, has studied for two years at Northwestern Junior college at Sterling, Colo., is now taking advanced business training at Colorado Springs, and has office employment.

The bridegroom, after studying electronics in Maryland three years, is employed with the Hewlett-Packard Electronics Co. in Colorado Springs.

They are now at home at 815 North Custer St., Colorado Springs, Colo.

Teachers' Honoraries From 2 Counties Join For Luncheon Meeting

Iota Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society, international honorary organization for women teachers, met Saturday, April 17, at the Civic Recreation Center in Hermiston. About 40 members from Umatilla and Morrow counties attended.

The hostess committee, chaired by Mrs. Willis Crampton of Hermiston, had decorated the room with flowers, hats and other items appropriate for the Easter season. Following the collect, given by Mrs. Earle Cochran of Pendleton, the luncheon, which had been prepared by DeMolay mothers, was served by the boys of DeMolay.

Following the luncheon, singing was led by Mrs. Floyd Hobbs of Irrigon, with Mrs. LaVern Partlow of Boardman as pianist.

Mrs. Ernest Wheeler of Milton-Freewater introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. William Walker of the same city, who spoke of her four years' experience while living with her family among the Japanese. Mrs. Walker illustrated her talk with slides and displayed kimonos and other items of interest brought from Japan.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. David Vanderhorst, president, of Umatilla. Business items included plans for attending the state convention in The Dalles, April 30 to May 2. The next meeting of the chapter will be held in Heppner on May 15.

Attending from Morrow county were Zoe Billings and LaVerne Partlow, Boardman; Ruth Bentley, Joyce Smith, Gladys Hobbs, Irrigon; Gladys Ely, Ione, and Velva Becholdt, Hardman.
