Western Atmosphere Adds to Happiness Of Wranglers' Social

Some 200 Wrangler members and their guests enjoyed dancing Saturday night at the Legion hall, decorated with western paintings that, along with a few square dances, called by Al Fetsch and Ed LaTrace, motivated the "Happiness" theme chosen for the dance.

Three long tables laden with a large variety of finger foods and beverages also lended to the old-time dance atmosphere that prevailed until 2:30 a.m. Country and western music was donated by two local groups. Playing until midnight were Roy Quackenbush, Mrs. Charlotte Walker, Al Bunch, Franklin Ely and Lynn Pearson. Taking over until the wee hours were Leonard Toll, Jim Phegley and Don Hughes.

Clever and humorous painted wall hangings, evident throughout the hall, were products of the artistic talents of Mrs. Ernie Winchester, general chairman for the dance, Mrs. Don Robinson and Mrs. Kent Richardson.

Wranglers are enthusiastically marking on their social calendars, June 5, the tentative date set for the next dance.

Degree Lodge Plans Inspection Night

Plans are underway by members of the Degree of Honor Protective Association to make inspection night on May 11 an outstanding event of the year. State Director Clara B. Gertson will be present as the inspecting officer and State Vice President Bertha Chisolm and State Secretary Grace Hiatt, both of Portland, are invited to attend. Guests are also expected from Magnolia Lodge of Pendleton.

In commemoration of the national president's 50th anniversary, members are requested to bring articles or clothing for a display table, representative of the gay nineties or early 1900's. At the regular meeting April 22, a memorial service was held for Gertrude Applegate. Conducting the services were the President Mary Bryant and the devotional officers, Lucille Parrish, past president, and Alice McCabe, second vice president. A letter of sympathy was sent to the family.

Gerald Swaggarts Plan Open House

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Swaggart will be hosts for open house at their new ranch home on Butter Creek Saturday.

Friends are invited to drop in from 3 p.m. to 10 p.m., and pot-luck supper will be at 7:30.

Vancouver Ceremony Unites T. Valentine To Marvin Padberg

IONE—A wedding of local interest here is that of Marvin Robert Padberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Padberg of Ione, who was united in marriage to Tanna Lou Valentine of Portland on Friday evening, April 30. The single ring ceremony was performed by Father Peckover at St. Luke's Episcopal church in Vancouver, Wn., before members of the family and close friends.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, James Valentine, wore a street length navy blue dress fashioned with long sleeves. The neckline and wrists were accented with ruffles of white. Her accessories of white included a small veiled hat and she carried a nosegay of white flowers encircled with white carnations.

Linda Valentine, the bride's sister, was maid of honor. She wore a black and white dress with white accessories and a white carnation corsage. Best man was the bridegroom's brother-in-law, Gerald Rea of Condon.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Peggy Thomson in Portland. The bride's table was centered with an arrangement of carnations and roses with white tapers. Mrs. Thomson, Mrs. Darrell Padberg and Mrs. Valentine all had pink rosebud corsages. Pouring coffee and punch were Mrs. Padberg and Mrs. Thomson, and Mrs. Gerald Rea of Condon and Linda Valentine served the wedding cake.

The newlyweds spent the week-end at the Oregon Coast and will make their home in Ione following the bride's graduation from Washington High school in Portland in June. The bridegroom was a graduate of Ione High school in 1963 and has attended Columbia Basin College at Pasco.

Bridal Shower Party Fetes Bev Davidson At Lexington Hall

LEXINGTON—A bridal shower was held at the Lexington IOOF hall Monday evening, honoring Miss Beverly Davidson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Davidson, whose marriage to Harlan Flint of Portland will be an event of June 19.

The rooms were decorated with the bride-elect's wedding colors, pale green and white. A large sheet cake centered with white wedding roses and an outline of green on the edge, was served from a lace covered table, centered with an arrangement of white apple blossoms and a white Madonna.

Tea and coffee were served from a silver service by Mrs. Waldo Flint, Beaverton, mother of the groom-to-be. Serving the cake was Mrs. Davidson, mother of the future bride.

Many lovely gifts were opened, with the assistance of Mrs. Vern Viall, sister of the honoree, and Mrs. William Boswell, sister of Mr. Flint. Hostesses for the large gathering were Mrs. Ed Baker, Mrs. Eidon Padberg, Mrs. William J. VanWinkle, Mrs. R. J. Doherty and Mrs. C. C. Jones.

Proxy Shower Held For Lee Padbergs

In honor of the newlywed couple, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Padberg, a proxy shower was given by friends at the Eldon Padberg home last Wednesday. Hostesses were Mrs. Ed Baker, Mrs. William J. Van Winkle and Mrs. Bob Davidson.

Guests were asked to bring their gifts unwrapped, then enjoyed the afternoon wrapping them in interesting ways, before they were delivered in Boise, Ida., at the home of the young couple. Several who were unable to be present, sent gifts.

Hostesses served angel food cake with peppermint topping to the following ladies attending: Mrs. Lester Cox, Mrs. Bob Lovgren, Mrs. Oris Padberg, Mrs. George Hermann, Mrs. Deibert Piper, Mrs. Johnnie Ledbetter, Mrs. Mervin Leonard, Mrs. Roger Campbell, Mrs. Al Fetsch, Mrs. Van Winkle, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Davidson, and an out-of-town guest, Mrs. Gene Blissinger of Pendleton.

Elks Chicken Dinner Is Mothers Day Event

Mothers will be special guests Sunday afternoon, May 9, at the Elks' Temple, where the lodge is staging a Mothers Day dinner from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m.

Winn Crist is general chairman in charge of arrangements for the fried chicken dinner. Committee members assisting him are Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Burkenbine, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Connor, Mr. and Mrs. Al Fetsch, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Prock, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Prock, Mr. and Mrs. Randy Lott and Mr. and Mrs. Pete McMurtrey.

Tickets for the dinner will be $2.50 for adults and high school students, $1.25 for grade school children, pre-schoolers, free.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gonty and son Doug returned from Seattle Monday night after attending the Shoe Fair there Sunday. They left here Saturday evening and spent one night with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gonty, and the other night with Mr. Gonty's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gonty, and family. None of their relatives were damaged by the recent earthquake, although a niece, Judy, was working in a building that was badly damaged. They heard many stories of the freakish damage done by the quake.

Topic Club Party Gives Library Aid

The Ione Public Library will receive new books as a result of the successful card party sponsored by the Ione Topic club at the Masonic Hall on Saturday afternoon, the last day of National Library Week.

Eight tables of pinocle and five of bridge were in play. Prizes in bridge were won by Mrs. Dee Cox, Lexington, high; Mrs. Inez Huffman, second high; Mrs. Earle Gilliam, low. Pinocle prizes went to Mrs. Sam Turner, high; Mrs. Martha Van Schoelack, Heppner, second high; and Mrs. Louise Carlson, Ione, low. Mrs. Garland Swanson, Ione, won the door prize.

A large group from Heppner and Lexington attended. A light blue full length coat was left at the hall. The owner may get it by contacting any of the committee, Mrs. Gene Rietmann, Mrs. Vernon Troedson, or Mrs. Elmer Griffith.

Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Blake moved this past week-end to Boring, where they will make their home for the summer with her son and family. Mr. and Mrs. Grant Strum, Mr. Blake will be employed in carpenter work there, but the couple will continue to keep their home here.

Girls League Plans To Honor Mothers At Scholarship Tea

A one-act comedy play, "When Shakespeare's Ladies Meet," will provide the program for the annual Girls League Scholarship and Mothers' Tea, planned for Wednesday, May 12, in the high school multipurpose room.

Mothers of all high school boys and girls, and girls now in the eighth grade, will be honored guests. Hours will be from 2:00 to 3:30 in the afternoon, without charge. Contributions will be taken, however, to the scholarship fund, making it possible to give a scholarship each year to one girl selected by a representative committee of girls from the league, and used in any field of study beyond high school. Martha Peterson was the recipient of last year's scholarship, and Virginia Springer, the year before.

Musical entertainment and refreshments are planned for the afternoon, as well as the one-act play, Tamara Smith is this year's Girls' League president.

RUBBER STAMPS made to order, also STAMPING PADS in black, red or green. For business or personal use. Orders filled promptly at the Gazette-Times office.

4 County Teachers Attend State Meet

"Who Would Kindle Another, Must Himself Glow," was the title of the keynote address by Mrs. Loretta Halek of the International Staff of Delta Kappa Gamma at the 23rd state convention in The Dalles on May 1.

"Education is of paramount importance because it shapes the future of America," said Mrs. Halek. She continued, "Teachers must exercise energy of mind, of heart, and must learn an appreciation of others in order to achieve warmth and greatness of spirit."

Iota Chapter was honored by having two members chosen as Alpha Iota state officers. They were Galena Sandwick, recording secretary, and Hortense Colberg, parliamentarian. Mrs. Leon Bentley and Mrs. Robert Smith, Irrigon; Mrs. Franklin Ely, Ione, and Mrs. Adrian Beecholt, Hardman, were those attending from Morrow county.

Earl Gilliam returned home April 30 from St. Vincent hospital, Portland, where he had undergone surgery on his right hand, removing cartilage growth which had been pressing on nerves in the hand and wrist. After convalescing a few days in Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Gilliam visited a few days at the Earl Blake home in Pacific City, before returning to Heppner.
