Golfers Start Season With Stag Night

By VIRGINIA KELSO

KINZUA—The men of the Kinzua Golf club started the season with a grand rush on Friday night by staging their first stag night of the season. Thirty-five fellows turned out to whack their way about the fairways in an attempt to get the rust out of their bones after the winter's layoff. Chef Jim Walker was, as usual, in fine form in the kitchen department and filled the hungry golfers with delicious stew, after which the usual evening of cards was enjoyed by all.

Honors for the evening's competition were dominated mostly by fellows named Bob. Low gross, Bob Misener; low net, Bob Slinkard; long drive, Bob Misener; most birdies, Bob Misener; hidden hole, Bob Beavis, and closest to the pin, Ernie Wall.

A work day was held at the club on Sunday with a gang of the members on hand. They spent four hours sprucing up the course and doing small cleaning jobs that need attention this time of year.

Sunday, May 9, in honor of mothers, the annual Mother's Day breakfast will be held at the club with the men doing the serving. During the day a Mother-Daughter two-ball tournament will be played. Mothers who have no daughter of their own are asked to borrow a gal for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Stephens of Weser, Idaho, spent Wednesday and Thursday visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Arne Slinkard went to Portland Wednesday evening to meet their son, Jim, who is home on leave.

Don McConnell returned home last Monday from Walla Walla, Wn., where he had spent several weeks in the hospital.

Cleve Robbins returned this past week from Durham, Ark., where he has been visiting relatives.

Mrs. William Stephens was the guest of honor last Wednesday night when a bridal shower was given for her at Jeffmore Hall. Two shower games were played with Sharon Mangum and Alice Speight winning the prizes.

The honor guest then opened her many lovely and useful gifts assisted by her mother, Mrs. Archie Cox and her mother-in-law, Mrs. R. O. Stephens. Cake and coffee were then served to the guests by the hostesses, Helen Shelton and Betty Benson.

Mrs. Howard Rice, Mrs. Paul Oyler, and Mrs. Don Slinkard went to Pendleton Thursday night to take Mrs. G. L. Oyler and Linda Rice to take the train to Cherryvale, Kans. Mrs. Oyler had spent the past month here.

Mrs. Verlin Conner and son David went to Pendleton Wednesday where David had a medical checkup.

Mrs. Jack Sitton and Mrs. Cora Burnside of Spray went to Grass Valley Friday to visit with the Richard Catlin family. When they returned home they were accompanied by Mr. Catlin's mother, Mrs. Mary Taffey of New Orleans, La., who went on to Spray to visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Slim Rhoton went to The Dalles Friday for medical care for Slim.
