

Paris Atmosphere Adds To Gaiety of Prom Evening

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE — An "Evening in Paris" provided the motif for the junior-senior banquet and prom held at the lone High school on Saturday evening, May 8. With gaily variegated colored cafe booths under a realistic starlit sky the juniors, seniors, and their guests danced to the music of The Roadrunners from La Grande. A rotating crystal sphere lit with spot lights hanging in the center of the room provided sparkle to the candle-lit tables in the booths.

Other decorations put up by the juniors included hanging flower baskets, a large flower cart filled with blossoms, and flower boxes full of many kinds of blooms. A mural of the Eiffel Tower was on the wall at one end of the room with the Arc de Triomphe on the wall at the other end.

At intermission time Mark Halvorsen, junior class president, crowned Cheryl Lundell as queen of the prom, and Susan Lindstrom crowned Joe Halvorsen, king of the prom. They were chosen by secret ballot by the junior class.

Seventh grade girls served punch and cookies during the evening. Chaperons were Carol Miller and D. J. Lujan, advisors of the junior class, and other faculty members.

The banquet, which was prepared by the junior class mothers, was served in the cafeteria to about 65 guests. Mark Halvorsen was master of ceremonies and welcomed the guests, which included seniors, their parents, juniors, faculty advisory board, Rev. and Mrs. Walter B. Crowell and Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Robinson.

Senior class president Robert Emert responded to the welcome and gave the class of 1965 history. Musical selections were sung by a quartet composed of Connie Christopherson, Bonnie Hynd, Susan Lindstrom, and Cathy Hausler. They were accompanied by Mrs. Bill Rietmann.

The dinner tables were centered with miniature Eiffel Towers and red tulips. The senior table and the head table had arrangements of white glads and blue Dutch iris. Guests were served by ten sophomores. The boys wore French berets and the girls French lace bands in their hair and white ruffled organdy aprons.

Success hasn't gone to its price

After all, you don't get the No. 1 place (or stay there year after year after year) unless you give people a lot for their money. That, Chevrolet does. Look what's new for 1965. Everything.

Like the handsomest new styling you've ever turned around for another glance at. Like Chevrolet's Jet-smooth ride, even better now with Wide-Stance to steady things as you go. Like however much economy or excitement you'd want, our miserly 140-hp Six to our ferocious Turbo-Jet V8, 325 hp on order.

Besides price, one other thing hasn't changed: Chevrolet's traditional resale value . . . still so good you won't believe it until you get it. So get it (along with all that's new) at your Chevrolet dealer's.
