Halfway Riders Set Junior Rodeo

The Hells Canyon Riders of Halfway, are planning their 9th annual Hells Canyon Western States Junior Rodeo for July 17-18 at the Halfway Fair grounds in Halfway.

The date has been set for the queen contest to be held on June 5 for royalty to reign over the rodeo. Contest will start at 1 p.m. followed by a play day. Several events have been planned with ribbons to be given.

The queen's contest is open to any girl in Oregon, Washington, Idaho or California from the ages 9 through 18, inclusive, still attending school and unmarried. A queen will be selected from the 15-through 18-year-old group and two princesses from the 9-through 14-year-old group. Winners will be outfitted in Western apparel. The queen will receive a trophy as well. They will be required to appear at several rodeos to represent the Hells Canyon Junior Rodeo.

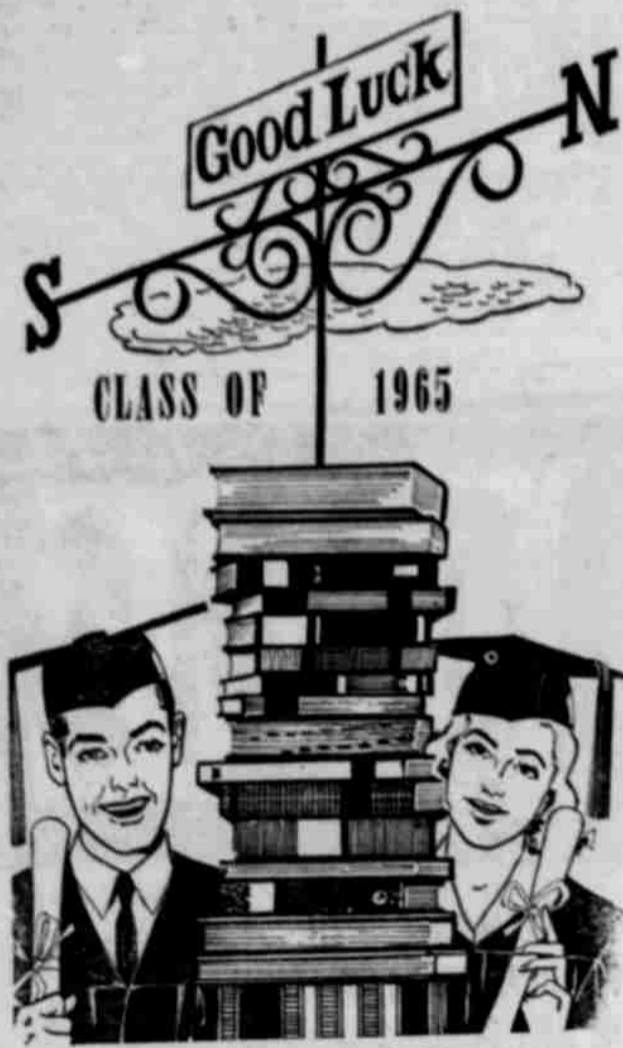

A Queen's Ball is scheduled for the night of June 5 at the fair hall in Halfway so the Queen can be crowned and princesses named.

Entry blanks for the contest may be obtained by writing to Mrs. Robert Brown at Halfway, P.O. Box 724, or call SH1-2538. The girls will be required to follow a pattern which will be drawn on the entry blanks so it is advisable to write for one as soon as possible to give sufficient time for practice.

Plan Demonstrations

Demonstrations were chosen at the last meeting by members of the Kettles and Spoons 4-H club that they intend to give either at the county fair or at one of the meetings. We will meet again the second week in June.
