'Flyup' Ceremony Advances Girls

By LaVELLE PARTLOW

IRRIGON — Irrigon Bluebird groups under the leadership of Mrs. Don Leighton and Mrs. Jari Sonsteng, participated in the West District Grand Council Fire held at the Hermiston Junior high school auditorium Sunday afternoon, May 16.

The following girls participated in the "flyup" ceremony that promoted them from Bluebirds to Campfire girls: Danette Leighton, Roberta Acock, Karen Richards, Sharon Stewart, Cheryl Partlow, Priscilla Goodall, Debbie Keith, Ann Gasser and Kebra Huwe. Girls attending, who will be Bluebirds for another year, were Cheryl Eppenbaugh, Pamela Schmeder, Elythe Brasel and Nora Poirier. During the "flyup" ceremony, the girls' mothers participated by tying the campfire girls' neck scarves.

Juanita Goodall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Goodall, is recuperating at her home after undergoing surgery on her arm at the Walla Walla General hospital. Juanita fell from a tree Monday while playing, and fractured her left arm in two different places. The fracture at her elbow required surgery to pin and wire the shattered bone.

The 3rd and 4th grade classes of A. C. Houghton school will make an educational field trip to Whitman Mission at Walla Walla, Wash., Thursday, May 27.

Darrel Pummel and Phillip Proctor are roommates at the Umatilla hospital. Both boys are suffering from sore throats and chest congestion.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Parker returned to Irrigon Monday after spending a week at Victoria, B. C., visiting friends.

Mrs. Leon Bentley, Mrs. Robert Smith and Mrs. Floyd Hobbs attended a Delta Kappa Gamma lady teachers luncheon and business meeting at Heppner Saturday. The meeting was held at the Methodist church. Mrs. Floyd Hobbs sang a vocal solo during the program, accompanied by Mrs. Albert Partlow.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Warner drove to Salem Friday, and spent the week-end with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Pantelis Vrontakis and son.

The following youngsters completed a spring session of kindergarten under the instruction of Mrs. Moreland, at A. C. Houghton school, and received their certificates Friday: James Behnhauer, Donald Leighton, Mark Gollyhorn, Juanita Goodall, Vickie Keith, Donald Estes, Barbara Ritzer, Susan Tiller, Kathy Pulfrey and Valerie Sullivan.

The Riverside High school band under the direction of Al Reeves presented a selection of numbers at a band concert held at the A. C. Houghton cafeteria Friday evening. Following the concert, members of the band had a party in the cafeteria, and served cookies and punch.

Mrs. Houghton Takes Tour
