

Open House Party Honors Mrs. R. McCoy

By LaVELLE PARTLOW
 IRRIGON — Mrs. Ruth McCoy was honored on her 80th birthday, May 22, with open house from 3 to 5 p.m. at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Warren McCoy and family. Over 40 guests called during the afternoon. Those from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Whipple, Umatilla; Mrs. Doshia Brownell and Mrs. Ada Chapman, Walla Walla; Mrs. George Hash and children, Miss Snow McCoy, Hermiston; Mr. and Mrs. Jack McFall and Kathy, Kennewick; Mrs. Frank Stewart, La Grande and Mr. and Mrs. Chase McCoy, Bradbury, Calif.

Cake and ice cream, punch and coffee were served, and a money tree was featured in lieu of gifts.

Mrs. Louis Shade reported a successful auction and rummage sale sponsored by Irrigon ladies Saturday afternoon, in spite of inclement weather with occasional showers. Shirley Jackson and her baton twirlers provided entertainment.

A good turnout was on hand for the annual A. C. Houghton school picnic, even though the sunshine was scarce. The pot-luck meal was indoors due to the wind, and was followed by a softball game between the high school students and the men, and games and races for the younger students. Ice cream was furnished by the A. C. Houghton PTA. Mrs. Kenneth Eppenbaugh, PTA president, was in charge of the picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Manka and children of College Place, Wn., visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Partlow and Sheryl Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Orville Buchanan accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Willard Miller to Seattle, and visited her friend, Rose Bishop.

Mrs. Warren McCoy, district No. 7 director of home extension, attended a Umatilla county luncheon and workshop at the Pendleton Lutheran church last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Leighton, Climax, Colo., arrived in Irrigon Thursday to spend the week-end with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don Leighton and children.

Irwin Murtishaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Murtishaw, was injured Sunday afternoon as he and his father were branding and vaccinating calves. As Irwin Murtishaw was preparing to vaccinate a calf, the animal unexpectedly kicked, ramming the vaccination needle into Murt-shaw's eye. The needle punctured the eyeball, requiring stitches. Murtishaw is under doctors care at the Pendleton Community Memorial hospital.

Larry Stitzel, son of Mrs. Helen Stitzel, entered military service April 28 and is stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., an engineering camp. Larry is assigned to the Engineering Equipment Division.

The Irrigon City council held a special meeting Monday, May 24, and voted to have the 6th street railroad crossing paved.

Jerry Mulkey, son of Mrs. Helen Mulkey, won his first trophy for drag racing at the Woodburn drag strip on May 2. Mulkey won his second trophy May 15, also at Woodburn. Mulkey drives a 1957 Chevrolet, and enters the class H stock races.

Mr. and Mrs. Rees Morgan returned to Irrigon Saturday evening after spending a month in Colorado and Kansas visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. John Volle left for Wallowa Friday, and plan to spend the summer in their mountain cabin. They were accompanied by their grandson, John Lathrop. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Morgan and children drove to Elgin Saturday and were overnight guests of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Volle and family.

Sunday they drove on to Wallowa, visited the Volles and brought John Lathrop back to Irrigon.

Mrs. Vera Moss, Portland, came to Irrigon last Thursday and spent the week-end with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Berger.

Mrs. Myrna Mille, Oakland, Calif., is visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jorgensen and Donald.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hill drove to Portland and visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Cook and children. The two families drove on to Tacoma, Wn., to visit Mrs. Hill's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Dexter.
