Driscoll to Make Second Journey To State Meet

It's on to state for the second time this year for Heppner High school track star Tim Driscoll as he heads for Corvallis and the Oregon High School Track and Field championships this Friday.

Driscoll was on the Mustang basketball team that traveled to the state tourney and makes his second trip by virtue of a win in the District 7-A-2 track meet held at Burns Saturday. Driscoll seemed well healed after a sore knee kept him from a first place finish at the subdistrict meet a week earlier.

A strong wind slowed times and Driscoll's time was his slowest time of the season, 2:07.7. The Heppner team finished eighth in the nine-team field with 22 points. Tim Smith was third in the mile, Jim Jacobs was sixth in shotput, and David Hall was sixth in high hurdles, all short of qualifying for state.

Qualifiers for the state meet: High hurdles: David Barnett, Burns, 15.8; Terry Aschenbrenner, Enterprise, 16.0.

Low hurdles: Greg Byrd, Wahtonka, 22.1; Barnett, Burns, 22.1.

100-yard dash: Steve Kerby, Nyssa, 10.1; Phil Teal, Burns, 10.2.

Mile run: Bob Rhen, Burns, 4:45.9; Phil Berthold, Wahtonka, 4:55.0.

440-yard dash: Mike Hughes, Pilot Rock, 53.0; Russ Kowalski, Burns, 53.9.

220-yard dash: Hughes, Pilot Rock, 23.7; Teal, Burns, 24.0.

Two-mile run: Ron Berthold, Wahtonka, 10:47.5; Mike Foss, Sherman, 11:10.3.

Pole vault: Jack Crittendon, Wahtonka, 10'6"; Steve Gentry, Sherman, 10'6".

880-yard run: Tim Driscoll,

Rockhound Corner

The monthly meeting of the Morrow County Gem and Mineral Society was held Saturday, May 22, in the old library building. Several members told of interesting trips that they had taken recently and some had rocks to show.

After a short business meeting, Bob Lowe showed colored slides of his interesting trip to England last year.

The door prize, some slices of colorful and unusual rocks, was won by Joanne Taylor. A little time was spent getting rocks ready for the sidewalk bazaar.

Anyone is welcome to attend the club meetings, on the fourth Saturday of each month, except July and August.

Indians Extend Winning Streak But Giants Tough

Willow Creek Little League Standings

Team	W	L	Pct.
Indians	5	0	1.000
Dodgers	3	3	.500
Braves	2	2	.500
Giants	0	5	.000

By KIT ANDERSON
Coach Tom Hughes' Giants have yet to win a game in the Willow Creek Little League and Lindsay Kincaid's Indians have yet to lose, but don't count either thing sure.

While the Indians have found no competition to date, the Giants seem to be rapidly improving and Monday the Dodgers had to overcome them with a sixth inning rally before they were able to take the game, 6-4. Last week's action saw the Indians take two from the Dodgers, 16-6, on Tuesday and 11-4 on Thursday.

The Indians had little to worry about in Tuesday's action as they collected 10 runs in the first five innings while holding the Dodgers to four. Just for good measure, the MCGG boys added six more in their half of the final frame. Robin Duffy topped the Dodgers at the plate, going 2-for-2. Bruce Marquardt had two hits in four trips to the plate, one of them a homer.

Thursday's play saw the Indians take their fifth game without a loss but it took them the full six innings to do it. The Dodgers started things off as they scored three runs in the first but the Indians came back with a six-run third frame. Robin Duffy again led the Dodger batters with a 1-for-2 performance while Bruce Marquardt paced the Indians with a homer in the fourth.

Monday's game was a real thriller as the Giants went looking for their first win and almost came up with it. The Giants were leading 2-1, going into the fifth but the Dodgers came up with two runs to go ahead, 3-2.

Unwilling to give in, the Giants tallied two of their own to take the lead back, 4-3, but the Dodgers had one more time at bat and they took advantage of it. Jon Hodman stole home to tie it up at 4-all and Dave Gunderson's double followed. Robin Duffy walked and then both Gunderson and Duffy scored to make it 6-4. The Giants got two men on base and threatened, but Terry Hughes pulled off a double play to end the game.

Ione Girl Initiated Into Honor Society

Miss Judy Sherer, a student at Eastern Oregon College, La Grande, was initiated into Alpha Pi Epsilon on May 18, an honor society for secretarial students.

To be eligible for membership, a student must earn a grade average of A or B in units of secretarial science subjects, possess good character, leadership, and outstanding skills in secretarial subjects.

Judy recently qualified with a grade of 99 and 98 to take the civil service tests in typing and shorthand in which she rated a GS-4.

Wranglers Playday Rides Add Points for Prizes

Another in the spring series of play days for the Heppner Wranglers was enjoyed at the club grounds on Sunday, May 16. Winners received points toward trophies and prizes to be given at the end of the year.

Top points in the senior division were won by Pat Dougherty, 1st; Bill Healy, 2nd, and Bob Steagall, 3rd.

Three groups of winners were named in the ring race. Ages 7-12 were Becky Fulleton, 1st, Susan Healy, 2nd, and Jeanne Daly, 3rd; ages 13-17 were Alvin Ashbeck, 1st; Theresa Munkers, 2nd, and Patti Collins, 3rd; in senior division were Pat Dougherty, 1st; Roice Fulleton, 2nd, and Jeri Schubert, 3rd.

In the games of musical ropes, winners for ages 7-12 were Becky Dougherty, 1st; Becky Fulleton, 2nd, and Lisa Collins, 3rd.

3rd; ages 13-17 were Erna Winchester, 1st; Patti Collins, 2nd, and Patti Healy, 3rd. An added event was a special ladies' figure and stake race, with Pat Dougherty winning 1st; Dimple Munkers, 2nd; Kite Healy, 3rd, and Merlyn Robinson, 4th.

The last play day for points will be Sunday, June 6, starting with a potluck lunch at 12:30, followed by the games at 1:30. An overnight trail ride is planned for June 26 and 27, with a large group expected to ride into the Ernie Winchester cabin in the mountains.

Methodist Youth Get Bible Gifts; Vacation School Set

Nine second grade pupils received Bibles at the annual promotion ceremony of the Methodist church school Sunday, May 23. Parents were guests during the Sunday morning church school hour.

In the promotion class were David McLeod, Becky Phegley, Douglas Krieger, Mary Henry, Robert Todd, Howard Green, Sally Winters, Susan Phegley and Clay Benson.

Plans for vacation church school, to be held June 14-18, were announced. Mrs. Herman Green, chairman of the commission on education, is in charge of planning and organizing the week's activities.

Beginning June 21, church school for the summer months will be held Monday afternoons from 3:00 to 4:00 o'clock, with a full staff of teachers for grades kindergarten through sixth. Junior high, senior high and adult classes will meet as usual before the Sunday church services.
