

Church Vacation School Starts; Community Auction Planned

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE — A coffee hour will be held following the United Church of Christ morning worship service on Sunday, June 6, to help defray the expenses of the vacation church school, which begins June 7 and will run through June 11, with a program of interest to parents and friends the evening of June 11. Church school will begin at 8:45 and continue until 11:30 a.m. Mrs. Milton Morgan is chairman of the coffee hour.

Church is now being held at 10:00 a.m. for the summer months, with only the basement church school classes meeting during that hour.

Preceding the coffee hour, there will be a special business session of the church to approve final plans for the new church school classrooms planned for the old Baptist church building.

Committees are fast putting the finishing touches on plans for the beef barbecue dinner and auction to be held at the Ione Grange hall on Saturday, June 12. Bidding will begin at 10:30 with dinner served at 12:30. Many items of interest are already donated for the sale, including some antiques. All proceeds will go to the United Church of Christ.

Mrs. Joel Barnett and children of Vancouver, Wash., are here visiting Mr. Barnett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Barnett and other relatives.

E. W. Bristow has recently purchased Jack's Place, owned and operated by Jack Farris until his death in January in an automobile accident. He is doing extensive remodeling and plans to open for business soon.

Clarence Linn of Salem was a Saturday visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom and family. He was returning from a business trip to La Grande and Pendleton.

To Teach in Richland
D. G. Lujan, Spanish and commercial teacher in the high school here since 1957, announced his resignation this week. He has accepted a position teaching Spanish in the Richland, Wash., school system for the coming year. Mr. and Mrs. Lujan and their family will leave on Wednesday for Yellowstone Park, where he is employed as a park ranger during the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Lujan and Mr. and Mrs. Carol Miller and families were honored at a coffee hour following church services at the Ione United Church of Christ on Sunday morning. The deaconesses were hostesses for the social hour and Don Bristow, moderator, presented gifts to both of the families in appreciation for their outstanding work in the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lundell of Milwaukie spent the week-end here visiting her mother, Mrs. A. C. Swanson and other relatives.

Les Madden and George Portschy of Portland came up for the week-end and visited with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Halvorsen were week-end visitors of his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen. They also visited relatives in Pendleton including her mother, who had recently broken her leg.

A special election will be held in Ione on June 14 from 2 to 8 o'clock to vote on a 5-year serial levy of about $2400 a year for the purchase of a new fire truck for the city.

Mrs. Ida Grabill left on Friday for Baker, where she will visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wright. She was taken over by another daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Keithley of Condon.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jepson this week-end were Dr. and Mrs. Joe Kallister and three children of Vancouver, Wash. Mrs. Kallister's aunt, Mrs. Walter Dobyns of Eugene is also here and will remain for a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom drove to Pacific Lutheran University near Tacoma on Friday to bring home their son, Stephen, who has completed his freshman year at the school. They were accompanied by Mrs. Oscar Lundell, who will visit for a week with her sister, Mrs. Josephine Huff in Seattle.
