

Davis-Harris Wedding
Solemnized June 5
In Monument Church

MONUMENT—A double ring ceremony joined in marriage Miss Judith Millie Davis and Aaron Charles Harris on Saturday, June 5, in the Monument Presbyterian church. The Rev. Hall of La Grande officiated at the 2:30 p.m. ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Davis of Monument, and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harris of Tucson, Ariz.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white lace over nylon taffeta gown, with full illusion veil held in place by an orange blossom tiara. She carried a white family Bible, topped with pink ruffled carnations.

Miss Patricia Davis, Monument, attended her sister as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Nestle Erhardt, sister of the bride, Portland; Kathy Howell, Monument, and Daria Dress, Spirit Lake, friends of the bride.

The attendants wore pink and blue taffeta dresses, with white accessories, and carried pink and white carnation bouquets.

Flower girls were Shannon and Leasa Erhardt, nieces of the bride, Portland, and ring bearer was Tommy Erhardt, nephew of the bride.

Best man was Don Capon of Monument. Ushers were Ronnie Brisboa, Francis Chittock, both of Monument, and Gene Cecil, John Day.

Mrs. Neva Jones was organist and accompanied Mrs. R. Duncan when she sang, "Oh Perfect Love," and "The Lord's Prayer."

About 110 guests were present for the ceremony and reception which followed at the church.

After a wedding trip to Spokane, Wn., the couple now live in Monument. The groom is employed at Seneca Lumber Co. at Long Creek.

Coming from out-of-town were the groom's mother, Mrs. Jack Harris, from Tucson, accompanied by Mrs. May Vanderlane; aunts of the groom, Mrs. Austin Miles, Mrs. Charles Datson and Mrs. Lois Barnes, of Spokane, Wn.; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Peterson, Richmond, Calif., brother-in-law and sister of Mrs. Ray Davis; Mrs. Hazel Nelms, Spokane; Mrs. Raymond Hooker, Mrs. Karie Hickerson and Julie Baker; Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Erhardt and three children, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Phil Jarner, Portland; James Humphrey, Fossil; Mrs. Darrell Cecil and Gene, John Day; Daria Dress, Spirit Lake, Ida., and Jim Barton, Long Creek.

Leathers' Families To Reunite Sunday

Third annual reunion picnic of the descendants of the pioneer Leathers' family of the Hardman community will be on Father's Day, Sunday, June 20, at the IOOF hall in Hardman.

All relatives and friends of the family are invited and asked to arrive around 10:00 a.m. for a full day of visiting and activities.

Those attending are asked to bring the usual variety of potluck foods, with table service to be furnished at the hall.

Dinner at Lovgrens ..
Honors Cal Summers

Mr. and Mrs. Cal Sumner, now of Prineville and formerly of Heppner, were honored with a family dinner at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lovgren, here Sunday. The occasion was the 40th wedding anniversary of the Sumners.

The honored guests were presented by a gift from their children, and a special anniversary cake was a part of the celebration.

Included in the family group were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sumner and family of The Dalles, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sumner of Arlington, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sumner, Laura Lee Sumner, Jay Sumner of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lovgren and son, Frankie. Also guests for the occasion were Ross Hudson of Walton, friend of Laura Lee Sumner's, and Mrs. Ilene Wyman of Heppner.

Lodge Members Go To Rebekah Functions

Sans Souci Rebekah lodge has been represented at several of the district conventions and receptions during recent weeks.

On June 8 three members of the local lodge traveled to Fossil to attend their district convention. Those making the trip were Mrs. Larry Cook, Mrs. Frank Ayers and Mrs. Gerald Rood.

On June 10 about 20 of the local members were present for the District No. 20 convention in Ione, with Bunchgrass lodge as hostesses.

Last Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. McMurry and Mrs. Merle Kirk traveled to Pendleton to attend the reception by Pauline Rebekah lodge for Hazel Waincott, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon.

Hawaii Motif Used To Entertain Club

Mrs. Ron Haguewood was hostess for the Carnation club meeting of the Degree of Honor Protective association at her ranch home on Friday, June 11. A Hawaiian theme was cleverly used by the hostess in decorations, in refreshments and on the serving table. The Haguewood daughters, Kristie and Kimmee, assisted their mother.

Plans were made to have a fish pond at the sidewalk bazaar on July 9 and 10. For the next meeting, a picnic barbecue is planned to be held at the home of Mrs. Earl Soward in Lexington.

Members present were Mrs. Lincoln Nash, Mrs. Ed La Trace, Mrs. Don Townsend, Mrs. Bill Farra, Mrs. Soward, Mrs. R. G. McMurry, Mrs. Rachael Harnett, Mrs. Alice McCabe, Mrs. William Cunningham, Mrs. Dean Connor, Mrs. Lucille Parrish, Miss Doris Robinson and Mrs. Carl King.

Week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Scrivner were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scrivner and daughter Diane, of Portland. Family birthdays were remembered during their visit here.

MRS. STANLEY DEWAYNE NELSEN (Nancy Slocum) (Steimonts Studio)

Nancy Slocum Weds
Salem Man June 4
In Church Ceremony

Miss Nancy Jane Slocum, daughter of Mrs. Lawrence E. Slocum of Heppner, was united in marriage to Stanley DeWayne Nelsen at a formal ceremony on Friday, June 4, at the Westminster, United Presbyterian church in Salem. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Svendsen of Salem.

The Rev. Walter Johnson officiated during the exchange of vows, with Mrs. Wallace Johnson providing the organ wedding music and accompanying Miss Carol Jones, cousin of the bridegroom, soloist.

Given in marriage by her brother, Pete Slocum, the bride was lovely in a full-length gown of pearl-embroidered satin. Styled with sabrina neckline and long pointed sleeves, the frock's bouffant skirt extended into a chapel-length train. Her elbow-length veil was held in place by a pillbox of pearl-embroidered satin with a pearl pendant falling over the forehead. The bride carried a bouquet of red roses centered with a white orchid.

Miss Glenda Longberg was honor attendant. Mrs. Ronald Neher, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Richard Armstrong, were bridesmaids. All wore ankle-length white shantung, empire-styled sheath frocks. Their head-dresses were of red roses and tiny white veils. Each attendant carried a single long-stemmed red rose.

Linda Clough, niece of the bride, and Marilyn Svendsen, sister of the bridegroom, were junior attendants. Their dresses matched those of the other attendants, and they wore floral wristlets. Flower girl was Lemay Kirk, her dress identical to the junior attendants' and she carried a basket of rose petals.

Dale Hofstetter served as best man, with Myron Marshall of Dallas and DeWayne Hofstetter as ushers.

Guests were greeted at a reception in the church social room. After the traditional cutting of the first piece by the bride and groom, it was served by Mrs. Alice Magee and Mrs. Robert Kirk. Pouring was Miss Joyce Lawrence, with Ginny Clough and Miss Kathy Svendsen assisting.

For going away the bride chose a beige dress with red accessories and white orchid corsage.

A graduate of Heppner High school with the class of 1959, the new Mrs. Nelsen has lived in Salem for some time, where she is employed as a beautician. Her husband was a graduate this year from Oregon State University, where he received a degree in civil engineering. He will return next year to complete a master's degree.

The couple is now at home at 916 Kingwood Drive, N. W., Salem.

Triple Links Plan For Hot Dog Sale

Triple Link club of Sans Souci Rebekah lodge met at the home of Mrs. Genia Huston on Monday evening, June 14, with the club president, Miss Esther Bergstrom, in charge.

Plans were discussed for the selling of hot dogs at the sidewalk bazaar in July.

Those present, besides Miss Bergstrom and Mrs. Huston were Mrs. John Bergstrom, Mrs. Blanche Brown, Mrs. Lincoln Nash, Mrs. Lucille Parrish, Mrs. Rachael Harnett and Mrs. Mary Wright.

Installation Dinner
Set Saturday Evening
For New Club Officers

An invitation was read at the June business meeting of the Soroptimist Club of Heppner from the Baker Soroptimist club inviting local members to attend and participate in its 25th anniversary meeting on June 29. The Baker club was the sponsor of the charter for the Heppner club, which in April observed its 17th anniversary.

The date of Saturday, June 19, was announced for the annual installation and initiation dinner. Guests will be invited to the buffet-style dinner served at 7:00 p.m. in the basement rooms at the home of Mrs. Jim Hager. Officers for the coming year will be installed and initiation held for new members.

General chairman is Mrs. John Pfeiffer, assisted by Mrs. Charles Starks, Mrs. Conley Lanham, Mrs. Bill Collins, Mrs. Wes Sherman, Mrs. Ed Gonty and Mrs. Hager.

The club is sponsoring one of two delegates, Maureen Doherty, to Girls State at Salem this week, and also contributed to ward sending a 4-H delegate to summer school in Corvallis this week.

Linda Eckman was named this year's grade school citizenship winner at the school's award program May 28. The scholarship is used to attend a summer youth camp.

A guest of the club last week was Mrs. LeRoy Gardner, and also welcomed the return home of a member, Mrs. Leta Thomas, from Arizona.

Attends Conference

Oscar Peterson represented Valby Lutheran church at the Pacific Lutheran conference, North Pacific district, of the American Lutheran church at Parkland, Wn., last week from Monday until Thursday. More than 200 lay delegates were present, and he reports a "wonderful" meeting.

Bunchgrass Rebekahs
Host 44th District 20
Meeting on June 10

The Rebekah lodges of District Association No. 20 met for the 44th annual meeting June 10 at Willows Grange hall in Ione with Bunchgrass Rebekah lodge as hostess lodge. Fifty-three members signed the guest book. Serving as elected officers of the meeting were Chairman Lucille Rietmann, Bunchgrass; vice chairman, Esther Bergstrom, Sans Souci; secretary, Edith Matthews, Bunchgrass; and treasurer, Elaine Rietmann, Bunchgrass.

Mrs. Hazel Waincott, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon from Pendleton, headed the group of distinguished guests present. Others were Selma Watkins, Wasco, past president of the Rebekah Assembly and member of the joint youth committee; Charlotte Barnett, Grass Valley, marshal of Rebekah Assembly of Oregon; Flossie Haines, Wasco, member of the home board; Frieda Majeske, Lexington, member of sustaining perpetual membership committee; and Florence McMillan, district deputy president of district No. 20.

The address of welcome was given by Mrs. Rietmann, with the response by Ola Ruggles of Sans Souci.

The meeting was dedicated to the 80-year-old members. A tribute by Bunchgrass was given them, but only one, Arvilla Swanson, was able to be present. Fifty-four members were also honored. Those present were Tena Scott of Sans Souci and Annie Keene of Holly.

The memorial service was beautifully presented by Holly Lodge. Seven sisters and one brother had passed away since the district meeting last September.

President Waincott was presented a gift from the members. Since this day was her birthday she was presented two beautifully decorated birthday cakes. One was served with coffee and punch during recess.

Holly Lodge presented a tribute to the 13 past chairmen present.

An invitation was extended by Holly to meet with them in 1967 at Lexington.

Officers elected to serve at the 1966 meeting with Sans Souci were: chairman, Esther Bergstrom, Sans Souci; vice-chairman, Delpha Jones, Holly; secretary Altha Kirk, Sans Souci; treasurer, Betty Rood, Sans Souci; warder, Ruth Bergstrom, Sans Souci; conductor, Edna Fetsch, Holly; chaplain, Vida Heliker, Bunchgrass; right supporter to chairman, Elsie Ayers, Sans Souci; left supporter to chairman, Frieda Majeske, Holly; right supporter to vice-chairman, Gladys VanWinkle, Holly; left supporter to vice-chairman, Norma Rea, Bunchgrass; inside guardian, Deslie Chapel, Bunchgrass; outside guardian, Dimple Munkers, Holly; musician, Shirley Connor, Sans Souci; and junior past chairman, Lucille Rietmann, Bunchgrass. The new officers were seated by Holly after which Bunchgrass Lodge closed the meeting.

A banquet was served at 6:00 p.m. by the Home Economics Club of Willows Grange.

A special meeting of Bunchgrass Rebekah Lodge was held at 8 p.m. with Noble Grand Helen Pettyjohn presiding. The president, Mrs. Hazel Waincott of Pendleton, paid her official visit.

Talks were given by the visitors and the reminiscing of 50 years as a Rebekah member by Annie Keene was especially enjoyed.

After the meeting refreshments were served. Mrs. Waincott was a house guest of Mrs. Wallace Matthews during her stay in Ione.

Sans Souci was represented by a group of about 20 members.

Lexington IOOF
Sets Pancake Feed

Lexington Odd Fellows will hold a pancake feed on Saturday, June 26, for the public, starting at 5:30 p.m. and continuing until 8 p.m. It is announced. It will be in the Lexington IOOF hall.

Men of the lodge will be cooks and do all the work. They have set the price at $1.50 and promise "all you can eat" for that amount.

Pendleton Officers
Coming for Joint Legion Installation

District Six Commander and the Pendleton Legion Auxiliary president, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reyberg of Pendleton, will be the installing officers at a joint installation of Heppner American Legion and Auxiliary officers, slated for Monday, June 21, beginning at 8 p.m. at the Legion hall.

A social evening of bridge and pinocle play will follow the seating of the newly elected officers.

It has also been announced that Saturday and Sunday, June 19 and 20, have been scheduled for workdays to complete the siding on the hall. Legionaires are urged to turn out.

Mrs. Ed Gonty left Sunday to take her mother, Mrs. Stella Henrich, home to Beaverton after Mrs. Henrich had spent last week visiting with the Gontys. Mrs. Emma Balfe, mother of Joe Balfe, made the trip to Beaverton with them after spending the week visiting with the Balfes here. Mrs. Balfe also lives in Beaverton. Accompanying them were Mrs. Alice McCabe and son Allen and Mrs. Gonty's son, Doug. These four went to Seaside for two days, then returned to Heppner Tuesday.

Portland Youth
To Lead Teenage
Rally on Friday

A group of 25 teenage youth will arrive in Heppner Friday, June 18, to lead a community-wide Youth Rally at the Assembly of God church Friday evening, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Goal of the work of these young people is to demonstrate to the community the joy they have found in real Christian living, according to the Rev. Bill Alsop, pastor of the local church.

This group of vibrant young people is from the First Assembly of God church in Portland. They are touring Eastern Oregon, going from town to town, holding the special Youth Rallies for all teenagers and anyone else who feels young. They feature bright, lively music, and leaders are John Blakely and Wes Haystead, associate ministers of the Portland church.

Their program is open to the public, with a special invitation extended all youth of the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wetgen of Halsey and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin McDonald of Shedd were guests Sunday evening and Monday of the Rev. and Mrs. Melvin Dixon and family. The two couples were former parishioners of Rev. Dixon at the Shedd Methodist church. They also called on Rev. Dixon's father, Stanley Dixon, who resides at the rest home of Pioneer Memorial hospital.

Clair Cox, owner of Cox Realty Co. in Corvallis, visited during the past week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cox.
