Ruth Chapter, OES, To Install Officers

Open installation of officers for Ruth Chapter No. 32, Order of the Eastern Star, has been announced for Monday evening, June 28, in the Masonic Hall. Relatives and friends of Masonic and Eastern Star members, as well as neighboring chapters, are invited to be present at 8 p.m. to observe the installation and join in the social evening.

Mrs. Howard Bryant and Marlon Green will be installed worthy matron and worthy patron, respectively, of Ruth Chapter for the coming year. Other elective officers include Mrs. Tom Hughes, associate worthy matron; Tom Hughes, associate worthy patron; Mrs. Marjorie Worden, secretary; Mrs. Nina Snyder, treasurer; Mrs. Don Turner, conductress; Mrs. Bill Cox, associate conductress. Mrs. Charles Stout is past worthy matron and Oliver Creswick, Portland, is past worthy patron.

Frank Turner Feted At Family Gathering

Father's Day brought special joy to Frank W. Turner when he met with members of his family for a special dinner and party in his honor in the Crystal Room of the Multnomah Athletic club in Portland on Sunday.

Arrangements were made by his daughter Anabel T. Allison, Portland, with whom he visited until Wednesday. He received many lovely gifts in appreciation of his years of being a wonderful father to his family.

Attending were another daughter, Mrs. Raymond Huddleston of Valdez, Alaska; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Beecham of Portland, grandson-in-law and granddaughter; Mr. and Mrs. Richard McKenzie of Beaverton and their son, David, grandson-in-law, granddaughter and great grandson; Mrs. Virginia Beecham of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McKenzie and son Kenneth, also of Portland.

Mrs. Thomas Installs Service Club Officers At Dinner Meeting

New officers for the Soroptimist club of Heppner were installed at an impressive candlelight ceremony Saturday evening, June 19, following a no-host buffet dinner in the basement rooms of the Jim Hager home.

Oath of office was given the new officers by Mrs. Leta Thomas, installing officer, who based her candle lighting ceremony on the Soroptimist Pledge, challenging them to uphold the ideals of the pledge, "sincerity of friendship, joy of achievement, dignity of service, integrity of profession and love of country."

Installed for the coming year were Mrs. Charles Starks, president; Mrs. Wavel Wilkinson, vice president; Mrs. Marjorie Worden, recording secretary; Mrs. Carl McDaniel, treasurer; Mrs. Conley Lanham, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Emil Groshens, regional representative; Mrs. Bill Collins, Mrs. John Pfeiffer and Mrs. Jim Hager, board members.

Received into membership was one new member, Mrs. Bill Johnson. Presiding over the initiatory ceremony were Mrs. Bill Collins and Mrs. Wes Sherman. Theme of the ceremony was based on the meaning of the Soroptimist insignia and of the club colors.

A no-host turkey dinner was served buffet style with husbands of members and other invited guests present. Special guests were Mrs. Elaine George and Mrs. Olive Hughes, both charter members of the club; also Mrs. Elsa F. Mott and Mrs. Mabel Chaffee.

Presiding as mistress of ceremonies was Mrs. Lanham. As each member introduced herself and her guest, she reviewed her classification for membership and told the way she had earned her money, outside of her business classification, for the scholarship fund. Winner of the contest was Mrs. Starks.

Attendance award for the one maintaining the best attendance record during the past year went to Mrs. Loyal Parker, life member.

Tables were decorated with arrangements of summer flowers, carrying out the club colors of blue and gold, repeated again in floral floor baskets. Lighted tapers in the two colors were used on the tables and also in the installation ceremony.

Mrs. Sherman, past president, expressed appreciation for cooperation of officers and members during the year, and presented personalized ceramic gifts to her board members.

Before closing the meeting, Mrs. Starks, incoming president, urged continued support of the new incoming officers, and pledged her own sincerity to the duties ahead.

The club will be represented at the 25th anniversary meeting of the Soroptimist club of Baker on June 29, with members participating in a necrology service for the club's deceased charter members.
