

Fourth Holiday Provides Time For Family Gatherings at Lone

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

LONE — Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Baker enjoyed spending the Fourth of July with members of their family at their trailer home at McNary Yacht club. Guests were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Don Larson, who had just returned from a vacation in California, where they had visited Mrs. Larson's brother, Duane Baker and family at Sunnyvale, Calif. Mrs. Baker, Dianne and Tammy returned with them and will visit with the Bakers and with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Ison, at Milton-Freewater until her husband arrives next week. Duane Baker has just completed working at his company on one stage of the Tison 3-C, which recently was sent into orbit from Cape Kennedy.

Other guests of the E. M. Bakers were Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hahn, who were friends of the Larsons at the University of Idaho at Moscow, and now are moving to California to live. On Thursday the Larsons will leave for Wenatchee, Wash., where he will be employed by the Washington State Highway Department. Another son and a family, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Baker and family of Hermiston also spent part of the holiday with the family.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Crowell and family on the Fourth of July were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Steagall of Lexington; her sister, Mrs. Deanna Brandhagen and daughter of Pendleton; a brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Greg Leyva and family of La Grande; Clifford Aldrich and girls, and Al Winkelman. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Turner and boys of Eugene were weekend guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Drake.

Mrs. Keith Rea returned from Pioneer Memorial hospital in Heppner on Tuesday. She had major surgery last week, but is recovering satisfactorily.

Mrs. Florence Anderson, Kathy and Ina of Prosser, Wash., spent a few days this week visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Edythe White, and with other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kincaid, Kathy and Bud, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Gearland and Marianne, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Healy and family of Heppner spent the week-end at Prineville on a camping trip. They also met Mr. and Mrs. Pete Crawford and family of Portland there. Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. Healy, and Mr. Gearland are sisters and brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Connor and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. Alton Yarnell spent the Fourth at the home of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Clark and family in Bickleton, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Verrill Russell spent the holiday visiting his mother at Cascade Lake, Idaho. John Jackson, Jr., is working on a fishing boat at Ketchikan, Alaska.

Proudfoots Involved in Accident

Mr. and Mrs. John Proudfoot and family spent last week-end in Portland, where they attended the 50th wedding anniversary party of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Proudfoot, Sr., at the Mayfair House restaurant. Twenty-one members of their family were present to share the pleasure of the important occasion. On the way home on Tuesday the Proudfoots were in a pile up of several cars near Hood River. Mr. Proudfoot had stopped in a line of traffic for construction and was hit on the rear of the car by a driver, who failed to stop in time to avoid a collision. This caused the Proudfoot car to jump forward, hitting the car in front of them. They were not seriously injured, although Mrs. Proudfoot received stitches for a bad cut on her leg. The car was badly damaged.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nelson, Jr., spent last week in Portland visiting relatives and attending to business. They also spent a few days at the beach accompanied by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Nelson, Sr.

Jim Swanson is spending about ten days in Moscow, Idaho, as a guest of his friend, Chuck Herrick. Last Thursday Jim had the misfortune to cut a gash in his head when diving into a swimming pool. The laceration required six stitches to close.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Chapel and Cassie and Carol Hausler spent the Fourth and Monday visiting friends at John Day.

Boys Place in Ski Tourney

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Heimblinger, Tom, and Mark Halvorsen attended the Water Ski Tournament at Soap Lake, Wn., this week-end. Tom won first place in men's jump with 115 ft. and 118 ft. jumps. He also competed in the barefoot slalom, tricks, and slalom. Mark won second in boy's jump. This was the Washington State Open Championship show. Accompanying the Heimblingers was their house guest, Miss Susan Bird, who is attending summer school at the University of Oregon.

Mrs. Blaine Chapel had a birthday party on Friday, July 2, honoring Cassie on her ninth birthday. Little friends, who came for the afternoon of games and refreshments were: Ariene and Cathy Cannon, Cheryl Hams, Brenda and Alvin Holstein, Barbara Palmer, David Tucker, Danny Akers, Kimmy Martin, Carol Hausler, Eileen Sivart, Frankie Engleman, and the honored guest.

Advanced swimming lessons and diving lessons will be offered at the lone pool beginning July 19 at 10:00 a.m. and last for four days, according to an announcement by Joe Hausler, life guard and instructor at the pool.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ash returned on Thursday from a vacation trip to Salinas, Kan. They saw much evidence of the flood damage in various areas on the trip. Their daughter, Lila, is employed at Canyon Village in Yellowstone Park this summer.

Merrile Jo Morrison is spending the summer in San Francisco with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Dick DeBischop and son.

Greg Jacobs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jacobs, left for Camp Meadowood Springs near Weston on Sunday.

Mrs. Milton Morgan honored Miss Shirlee McGreer at a coffee party at her home on Thursday near Memorial hospital last Tuesday for a tonsillectomy. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Crowell moved into their new home on Second Street during the week-end. Their son, Howard, has just finished remodeling and painting it.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Eubanks have purchased the Bob DeSpain home on Second Street just vacated by the Crowells and are moving in this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Miller and Mike of Salem arrived on Sunday to spend his vacation with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Swanson and family.

Other recent guests at the Swanson home were college friends of John Swanson, Ron Oliverio of Portland and Bill Sears, who is now employed at Philadelphia, Penn. and was on his way east after vacationing in Oregon.

Rainbow Girls on Outing

The girls from Rainbow Assembly No. 29 left on Tuesday morning on their annual outing. This year they are going to the mountain home on Hynd Bros. ranch near Granite. They were accompanied by Mother Advisor, Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen and Mr. Halvorsen and board members, Mrs. E. E. Schaffer and Mrs. Omar Rietmann. Girls making the trip were Connie Emert, Bonnie Morgan, Teresa Stefani, Cheryl Smouse, Susan Lindstrom, Bonnie Akers, Linda Rowell, Betty Greenup, Tanya Tucker, Bonnie Hynd, Mary Beth Clerf, and Shariene Hamlett.

afternoon. Miss McGreer has just recently returned to the United States from Chateaux, France, where she has been a counselor in the junior high school maintained for U. S. Air Force dependents. Fifteen ladies enjoyed visiting and the delicious frozen dessert served by Mrs. Morgan.

Garden Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Ernest Christopher, Jr., on Tuesday afternoon, July 13. Members are asked to bring their favorite flower container. How to make corsages will be a part of the program for the afternoon.

Citizens are asked by the Garden Club to check the street trees and give them plenty of deep watering during this extremely dry weather and to mulch and tie the trees if necessary.

Gary Morgan drove from Portland to spend the holiday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan, who just recently returned from a vacation spent at Depoe Bay. He was accompanied by his cousins, Peggy Voorhees and Geradine Morgan. They all returned to Portland on Monday.

Mrs. Teresa Beauchamp left for her home in Portland on Tuesday after spending some time visiting here at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. R. McElligott, and family. With the family on Sunday she attended St. Patrick's Catholic church in Heppner, where she saw her granddaughter, Catherine, receive first communion. Catherine was unable to attend with her class recently due to a bout with the measles.
