Courts Support John Day Study

County courts of a number of Eastern Oregon counties gathered in Condon last Friday afternoon to consider with the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers the possibility of undertaking a study of the John Day River Basin for flood control and water development, Judge Paul Jones said.

Unanimous support for the study was indicated by the county courts, bringing the meeting to a close in short time, the judge said.

The Morrow county judge brought up the matter of the Ditch Creek diversion to Willow Creek as well as possibility for development of reservoirs for recreation in mountains south-east of Heppner, and these received an interested hearing from the Engineers.

A hearing will be scheduled in October on the John Day Basin study. Those interested are advised to send letters to the hearing. Further information may be obtained from Judge Jones.

LL Parents to Show Playing Form Friday

Softball, in one of its more unorthodox forms, is scheduled for Friday evening at 6:00 p.m., at the Little League field, when teams comprised mostly of Little League moms and dads will loosen up some creaky joints for a few innings of what will, in all probability, be some very interesting competition.

Visit After 47 Years

Relatives whom she had not seen for 47 years visited Mrs. Mabel Chaffee Tuesday. They were Mr. and Mrs. Vern Anderson of Apple Valley, Calif., who spent the day with Mrs. Chaffee while on a vacation trip. Mrs. Anderson is a niece of Mrs. Chaffee. Accompanying the visitors were F. A. Chaffee of Spokane, brother-in-law, and Ellsworth Chaffee of Seattle, a nephew of Mrs. Chaffee.

4-H Girls Show Dresses in Revue At Chamber Meet

Skill and talent in sewing, developed and encouraged by 4-H clubs, was demonstrated to members of the Heppner-Morrow County Chamber of Commerce Monday as members of two sewing clubs presented a style revue.

The 10 girls modeled dresses they had made in their clubs, the "Rustettes," and the "Country Cutters," showing cotton skirts and blouses, sports outfits, shifts and better dresses.

Each girl told something about the dress or outfit she had made and something about the sewing clubs and work they do. Modeling were Cheri Carlson, Christine McCabe, Shauna Bergstrom, Mary McElligott, Carley Bergstrom, Kristine Peterson, Molly Beckett, Linda Pettyjohn, Mary Kathryn Campbell and Sandra Carlson.

Leaders were introduced to the Chamber by Donna George, home extension agent. They are Mrs. Roland Bergstrom and Mrs. L. A. McCabe for the Rustettes and Mrs. Louis Carlson and Mrs. Laurence Beckett for the Country Cutters.

In their modeling demonstrations the girls explained that the 4-H clubs teach them how to read patterns and how to buy materials. They told how they could make their own clothing at a fraction of the cost of purchasing it.

Some of the garments were entered in the county fair last year and some will be included in the fair for 1965.

Len Gilman's Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Len Gilman of San Pedro, Calif., visited in Heppner from July 4 to 13. Gilman, who is associate deputy regional commissioner of the U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Service, is son of Mrs. Viola Gilman, and Mrs. Len Gilman is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan McCurdy. The visitors enjoyed a trip to the mountains, arranged by his brother, Chief of Police Dean Gilman, and he spent most of the rest of the time working for his mother, she said. Len had planned to visit many old friends but because of lack of time was unable to see them all, his mother said.

Pomona To Meet At Lexington Hall

The Lexington Grange will be host to the July meeting of Pomona Grange on Saturday evening, July 31, at the Lexington Grange hall.

A barbecue dinner will start the meeting at 6:30 p.m., followed by discussion of business, and reports will be heard from those who have attended the State Grange meetings, with Master Berl Akers presiding.

Carolyn Bergstrom is out and around again after returning from St. Anthony hospital, Pendleton, where she had major surgery on June 18. She was dismissed on June 27 but as yet is unable to return to her work as nurse's aide at Pioneer Memorial hospital. She states that she is feeling better with every passing day.

Parents Advised To Watch Bikes

Chief of Police Dean Gilman this week asked cooperation of parents to see that their children's bicycles are put away at night and placed in yards or on porches when not in use.

He said that three bicycles have been reported missing in a 24-hour period. Some bicycles reported lost recently have never been found, leading to speculation that some outsider may be stealing them and taking them out of town.

The chief said that if parents would cooperate by insisting that youngsters take care of their bicycles, most of the trouble would be eliminated. Anyone who checks around town in an evening will notice that many bicycles are left on sidewalks and in other locations where they could be picked up without the owners noticing the loss for some time.

Oregon Delegates Total 17 on UN Pilgrimage Tour

Oregon will be represented by 17 young people on the Old Fellows' United Nations Pilgrimage tour, who met for a get-acquainted banquet at the IOOF Home in Portland Tuesday night. Four of the touring students will be from Eastern Oregon, one each from Burns, Condon, Heppner and Athena.

As the group heads east, two more delegates will be added from Washington; 14 in Idaho and two in Wyoming, making a total of 35 from the four northwestern states.

Delegate Mark Brown was accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brown and by Mr. and Mrs. Pete McMurry to Portland Tuesday and all attended the special banquet. One of the former delegates who spoke on the program was Kirk Matthews, son of Bob Matthews, a former resident here and teacher in Lexington. Bob Matthews, Jr., brother to Kirk, is making the tour this year. Several of the students were interviewed by TV and radio stations, with the TV tape to be shown next Monday. Mark was one of those interviewed on radio. The group enjoyed a send-off

Yarnells Purchase Lone Restaurant

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Yarnell, who have spent most of their lives in the lone area, have purchased Stefani's Fine Foods at lone and opened the restaurant for business Saturday after a closure of a few days for minor repair work.

Yarnell said they have employed Charles (Chuck) O'Konak as chef in the restaurant. He formerly was a chef at the Benson hotel in Portland for two years and operated and owned a restaurant in Ohio at another time.

The Yarnells left lone in 1962 to go to Lewiston, Idaho, where they owned and operated a night club. They found they liked Morrow county better and returned to purchase the restaurant. Yarnell grew up in lone and his wife, the former Mildred Sibley, was reared in the North Lexington area.

Except for his attendance at the University of Washington, where he graduated in 1949, and the time at Lewiston, Yarnell has been in Morrow county virtually all of his life.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stevens, Portland, stopped for a visit with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wes Sherman, and family, while on a July 4th week-end trip to Eastern Oregon and to Buhl, Idaho, to visit other relatives.

FREEZE 'EM WHILE THEY'RE FRESH!

An electric freezer brings "super market" conveniences and economy to your home

An electric freezer is another good way you live better for less because of low-cost rural electric power!

Now you can buy seasonal specials when prices are low; keep them in your freezer to be served months later when prices have climbed two or more times what you paid! An electric freezer saves shopping trips so the busy homemaker can spend more time with her family instead of making unnecessary trips back and forth to the grocery.

Keep that garden-fresh goodness

In these modern days, every family should have garden-fresh fruits and vegetables all year. An electric freezer makes it easy to preserve so many different foods from your garden and orchard. It's much faster and not nearly so messy as old-fashioned canning methods. And frozen foods have a delightful way of keeping all that "just picked" fresh taste.

An electric freezer can quickly pay for itself. In addition to vegetables, you'll save money on meats. Even poultry and fish will keep safely for months in an electric freezer.

Smile when guests stay for dinner

There's always extra food for unexpected guests when you have an electric freezer. No need to drive to the grocery. You have your own convenient "supermarket" right in your own home. There's always extra meals at your fingertips.

Most families find that an electric freezer adds to the variety of foods. It's so much easier to plan meals, too.

An electric freezer is another big step toward modern living. Like so many other electrical appliances, it costs only pennies to operate, thanks to low-cost rural electric power.
