

Reunion in Tacoma Attended by Sowards

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Soward traveled to Tacoma, Wn., over the week-end where they attended a family reunion picnic of relatives of Mrs. Soward in the Wapato Park in South Tacoma. There were over 40 in attendance, coming from Roseburg, Springfield and Prineville, Oregon, and from Kent, Yakima, Seattle and Sumner, Wn., and one cousin and daughter from Arlington, Virginia. Family names represented included the Ingles, Dunns and Beckmans.

Among those attending were Mrs. Soward's two sisters and two brothers, with one brother from Los Angeles unable to be present. The occasion was the first time some of the cousins had ever met. One brother, Andrew Ingles, owns a large raspberry field near Kent, employing over 100 pickers who are paid in cash at the end of each day.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Soward and family of Boise, Idaho, spent a pleasant week-end over the Fourth of July with his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Earl Soward, here. The visitors came Friday, July 2, and returned Monday, July 5.

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD GREEN (Linda Hams)

Hermiston Church Wedding Joins Couple on June 26

In a pretty summer setting of white, accented with shades of pink, wedding vows were exchanged by Miss Linda LaVerne Hams of Umatilla, and formerly of Ione, with Richard Green of Hermiston, in a candlelight ceremony Saturday, June 26, in the First Methodist church in Hermiston. The Rev. Eugene Hamblen officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Laverne Hams of Ione and Mrs. John Stamate of Umatilla. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Miss Frank Green of Hermiston. Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a floor length gown of white bridal satin, fashioned with long sleeves and lace bodice accented with seed pearls and rhinestones. Her waist length veil was of imported silk net, and was held in place by a crown of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink rosebuds and carnations with pink ribbon streamers.

Attending her sister as maid of honor was Miss Susan Hams of Umatilla. Bridesmaids were Miss Gloria Green, sister of the groom, Hermiston, and Miss Gretchen Castric, Umatilla.

The attendants were attired in sleeveless, street length sheath dresses of pink lace, with headpieces of short veils of pink netting, gathered at the top with pink roses. Each carried a cascade bouquet of shocking pink rosebuds and white carnations, with streamers of rosebuds. Each attendant wore a crystal teardrop necklace, a gift of the bride.

David Green, brother of the groom, served as best man. Irv in Engle, Jr., and Warren Hall served as ushers and attendants, and lit the candleabra tapers before the ceremony.

Vows were exchanged before an altar decorated with large baskets of pink roses, white stock and greenery, flanked by white tapers in candleabra.

Miss Margaret Goodwin, organist, played the traditional wedding marches. Vocalist was Mrs. Echo Robertson who sang the nuptial songs.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Stamate chose a two-piece dress of lace, silhouetted over a darker pink, with white accessories and white carnation corsage.

Mrs. Green, mother of the groom, appeared in a two-piece blue silk dress, accented with white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

The young couple greeted their many friends and relatives at a reception immediately following in Davis Hall in Hermiston. A large three-tiered wedding cake, topped with miniature bride and groom, centered the serving table.

After the traditional cutting of the first piece by the newlyweds, Mrs. Wendell Lampkin, Echo, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Hoke Ollis, Lorraine, aunt of the groom, served the wedding cake. Pouring punch was Mrs. George Davidson, Portland, aunt of the bride, and serving coffee was Mrs. Ray Kurz of Umatilla.

Miss Sue Hatt, Umatilla, passed the guest book, and Miss Sandi Kurz, Umatilla, was in charge of the gift table.

For her wedding trip, the new Mrs. Green chose a two-piece beige linen suit with matching accessories. The San Francisco and other points along the California and Oregon coasts. They are now at home in the Griffin Apartments in Hermiston, and Mr. Green is employed at the Umatilla Army Depot.

Before transferring to Umatilla High school at the beginning of her junior year, the bride had attended grade school and two years of high school in Ione, where she had made her home. She attended Eastern Oregon College after graduation in 1961, and is presently employed at Stewart's in Hermiston.

Mr. Green, also a graduate of Umatilla High school in 1961,

Over The Tee Cup

By DEE GRIBBLE

Sunday, July 18, was just a perfect day for golfers. With the Raymond Fergusons and Ed and Helen Schaffitz in charge, about 25 enjoyed activities of the day, topped off with potluck dinner.

Winners at golf for the girls were Vi Lanham, both low score and least putts, and Carol Gribble, high score. For the men, were Don Turner and Van Marter, Sr. tied for low score, with Van Marter as winner by flip of a coin, and Ed Schaffitz, high score.

Jeff Turner, playing with four junior boys, had the over-all low of 32, but didn't enter the competition. Pat Kilkenny had least putts, 12. You know, Heppner will produce some real good golfing juniors if they keep up the practice.

Tuesday, July 20, was a doubtful day, weather-wise, so only eight gals showed up to play. So we just played—no balls awarded, but we were glad to have two Barbaras with us—Cutsforth and Gribble.

Loyene Ledbetter is winner of our Eiecta Tourney. She's played many a nine holes, and her scores show it. Good going, Loyene.

Sunday, July 25, is the date of the next two-ball tourney, with Judge and Juanita Carmichael, Inez Huffman, Phil and Hazel Mahoney in charge.

Then don't forget we entertain Kinzua the first Sunday in August—so please plan now to turn out and play.

Did you hear about Pat Kilkenny's hole in one—on No. 9 green?? That Tommy Turner toured the course on Doug Gribble's shoulders—just got too tired too far away to walk back. You absent golfers—arc missed! So show up this next Sunday!

A tip of the old tee pot to the M & I Co. for the fine donation of a mirror for the powder room in our clubhouse. Muchly appreciated!
