

Rodeo Queen, Court Honored at Dinner At Winchester Home

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Winchester entertained Saturday evening in their home with a buffet supper, honoring Queen Judy Sherer and her court, Princesses Virginia Majeske, Erna Winchester, Karla Luctani and Susan McCoy.

The Winchesters presented each of the girls with a corsage of pink rosebuds, fashioned into the shape of a cowboy boot, for their official appearance at the Wrangler sponsored dance, held later that evening, honoring Princess Erna.

Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sherer, Mr. and Mrs. George Luctani, Mr. and Mrs. Warren McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Chapin, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Marlatt, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Scott, Mrs. Nell Jones, Ray Massey, Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Al Fetsch, Mrs. Paye Thornberg and Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Garrison.

Co-hosting with the Winchesters were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Majeske.

Couple Visits Here; To Marry August 7

The marriage of Charles H. Smallwood, son of Mrs. Leona Smallwood, Heppner, to Miss Diana Malone of Glendale, Calif., has been announced for 5 p.m. Saturday, August 7, at Angelus Temple in Glendale.

Smallwood and his bride-elect have been guests of his mother here the past few days. They left Wednesday to return to California.

Miss Malone is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Malone, 3307 Hollydale Drive, Glendale. The couple met in Hawaii. Smallwood received a discharge from service May 20 and after his marriage, will be employed as an electrician in Portland, where they will make their home.

Boardman Ceremony Joins Couple July 10

Miss Elberta Lou Carpenter became the bride of Joseph Lee Stone at an 8 p.m. double ring ceremony at the Boardman Community church on Saturday, July 10. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Carpenter of Boardman, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Stone of Heppner.

The candlelight service was performed by Rev. Herman R. Burg, pastor of the church, in a setting of baskets of pink and white gladioli.

Mrs. LaVern Partlow sang "Always" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Carolyn Burg, who also played the nuptial music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of bridal satin and Chantilly lace, fashioned with round neck and long sleeves, and a chapel length train which was carried by Annie Carpenter of Umatilla, niece of the bride. The veil was elbow length and was held in place by a headpiece of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and red rosebuds, and wore the traditional blue garter.

Miss Dewena West was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Mrs. Larry Carpenter of Renton, Wash., and Mrs. Marvin Carpenter of Umatilla, sisters-in-law of the bride, also Anna Mae Mc-

Quaw, Annie Obermeier and Penny Fossey. All wore floor length sheath dresses of silk in different shades of green and carried a single red rose. Their head pieces of net and pink feathers were made by the bride.

Dick Wilkinson of Heppner was best man, and ushers were Larry Carpenter of Renton, Wash., and Marvin Carpenter of Umatilla, brothers of the bride, Maynard Gates, Johnnie Gray and Louis Smith of Heppner. Candlelighters were Larry Carpenter of Renton, Wash., and Johnnie Carpenter of Umatilla, nephews of the bride. Flower girls were Jeannette Stone of Heppner, sister of the groom, and Cindy Carpenter of Renton, niece of the bride. They wore dresses of light green silk made identical with those of the bridesmaids. Lyle Carpenter of Renton was ringbearer.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Greenfield Grange hall. Mrs. Glen Carpenter, aunt of the bride, was in charge.

After the first traditional piece of cake was cut by the couple it was served by Mrs. Carpenter and Mrs. Cecil Hamilton. Mrs. Roy Partlow served the coffee, and Mrs. LaVern Partlow was at the punch bowl. Mrs. Larry Carpenter, Mrs. Marvin Carpenter and Judy Burr were in charge of the gift table, and Mrs. Orville Carpenter of Umatilla, aunt of the bride, had the guest book.

Others assisting with the reception included Mrs. Ronald Black, Mrs. Dewey West, Mrs. Zoe Billings, Mrs. Rollin Bishop, Mrs. Earl McQuaw and Mrs. Walter Hayes.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Carpenter wore a dress of flowered jersey with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore flowered crepe with white accessories. Both had corsages of gardenias and white carnations.

The couple is at home on the Dick Wilkinson ranch at Heppner, where the groom is employed.

Vacationers Visit At Thomson Home

Mrs. Tom Walters (the former Meridith Thomson) and two-year-old son, Rusty, arrived Friday for a two weeks visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Thomson.

They are vacationing here from their home in Canoga Park, Calif., while Mr. Walters, a pharmacist, is on two weeks active duty at Long Beach with the Coast Guard.
