

Parish Hall Scene
Of Party Honoring
Miss L. Deardorff

Miss Lorena Deardorff, bride-elect of John Cleveland, was greeted warmly by friends here at a pre-nuptial party Saturday afternoon, July 17, at the Episcopal parish hall. Accompanying her was her mother, Mrs. Bruce Deardorff of Molalla.

About 45 persons were present to extend their compliments to the honor guest and shower her with many lovely bridal gifts. Marriage plans for the couple have been announced for Saturday, August 21, at the First Methodist church in Oregon City.

Two trio numbers, "Love is a Many Splendored Thing," and "My Best to You," were presented by a ladies' trio, Mrs. Dick Paine, Mrs. Jay Wheelhouse and Miss Pam Wilkinson, accompanied by Mrs. Emil Groshens. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. James Healy, Mrs. LeRoy Gardner and Mrs. Dick Wilkinson. Their floral decorations on the serving table and about the rooms carried out the chosen wedding colors, blue and white. Attractive ice cream molds in keeping with a wedding theme were served with dainty cookies, coffee, tea and punch.

Presiding at the punch bowl was Mrs. Deardorff, mother of the honor guest, Mrs. Howard Cleveland, mother of the groom-to-be, served coffee and tea.

Miss Nancy Cleveland assisted Miss Deardorff in the opening of her gifts, with Misses Pam Wilkinson and Leora Van Winkle helping about the rooms.

Coming from out-of-town were Mrs. Paul Webb, Sr., mother of Mrs. Cleveland; Mrs. Paul Webb, Jr., Mrs. Harry Morse and Mrs. Gordon McGough and Julie, all of Walla Walla, and Mrs. Tom Vaughn and Julie of Pendleton.

MRS. FRANK HAMLIN

Mrs. Hamlin Named
District President
At Auxiliary Meet

Mrs. Frank Hamlin and Mrs. Riley Munkers returned last week from Albany, where they attended the American Legion and Auxiliary State Convention as delegates of the Heppner Auxiliary Post No. 87.

Mrs. Hamlin, who served on the resolution and membership committees, was installed as District No. 6 president in a Saturday afternoon ceremony. The District presented her with a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Munkers, department secretary for the Child Welfare Commission, attended, along with Mrs. Hamlin, all four days of the 47th annual convocation. It was highlighted by such events as the joint Legion and Auxiliary banquet, held Thursday evening, honoring Dept. Commander Ray Wilson and Dept. President Mrs. Pearl Funk of Athena with Gov. Mark Hatfield as the main speaker. The Heppner delegates were very impressed with the Drum and Bugle Corps contest Friday evening at the Albany Memorial Stadium, which was preceded by a chicken barbecue. Newly elected department auxiliary officers include Mrs. Colleen Groger of The Dalles, president; Miss Nancy Kirpatrick, Lebanon, first vice president, and Mrs. Elma Gower, Cannon Beach, second vice-president.

Annual Grange Picnic Planned for Sunday

At a meeting of the Rhea Creek Grange Home Economics club, held recently at the home of Mrs. Evelyn Farrens with Mrs. Hannah Anderson as co-hostess, plans were made to hold the annual Grange picnic on Sunday, August 8, at the Anson Wright Memorial Park. The potluck picnic for members and friends will begin at 1:30 p.m.

All Grangers celebrating birthdays during the months of July, August and September will be honored that afternoon.

Kinzua Girl is Bride
Of Lee Bogle Sunday
At Church Ceremony

KINZUA—Wedding vows were exchanged Sunday afternoon at the Fossil Baptist church when Miss Charmian L. Adams of Kinzua became the bride of Lee Alan Bogle of Milton-Freewater. Don Davis of Hood River officiated at the double ring service.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. W. C. Freeman and O. L. Adams of Kinzua and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Bogle of Milton-Freewater.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, W. C. Freeman, the bride wore a street length gown of peau-de-soie, fashioned with a jeweled neckline and long pointed sleeves. A lined lace panel extended from neck to hem. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a pearl crown. She carried a shower arrangement of white daisies. Her gown was made by Mrs. Bogle.

The maid of honor was Miss Pamela J. Russell of Bend who wore a street length dress of yellow dotted swiss over satin. She wore a yellow bow headpiece and yellow accessories and carried an arrangement of painted daisies.

Dennis Carter of Beaverton served as best man and Fred Langley of Milton-Freewater and Ronald Brisbois of Spray were the ushers.

The vows were exchanged before an altar decorated with tall baskets of painted daisies.

Mrs. Robert Kelso played the wedding marches and a special number "All The Way" for the bride and groom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Freeman chose a beige metallic jersey sheath with white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Mrs. Bogle, mother of the groom, appeared in a two-piece green print silk dress with beige accessories and a white carnation corsage.

The young couple greeted their many friends and relatives at a reception immediately following in the basement social rooms of the church. A large five-tiered cake topped with wedding bells centered the serving table. After the traditional first slice was cut by the newly weds, Miss Sharon Glascock of Vale and Miss Candy Adams of Spray cut and served the cake.

Pouring punch was Mrs. Robert Stott of Walla Walla, Wash., grandmother of the groom, while coffee was served by Mrs. George Whyte of Pendleton. Mrs. David Sitton was in charge of the gift table while Mrs. Sid Britt of Spray, cousin of the bride, had the guest book. Silver wrapped packages of grooms cake were passed by Marsha Freeman, the bride's sister.

For her wedding trip, the new Mrs. Bogle chose a two-piece pink and white striped dress with white accessories and a corsage of daisies. The young couple will be at home in La Grande where Mr. Bogle plans to continue his studies at Eastern Oregon College. He is a graduate of McLaughlin High school in Milton-Freewater. Mrs. Bogle is a graduate of Wheeler High school in Fossil and has also attended Eastern Oregon College.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Robert Stott and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hillard and Janine of Walla Walla, Mr. and Mrs. Orval Bogle of Milton-Freewater, Gary Bogle of Burley, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bilyeu and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Busey and Teri of The Dalles, Fred Langley of Milton-Freewater, Joyce Conforth of McNary, Yvonne Holman of Baker, Sandy Shields of Seneca, Mr. and Mrs. George Whyte of Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Samples of Heppner, Kevin Glascock of Vale, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Myers of La Grande and Don Capon of Monument. Attending from Spray were Mrs. Mary Williams, the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Ralph Reade, Mrs. Clarence Warren, Mrs. Bill Chapman, and Mr. and Mrs. Odell Adams.

Mrs. Gil Rogers and two children of Minot, N. D., arrived this week for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Winters and family. The Winters family moved here just recently from Medford and purchased the home of Dr. and Mrs. Jim Norene. Mrs. Rogers, sister of Mrs. Winters, is on a vacation trip with her children and will continue, after about a week's stay here, to Lake Chelan, Wash., to visit another sister. Mr. Rogers will come later from Minot to meet his family there.

Dinner at Luciani
Home is Pleasant
Occasion for Court

After resting and being refreshed from the heat of travel after attending the Chief Joseph Days celebration on Friday and Saturday, the Morrow County Rodeo court, their parents and families, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Luciani at their country home in the Pine City area.

Forty-two persons were present to enjoy the buffet dinner, prior to attending the Saturday night dance honoring Princess Karla. Several friends of the family from Echo and Pendleton were among those present. Unable to attend were Princess Susan McCoy and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren McCoy of Irrigon.

Guests included Queen Judy and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sherer, Ione; Princess Erna and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Winchester, Heppner; Princess Virginia, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Majeske, Lexington.

Coming from Pendleton were Mr. and Mrs. Don Grossmiller and Kelly, and Georgiana Hibbard.

Those coming from Echo were Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Liesegang, Rhea and Jimmy; Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Correa, Diane and Rito Jo; Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Cop-

Dicks Travel East
For Family Gathering

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Dick will leave this week-end for a vacation trip which will take them to Story, Wyo., where they will attend the 50th wedding anniversary of Mrs. Dick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Forsythe. The celebration is planned for August 26, with several family members planning to attend.

The Dicks plan to travel leisurely through Canada, enjoying the Glacier and Yellowstone Parks en route. They will return immediately after the anniversary observance in time for Mrs. Dick to be present for school workshops.

Also attending from Oregon are Mrs. Dick's brother and sister-in-law, Lt. Col. and Mrs. J. A. Forsythe of Portland.

ping, Connie and Jacquie; Tony Furnish; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ashbeck, Mitchell, Calvin, Alvin and Melvin.

Amiel VanBuren was a guest from Walla Walla.

Attendance at the dance was excellent, equalling the good crowd of the week before honoring Princess Erna. The music of the popular band, The Gusts of Pasco, was well received.

Club is Entertained
At Summer Luncheon;
To Host Royal Court

A pleasant social meeting was enjoyed by 17 members and guests of the Soroptimist Club last Thursday noon when Mrs. Leta Thomas entertained with a luncheon at her home. A summer buffet course of salads and hot bread was followed by birthday cake and ice cream, honoring members who had observed birthdays during the past month. Assisting the hostess was Mrs. Fred Parrish.

Special guests included Mrs. Elaine George, Mrs. Roice Fullerton and Mrs. Arlene Laird.

Queen Judy Sherer and her princesses of the Morrow County Rodeo court, their mothers and chaperone, will be guests at the regular luncheon meeting Thursday, August 12, in the Heppner Grill dining room.

At a recent business meeting, members volunteered to help as clerks at the coming Mobile Chest X-Ray, scheduled by the county health department to be in Heppner Friday and Saturday, August 20 and 21. All organizations in the area are asked to assist in furnishing helpers for the mobile visit.

Birthday is Occasion For Surprise Party

The birthday of Mrs. Nina Snyder was made a more pleasant occasion last Thursday when a group of her personal friends dropped in to extend their greetings and best wishes. Mrs. Snyder has been confined for some time in a wheel chair, recovering from a leg fracture.

The visitors presented her with gifts and enjoyed visiting and sharing with her the birthday refreshments.

Those calling included Mrs. Howard Bryant, Mrs. Tom Hughes, Mrs. Charles Stout, Mrs. Inez Huffman, Mrs. Marjorie Worden and Mrs. Clarence Bauman.
