

Portland Ceremony Joins S. Campbell And Larry Martin

Miss Sandra H. Campbell, daughter of Mrs. Ellen M. Campbell, Heppner, became the bride of Larry D. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Martin of Warren, at a double ring ceremony on Saturday, June 12.

The couple exchanged vows at an evening ceremony in the First Immanuel church of Portland, in the presence of relatives and close friends. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Terry Campbell.

Attending from here, besides the bride's mother and brother, were her grandmother, Mrs. Alma Morgan, and her aunt, Mrs. Harriet Evans.

The bride was a graduate of Heppner High school in 1962, and for the past two years has been employed in the data processing department of the Emanuel hospital in Portland.

The newlywed couple will move to Corvallis in early fall, where the groom will enroll as a senior at Oregon State University.

MRS. CHARLES H. SMALLWOOD, the former Diana Malone

Miss Diana Malone Bride Of Charles Smallwood

The marriage of Miss Diana Malone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Malone, Los Angeles, to Charles H. Smallwood, son of Mrs. Leona Smallwood, Heppner, was solemnized at an impressive summer wedding Saturday, August 7. The Rev. John Olson officiated over the exchange of vows in the Angelus Temple in Los Angeles at 5 p.m. Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride's wedding gown was an Alfred Angelo original, a traditional floor length gown of Chantilly lace with full chapel train. The bodice was embellished with seed pearls and sequins. A crown, sprinkled with aurora barialis seed pearls, held in place her full illusion veil. Her bouquet was of orchids, white roses and stephanotis. Attending as matron of honor was Mrs. Martha Walters. Her full length gown of copen blue was styled with a bell skirt and the short sleeves were edged in dainty ruffles. She carried copen blue chrysanthemums.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Jona Clark, Mrs. Evelyn Hamilton, Miss Karen Harvey, Miss Judi Hinton and Mrs. Margie Rottman. Their gowns of powder blue were fashioned identical to that worn by the matron of honor. They carried bouquets of light blue spider chrysanthemums.

Lighting the papers were Miss Vicki Adams and Miss Donna Liebelt, gowned in dresses identical to the bridesmaids, and wearing pikake leis flown in from Hawaii.

Karla Paulick, in a powder blue floor length dress, served as flower girl, and Burt Courtney was ring bearer. Best man was John Malone II, brother of the bride, and ushers were Jim Clark, Bud Ivey, Larry Freeman, Harold Malone, Gary Taylor, Mike Simpson and Bill Ivey.

Organist during the ceremony was Mrs. Linnie Olson, who also accompanied Harry Early when he sang the number "Walk Hand in Hand." Harpist was Janet Lee Taylor, playing "Liebestraum," and a choral ensemble sang "Savior Like a Shepherd Lead Us."

Mrs. Malone, mother of the bride, chose to wear pink crepe afternoon dress with matching accessories and an orchid corsage. Mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Smallwood, was unable to be present.

The couple was greeted at a reception immediately following in the youth center. Assisting in the serving and about the rooms were members of the "Diadem" club that Miss Malone had sponsored. Miss Alona Ellithorpe was at the guest book.

Following a honeymoon trip to the eastern states, the couple will be home in Portland, where the groom will be employed as an electrician. He was recently discharged from the U. S. Navy, after serving aboard the USS Deliver. The couple met in Hawaii while he was stationed near there. The bride is a graduate of John Marshall High school in Los Angeles, and Smallwood was a Heppner High school graduate in 1961.
