

MRS. CLARA B. GERTSON, National Degree of Honor Treasurer

Mrs. Gertson Chosen Lodge's National Treasurer

Mrs. Clara B. Gertson was elected to the office of national treasurer of the Degree of Honor or Protective Association at its 28th stated meeting last month in Miami Beach, Florida.

Mrs. Gertson attended the convention in her official capacity as state director of the organization, and Mrs. Bill Farra, also of Heppner, was one of two official delegates from Oregon. Nineteen attended from Oregon, including Mrs. Ruby Bell, state president, of Klamath Falls.

The national meeting observed the Golden Anniversary of the association, and the program paid honor to Mrs. Edna Dugan, national president, of St.

Many Friends Attend Pre-Nuptial Shower For Jacquie Brindle

Chosen wedding colors of willow green and white were used by the hostesses at a bridal shower complimenting Miss Jacquelyn Brindle at the Catholic parish hall Friday evening, July 16.

Miss Brindle's marriage to Lonnie Myers of La Grande has been announced for Saturday, August 14, at St. Patrick's Catholic church.

About 45 guests were present to extend their best wishes to the bride-elect and present her with many lovely and useful gifts.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Ilene Wyman, Mrs. Earl Ayers, Mrs. Wilbur Van Bokland, Mrs. Roice Fullerton and Mrs. Ray French.

The serving table was attractively centered with white gladioli in silver containers, flanked by willow green tapers. Dainty cakes, frosted in green and white, accompanied the lime punch, tea and coffee.

Presiding at the punch bowl was Mrs. Ayers, with Mrs. Pat Brindle, mother of the honor guest, serving tea and coffee. Assisting the hostesses with serving were Sheridan Wyman, Verina and Karen French.

Misses Jennifer and Annmarie Brindle assisted their sister with the opening and passing of gifts.

Joint Party Honors Two Brides of Month

A number of school friends of Miss Phyllis Nelson and Miss Jacquelyn Brindle were invited to the P. W. Mahoney home on July 10 for a joint pre-wedding outdoor party in their honor. Both young ladies will be married in ceremonies this month.

A barbecue luncheon was enjoyed on the Mahoney patio, under the direction of co-hostesses, Shannon Mahoney and Ginger Springer.

After much visiting and reminiscing, the honor guests were each presented a set of card table and chairs as remembrances from those attending.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Burkenbine and family found the clamming excellent at Pacific Beach, Wn., but salmon fishing poor from Point No Point, Wn., while on their vacation along the Washington coast recently. They got good quantities of razor clams and Forrie came back with some interesting tales about the goose ducks that he dug. But the salmon fishing netted nothing. They also visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Case, at Poulsbo.

Over The Tee Cup

By DEE GRIBBLE

Another successful potluck supper after a two-ball four-some was enjoyed Sunday night by about 30 guys and gals. Gene Pierce was both player and chef, and did a bang-up job!

Tuesday was another hot session of golfing for ladies, but 10 stalwart gals turned out and turned in scores to match the heat. Helen Schaffitz and Bobbie Driscoll were in charge. Golf balls were awarded to Gina Leonard and Helen Schaffitz for long drives.

No organized play this weekend, as most of our golfers will be in La Grande.

Don't forget August 22 at Kinzua—breakfast at 7 to 7:30, and tee-off following. The trophy is at stake again, so plan now to go to Kinzua.

Then we'll change from golf shoes to cowboy boots—and "Wrangle."

MONUMENT

By MARTHA MATTESON

MONUMENT—Mrs. Ross McDonald of southern California and her children arrived Friday evening to visit her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams and her brother, Charles Williams and family. She will be remembered as the former Barbara Williams.

Mrs. Lula Seattle and grandson Billie left last Thursday morning for Pendleton to get his two sisters, Sandra and Linda Seattle, and three children of Mrs. Georgia Wynn. They all continued on to Pagosa Springs, Colo., for two weeks visit with Delmer Seattle and family.

Rev. Paul Kimmel and family of Milliken, Colo., arrived Friday for a week-end visit with old friends, while on a vacation trip. He is a former pastor here. They have four children, Peter, Kathleen, John and Brian.

Dale L. Matteson, Pilot Rock, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Matteson, Martha and Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Scott, Robert and Robin, gathered Sunday at the home of their folks, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Matteson for a birthday dinner honoring Elmer on his 74th birthday.

Bill Chance drove to The Dalles Tuesday for parts for the harvesting machinery, then on to Odle near Hood River to visit his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Steele.

Stella McCarty drove to Heppner Sunday, taking her nephew, Dana Sweek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Sweek home after he had visited here the past two weeks.

The Darrel Dulaney family moved August 1 back to town on Hunt's Ridge from their home on Wall Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Wilson and two girls of Ontario came last Tuesday evening to visit her brother, H. W. Scott and family, returning home Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Boyer and three children, her mother, Edna Moore, and Miss Jackie Moore drove to Ventura for the week-end.

Mrs. Jessie Lawrence of Atascadero, Calif., left Friday after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Nellie Anderson. From here she will visit in Vancouver, Wn., in Portland, Woodburn, Springfield and Redwood City, Calif., before returning home. In Springfield she will visit family friends, Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Myrick. Mr. Myrick is a music instructor at the University of Oregon.

Mrs. Farra left the group at Chicago, coming west to Bismark, N. D., where she met her husband. They met with other relatives in the area at a family reunion at Wishek, N. D. before returning home together.

John McCabe Wins All-Star Honors

John McCabe, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McCabe won tournament all-star honors Saturday at Tillamook in a Cub baseball playoff. John, who has been staying with Mrs. McCabe's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Bristow, and family, played for Tillamook in the tournament.

McCabe pitched a one-hit victory for Tillamook against Reedsville, and the Tillamook boys won the tournament by also defeating Dallas. John's performance brought him recognition as tournament all-star, joining nine other boys out of the 40 for the honors.

John played Little League ball in Heppner. The Cubs are for boys in the age bracket just above Little League.

The McCabes, on vacation, were present to see their son play in the tournament. There is no state playoff, and so this ends the season for the Cubs. John spent two months with the Bristows.

Miss Opal Briggs returned home Monday from St. Anthony hospital, Pendleton, where she had been under medical observation the past week.

Entries Urged Now For Wool Contest

The banquet room of the Tapadera Motel in Pendleton will be the site of the annual Make It Yourself with Wool Sewing contest for this district, according to Mrs. Robert Hoskins, lone, district director for Morrow and Umatilla counties.

Date for the contest has been set for November 13, with the style show open to the public that evening at 8:00 p.m.

The entrants are girls of ages 10 to 21, who are required to sew their own garments of 100% wool fabric, made in America.

This year the senior contestants (ages 17 to 21) will be allowed to enter formals, and junior contestants (ages 14 to 16) may enter sleeveless dresses.

Entry blanks are available at the Home Extension offices, or from Mrs. Hoskins, lone.

Roger Doherty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Doherty, has been accepted as a volunteer to the VISTA program. He is now attending classes for six weeks at Northwestern Michigan University, at Marquette, Michigan.

Maralee Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rod Murray, returned to her home Wednesday where she is recuperating from recent surgery in Good Samaritan hospital.
