Teen Seamers Model Before Own Mothers

The Teen Seamers 4-H sewing club of Ione entertained their mothers at a tea at the home of their leader, Mrs. Keith Rea, on Friday, August 13.

Mothers present were Mrs. Walter Jacobs, Mrs. Donald McElligott, Mrs. Eldon Tucker, and Mrs. Wallace Matthews.

The girls modeled the dresses they will exhibit at the Morrow County Fair next week. Plans were also made for the booth the club will have at the fair.

Bridge Party Honors Former Club Member

Mrs. Bernard Damon, now of Eugene and formerly of Heppner, was greeted by her friends at a "welcome back" party, held recently at the home of Mrs. Bob Jones.

Members of her former bridge club were invited to the Jones home to enjoy a social evening together. Present were Mrs. Terry Thompson, Mrs. Floyd Jones, Mrs. Bob Abrams, Mrs. Herman Winter, Mrs. Jim Driscoll, the hostess and honored guest. Another member, Mrs. Arolene Laird, was unable to be present.

Mrs. Damon and two sons were spending several days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Graham.

Soroptimists Host Court and Mothers At Luncheon Meeting

"A most enjoyable and exciting summer" was the general feeling in comments made by Queen Judy Sherer and her Morrow county fair and rodeo princesses when they reviewed their summer experiences to members and guests of the Soroptimist club at its luncheon meeting last Thursday noon.

The attractive queen, her four princesses, their mothers, and their official chaperone were honored guests for a buffet luncheon at noon. Also greeted was Princess Shannon Mahoney of the Pendleton Round-Up court, and her mother, Mrs. F. W. Mahoney.

Places were marked by miniature horses, with larger ceramic and plastic horses adding the western touch along the tables and about the rooms. A baby picture of each girl on the court had been secured by Mrs. Archie (Dimple) Munkers, their chaperone, and a game of identifying the "mystery children" was found enjoyable. A musical jingle on "seams" was dedicated to Mrs. Munkers, accompanied by a small sewing kit gift.

In their review of summer trips, Princess Ginger Majeske told of their first official appearance in the Arlington parade and its rodeo grand entry; Princess Erna Winchester spoke highly of the Fourth of July celebration at Condon, the street parade and rodeo there. The busy and exciting schedule of the court at Chief Joseph Days celebration was reviewed by Princess Susan McCoy, followed by highlights of the Redmond festivities by Princess Karla Luciani. This was the first year a court from here had ridden in the Redmond parade.

Queen Judy summarized their summer experiences and expressed appreciation to all for interest shown in the court and for the good support at the dances. Mrs. Munkers announced their appearance on a radio station in Pendleton today (Thursday), with luncheon sponsored by the Lions club, and announced the coming dances.

Mrs. Charles Starks, club president, welcomed the guests, and Mrs. Jim Hager, chairman, presided over the program.

Mothers present were Mrs. Gene Majeske, Lexington; Mrs. Warren McCoy, Irrigon; Mrs. Harold Sherer, Ione; Mrs. George Luciani, Lena, and Mrs. Ernie Winchester, Heppner.

Misses Jan Hager and Linda Starks, daughters of members, were also guests.

Work schedule was announced for construction of this year's float by Mrs. Wes Sherman, float chairman.

Flower Arrangements Studied by Members Prior to Club Show

The lone Garden club met at the home of Mrs. Oscar Lundell with 15 members present. Mrs. Mary Swanson of Ione and Mrs. Ray Smith of Heppner were guests.

Hostesses were Mrs. Nels Anderson assisted by Mrs. Andy Van Schoelack. Mrs. Phill Emert, another hostess, was unable to be present.

More about flower arrangements preparatory to the flower show was the program presented by Mrs. William Rawlins. Mrs. Rawlins said that arrangements can only learn to create by doing, not by copying.

There must be a plan or shape in the creator's mind; a place where the arrangement will be used; material and container must be considered; harmony, rhythm, point of interest and unity are important, as well as size and balance, were points brought out by the speaker. Mrs. Tom Houston talked on miniature arrangements and had an extensive display of tiny containers, including children's tiny cups, doll shoes, etc. Many beautiful gladioli and dahlias were brought and also containers. The members demonstrated their skill by making lovely arrangements.

Mrs. Cecil Jones presided at the business meeting with Mrs. E. W. Christopherson, Jr., acting as secretary. Mrs. Nels Anderson was presented a going away gift from the club.

The September 14 meeting will be at the William Rawlins home with Mrs. Houston as co-hostess. Members are asked to bring a guest at the open meeting. A tour of the dahlia gardens will be a feature of the program.

McDaniel Relatives Join for Reunion

A reunion of descendants of the pioneer McDaniel family was enjoyed by a gathering of about 65 persons Sunday, August 8, at the courthouse park. Several came from out-of-town to join in the second of what is hoped to be an annual reunion.

Two were elected to organize plans for next year, Mrs. Kenneth Batty and Mrs. Max Buschke. Helping with this year's plans was Mrs. Carey Hastings.

Those coming from out-of-town were Mrs. Gladys Corrigan, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Delvin McDaniel and daughter Karen, Pendleton; Mrs. Maxine Mahon and two sons, Bobby Dean and Mike, Elgin, and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Stubblefield, Walla Walla, Wn.; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan McDaniel and sons Sammy and Ivan, Jr., Monument; Mr. and Mrs. Frank McDaniels, Stanfield; Mrs. Dorothy Bromley, Arlington, Wn.; Mrs. Hershel Townsend and daughter, Sue, Ione, and Jill and Jeanie Cline of Salt Lake City, Utah, who are visiting their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Batty.

Completing the group, were relatives and friends from the areas of Hardman and Heppner.

Gilliams Entertain Out-of-town Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gilliam and family returned to their home in Colville, Wn., August 7, after a few days visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gilliam and with other relatives here. Gilliam, a county extension agent, had completed six weeks summer school training at Oregon State University. While in Corvallis, they had also visited Mr. and Mrs. Earl Blake at Pacific City.

Leaving Saturday, after a four-day visit with Mr. and Mrs. Gilliam, were another son and family, Rev. Father and Mrs. Jackson E. Gilliam, two daughters and one son, of Great Falls, Mont. Father Gilliam, rector of the Episcopal Church of Incarnation in Great Falls, and his family had been on an extended vacation trip to the southern states, and stopped to visit the parents on their return trip home.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Jurgenson and son Greg of Dallas were week-end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Wes Sherman and family. Mr. Jurgenson, general manager of the Dallas Itemizer-Observer, was on the staff at the time Sherman was associate editor of the paper.

Golfers Continue Two-City Rivalry

Friendly rivalry between the Willow Creek Golf club of Heppner and the Kinzua Golf club will continue Sunday on the Kinzua course when a good-sized contingent of the local devotees travel there for another in a series of matches.

The Kinzua group will be host for breakfast and after play, the golfers will enjoy a potluck picnic. Willow Creek now holds the rotating trophy, having defeated the visitors on the local course in a recent match. Whether they can hold it Sunday remains to be seen.

Further information on the Sunday event may be obtained from Clint McQuarrie by those interested.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Connor were week-end visitors at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carey Hastings. On Sunday they joined other relatives for a birthday dinner honoring his father, Frank Connor, before returning to their home in Forest Grove. Another recent visitor at the Hastings home was their niece, Gladys Corrigan of Portland, who came for the McDaniel reunion.

Girl from Thailand Visits Weatherfords

Miss Sirinapha (Mu) Kumphal, whose home is in Bangkok, Thailand, was indoctrinated in Morrow county farm life last week while she was a guest at the Bill Weatherford ranch. With her hosts, she made a tour of the cattle and wheat farms and assisted in a cattle drive during a rain storm.

Miss Kumphal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Saerong Kumphal of Bangkok, is a junior at Oregon State University, where she is majoring in micro-biology.

In company with Mrs. Justine Knoll and daughter Ann of Corvallis, friends of the Weatherfords, she had traveled to Pullman, Wn., and Moscow, Idaho. They visited here on their return home.

Student Leaders Attending Workshop

Tim Tullis and Steve Warren, president and vice-president respectively of this year's student body at Heppner High school, are attending the state council workshop for student leaders in Oregon this week at Eugene.

The workshop, held each summer on the University of Oregon campus, started Sunday, and will last through Friday.

Group Travels East To Visit Relatives

A two-weeks trip was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Nash the first part of the month. They left for a visit with relatives in North and South Dakota on August 1, accompanied by Mrs. Mattie Green.

Among relatives visited were Mrs. Nash's mother at Forman, N. D., and a brother and other relatives of Mr. Nash.

Mrs. Green accompanied them as far as Lemmon, S. D., where she visited her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Knepper. She returned home by train and bus. All were home by the end of last week.

Recent houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Jones and family were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Myrick and sons, Steve and Jeff, of Sacramento, Calif. Myrick was the former director of Morrow County Welfare, before leaving for further training about eight years ago. After completing his master's degree, he continued in welfare work and is now the director of the Children's Welfare Division in Sacramento county.

Mrs. Laird to Move

Mrs. Arolene Laird plans to move this week-end to Yakima, Wn., where she will teach special education beginning this fall at McKinley School. Her new address will be 210 Bel Air Avenue, Yakima. Her son, Tom, is employed by Oren Brace and will join his mother in Yakima when he finishes the farm work. A graduate of Heppner High school with the class of 1965, he hopes to enter the Coast Guard. "We will miss our many friends here," Mrs. Laird said. The Lairds have lived in Heppner for 10 years and recently sold their variety store to Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Van Bloklund.
