

Lone Residents Enjoy Summer Trips, Picnics

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE—Rev. and Mrs. Walter B. Crowell are at home after a two weeks vacation. They were in Portland for a visit with relatives and then went sight-seeing in the Bend area. They drove into eastern Washington as far north as Spokane visiting the Grand Coulee dam and Lake Chelan with the return trip being made through the Yakima Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rietmann and family are vacationing at Seaside this week.

Willows Grange members and their families and friends enjoyed the annual picnic in Woolery Memorial Park on Sunday afternoon. A good crowd attended with guests from Lexington and Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Ray left on Sunday for their winter home at Lyle, Wash. Their son, Claude Breshears and grandson, Delbert Breshears, came over to drive them home. Mrs. John Armstrong and girls, who have been spending several weeks here with her parents, will leave from Lyle on Wednesday for their home in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ekstrom,

Jr. and family have returned from a vacation spent in Portland with her sister, Mrs. Roger Steiger, and family and with other relatives. They also spent some time on the coast and drove from Tillamook south to Newport. They enjoyed seeing the Sea Lion caves.

Thursday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Palmer and girls were Mrs. Palmer's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Springer of Hood River.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen and family from Saturday to Wednesday were his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Halvorsen, and their two daughters, Mrs. Bill Rosenbaum and children, and Mrs. Gordon Casey and children of Medford. Stephen and Jerry Crippen, who have been visiting here for a few weeks will return home with them.

Baby Born in Germany

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Swanson and family have received word of a new baby granddaughter born to Captain and Mrs. Denna E. Swanson at Sumbach Air Force Base, Germany. The baby arrived on August 15 and weighed 8 lbs. She joins a brother Michael and a sister, Antoinette. Mrs. Mary Swanson is paternal great grandmother. Mrs. Margaret Ingram of Springfield and Harold Ingram of Pendleton are maternal grandparents.

Wallace Matthews and daughter, Bernice, arrived home late Sunday evening from a reunion of the Matthews family at Roseburg. An unfortunate accident happened after they had left the scene of the picnic, when a grand niece of Mrs. Matthews was accidentally drowned in the Umpqua river.

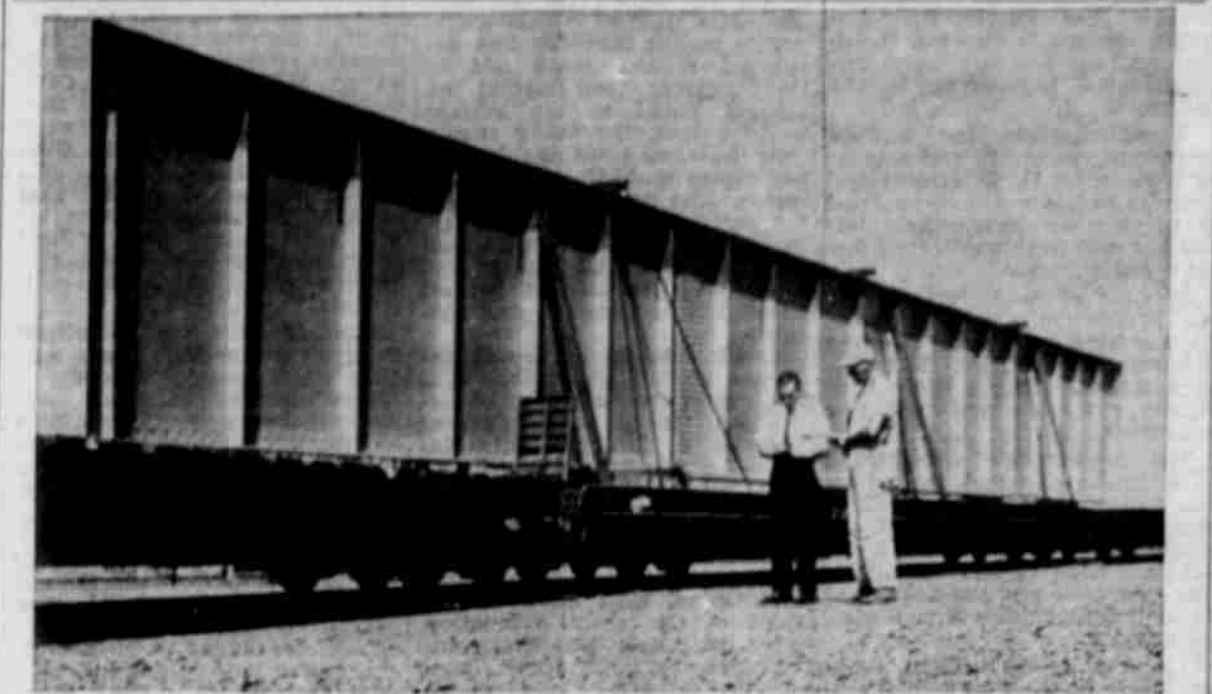

Rev. H. N. Waddell, former pastor of the Lone Cooperative church in 1945-46, will visit the United Church of Christ on Sunday morning, August 22. Old friends are invited to come and meet the former minister, who is now retired and lives at Cloverdale.

Mrs. Delbert Emert returned from Pioneer Memorial hospital on Monday following a tonsillectomy on Friday.

Wayne Pierce of Redmond flew over to Lone on Sunday morning and picked up Judy Sherer and Kelly Andrews and took them back to Redmond for the day. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sherer drove to Moro that evening and met Mr. and Mrs. Pierce and Robin and their guests. They brought their daughter Judy and Mr. Andrews back and also brought granddaughter, Robin home for a visit.

Answers Your Insurance Questions

QUESTION: My sister-in-law had a valuable watch stolen while she was on a vacation trip. She had no insurance but we have a residence theft policy and I wondered if it would cover a situation like that if I had my watch stolen.

ANSWER: Yes, under terms of a theft policy which covers loss of personal property while away from home, the insurance company would pay for loss of the watch as you describe it.
