Kinzua Golfers Regain Hold On Golf Trophy

By VIRGINIA KELSO
KINZUA—The members of the Kinzua Golf club entertained the Heppner golfers on Sunday and during the course of the afternoon regained possession of the Gribble-Schroeder traveling trophy.

The day's festivities were kicked off with a breakfast served by the Kinzua men, and upon completion of the afternoon play a buffet luncheon was served by the lady members of the club.

Prize winners for the two groups were: Kinzua ladies; Low gross, Helen Boyles; low net, Dorothy Close and Marilyn Bailey; closest to the pin, Arlene Schroeder; long drive, Marilyn Bailey. Heppner ladies; Low gross, Vi Lanham; low net, Dee Gribble and Marie McQuarrie; long drive, Bev Gunderson; closest to pin, Dee Gribble.

Kinzua men; Low gross, Don Slinkard; low net, Ernie Wall; long drive, Ed Wham; closest to pin, Jim Hulett. Heppner men; Low gross, Maury Groves; low net, Judge Carmichael.

Mrs. Ray Rector, Mrs. Paul Oyer, and Miss Sharon Kelso went to Spray Monday afternoon where Mrs. Rector was guest of honor at a baby shower.

Mrs. Mark Jellick and children were in Heppner last Tuesday for medical care and to make arrangements for minor surgery on Friday for both Mrs. Jellick and Dennis.

Mrs. Louis Rhodes was brought home last Monday from Pendleton where she had been a patient in St. Anthony hospital for the past six weeks following a pickup accident. Mrs. Edna Rhodes of Coulee City, Wn., came to stay with the Rhodes and help out as Josephine had both arms broken and is slowly gaining use of them.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Hyatt left Saturday for a week's vacation in Canada and Seattle. They took Carol Ann and Alice Asher of Fossil to Portland where they were picked up by their grandmother and taken on to Astoria. The Hyatts picked up their daughter Theresa who had been spending some time in Portland visiting her grandparents.

The Doubledeck card club was entertained in Fossil Wednesday evening with Marge Asher as hostess to the group. High was won by Bonnie Campbell, low by Ada Schell, and floating by Bonnie Campbell and Marj Boring. Others enjoying this evening were Irene Samples, Helen Wright, Virginia Kelso, Virginia Sitton, Vi Slinkard, Margie Ball, Marilyn Bailey, Lily May Nistad, and Vonnie Browning.

Mrs. Jiggs Bowman, Joe, Ronnie, Sara, and Cindy, Becky Stubblefield, and Pat Murphy went to Bend Thursday to take Pat to his home there.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Phillips and three grandchildren went to Ukiah Friday to attend a family reunion of the Hall family of which Mrs. Phillips is a member.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Parton and son spent the week-end in Hood River where they visited with relatives.

Al White and Mark Jellick went to Portland Friday evening to attend the Saturday football game between the Dallas Cowboys and the San Francisco Forty Niners.

Mrs. Ray Rector was the honor guest Wednesday evening at a stock shower held in the grade school. Several shower games were played with winners being Sue Mattison, Rollene Fulton, Sandy Gilliam, and Pat McMinn. Linda then opened her gifts after which cake and jello were served to the guests by the hostesses Mavis Oyer, Sharon Kelso, and Nancy Misener.

Of interest to many residents here was the arrival of a baby daughter on August 1 to Mr. and Mrs. John Standerfer of Prineville. The little girl weighed 8½ lbs. and was named Jennifer Marie. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Graham of Kinzua and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Standerfer of Walla Walla.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Britain were business visitors to Heppner Monday.

Bill Roberts of Newman, Calif. arrived Thursday to spend a few days with his family here.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil McClain of Burbank, Wash. spent the week-end here with Mr. and Mrs. Olin Weems.

Mrs. Vincent Allen took her son Bob to Moses Lake, Wash. Tuesday to visit with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Fleming went to Heppner Monday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Cox and family.

George Simonson of Heppner spent Saturday here visiting with friends.

Mrs. Tommy Schoolcraft and Mrs. Earl Norris spent last Monday in Pendleton where they attended to business affairs and Jean had medical care.

Mrs. Ralph James and son David went to Roseburg Friday to spend the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bastian. They were accompanied home by Miss Karen Bastian for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Rhoton went to The Dalles Friday for medical care for Slim. While there they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Michaels.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Sharp went to Weston Friday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Homer Grogan. While there they also went to Walla Walla and to Pendleton for business and shopping.

A special meeting was called by president Barbara Mortimore for the Camp 5 Women's club last Monday. The purpose was to change the date of the potluck dinner picnic to Sept. 18. This will be followed by a card party and at that time the raffle drawing for the cedar chest will be held. Lola Ferrel is the chairman for the potluck and picnic. Nine members were present.

Going to The Dalles Friday to attend a two-day meeting of the Central Oregon District Council Conference meeting of the Lumber and Sawmill Workers Union were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Lige Long,

Mrs. Lovelle Nelson, daughter Diane and son Gary, accompanied by Lisa and Rickey Pieper, left for Portland on Monday after visiting here. Diane, Lisa and Rickey had been visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Pieper, for two weeks. Mrs. Nelson and Gary came Friday evening from Portland. Rickey and Lisa went on by bus from Eugene on the return trip.

"Okay, everybody . . . stretch!"

Now lean s-t-r-e-t-c-h denim fits this-a-way. It's all on account of the way Lee has tailored this remarkable fabric . . . rangy, long-legged, downright ornery. As authentic as pinto beans and boiled coffee.
