MR. AND MRS. CLIFFORD WAYNE GREEN (Lucinda Marie Wilson)

Couple at Home in Athena After Wedding August 7

The marriage of Miss Lucinda Marie Nelson, daughter of Mrs. Harriet Nelson of Corvallis, to Clifford Wayne Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Green, Heppner, was solemnized at an impressive summer ceremony Saturday afternoon, August 7.

Vows were exchanged at 2:00 p.m. in the Ebbert Memorial Methodist church in Springfield with the Rev. Ross Knotts performing the double ring ceremony.

Decorating the altar were yellow and white gladioli accented with mint green bows, and flanked by white tapers in candleabra.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Harold Horn of Newport, the bride wore a gown fashioned by her mother of lace and satin. The lace bodice was styled with sweetheart neckline and full length sleeves, and a full bell-shaped satin skirt extended into a chapel train. A lace crown enhanced with seed pearls and crystals held in place the full illusion veil. Her bridal bouquet was a large single orchid, with white streamers entwined with ivy. For something old, the bride carried her great-grandmother's handkerchief; something new was a wristwatch, a gift from the groom.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Stephen Rohl, sister of the bride, of San Mateo, Calif. She wore a street length dress of mint green brocade taffeta and carried a nosegay bouquet of yellow carnations with yellow streamers.

Serving as bridesmaids were Miss Kathy Hansen of Springfield, Mrs. Ronald Pofahl of Corvallis, and Miss Margaret Green, sister of the groom, of Heppner. Their dresses were identically styled of pale yellow brocade taffeta, and carried bouquets of yellow carnations, with green satin streamers.

Lighting the tapers before the ceremony were Miss Emma Adams of Newport and Miss Linda Ekborg of Cloverdale.

Organist for the service was Elwin Myrick of Springfield, who also accompanied soloist Herman Klick of Corvallis when he sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "A Wedding Benediction."

Little Judy Ledbetter of Lexington, five-year-old cousin of the groom, served as flower girl, with Jay Ried of Portland, five-year-old cousin of the bride, attending as ring bearer.

Best man was Harvey Brown of La Grande, and ushers were Al Osmirn, Thomas Green and Lawrence Green, brothers of the groom, all of Heppner.

The couple greeted about 150 guests at the reception immediately following the ceremony. A large tiered wedding cake centered the serving table, which was covered with a hand crocheted lace tablecloth made by the bride's grandmother, placed over a yellow undercloth. Accents of mint green were carried out in the floral decorations.

After the traditional cutting of the first piece of wedding cake by the bride couple, it was cut and served by Mrs. Margaret Horn, aunt of the bride, of Newport, assisted by Mrs. Carrie Reinheimer, grandmother of the bride, of Corvallis.

Pouring coffee was Mrs. Hatie Leech, great aunt of the bride, of Corvallis, with Mrs. John Ledbetter, aunt of the groom, of Lexington, pouring punch.

Serving the groom's cake were Connie Ried and Jimmy Ried, cousins of the bride, of Portland.

Gifts were under the care of Mrs. Clarence Olds, cousin of the bride, of Harrisburg, with Miss Linda Starks of Corvallis, passing the guest book.

For their wedding trip into Northern California and Eastern Oregon, the new Mrs. Green chose for her going away ensemble a mint green suit, with white accessories, and wore the orchid from her bride's bouquet.

The newly wed couple is now at home in Athena, Oregon, where Mr. Green is teaching vocational agriculture at McEwan High school. The bride was a graduate of Corvallis high school in 1963 and attended college at Oregon State University and Oregon College of Education.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Heppner High school in 1960, was graduated from Oregon State University with the class of 1965, receiving his degree in agricultural education.

Attending from this area were the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Green, and other
