Kit Anderson Tells Of Trip's First Leg

First message from the N. C. Anderson family, en route to Niger, Africa, came in a postcard to the Gazette-Times dated Wednesday, September 1, from son Kit.

"I am on this boat (Princess Marguerite) on my way to Victoria, B. C.," he wrote. "We had a two-day layover in Seattle so David, Doug and I hopped on board for this trip. We got off O. K. from Pendleton. We checked 16 pieces of luggage and everybody (even Rick) carried on all they could carry."

"We arrived at Seattle at 5:30 but it wasn't until the next morning we discovered a shoe bag was missing. A quick trip to the airport got it so everything's good so far. We are leaving for Minneapolis tomorrow. We'll write from Minnesota."

America's Future...

Know Your Newspaper Better

How Do We Prevent Errors?

As a reader, perhaps you think we always make mistakes. At times, of course we do . . . and no one is more distressed about a misspelled name than the editor himself.

We Check...and Often Double-Check

whenever a name or any part of a news report is in question. Even such a common name as Smith (Smyth, Smythe). And when it comes to Mary Zolgasz, our effort for accuracy is "all out." Why, then, do errors occur?

So Few Mistakes-- Almost a Miracle!

In setting just one column of type for your newspaper, the chances for error are approximately 2,000,000! No wonder there are a few mistakes . . . isn't it surprising how few?
