John Cleveland Weds Lorene Deardorff At Candlelight Ceremony in Oregon City

A candlelight ceremony in the First Methodist church in Oregon City united in marriage Miss Lorene Patricia Deardorff and John Howard Cleveland on Saturday, August 21.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Deardorff of Molalla, and parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Wendel Howard Cleveland of Heppner.

Vows were exchanged before an altar decorated with baskets of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and white tapers. The aisles were marked with blue satin bows.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. David J. Smith. Organist was Mrs. Alice Selgfried, who also accompanied Miss Judy Clay when she sang "At Dawning" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a white satin floor-length sheath, fashioned with scalloped lace bodice and a matching lace train. A bouffant elbow-length veil fell from a Dior seed pearl rose. Her bridal bouquet was a white orchid surrounded by blue delphinium, placed on a white Bible. She carried a handkerchief edged in tatted lace, a gift of a great aunt, Mrs. Lila Berg of Sitka, Alaska.

Honor attendant was Miss Vicki Ems, who wore a pastel blue linen and satin floor-length sheath with lace appliques on the skirt. Her headpiece was of net fastened with three large blue daisies. She carried a cascading bouquet of delphiniums and white spider chrysanthemums falling from a lace parasol.

Bridesmaids were Miss Nancy Cleveland, sister of the groom; Miss Jane Deardorff, a cousin of the bride, and Miss Barbara Gaylord, Seattle. They were gowned identically to the maid of honor. Junior bridesmaid for her sister was Miss Marla Gay Deardorff, dressed in a floor-length gown of blue crystal charm with a lace jacket.

Best man was a cousin of the groom, Nat Webb. Ushers included the bride's brother, Bruce L. Deardorff; Bill Wagner and Jim McGough, a cousin of the groom.

Dropping white rose petals along the church aisle was little Michelle Nielson, flower girl, dressed to match the bridesmaids.

Lighting the tapers before the ceremony were brothers of the bride and groom, Alan Deardorff and Tom Cleveland.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Deardorff chose a blue sheath with blue and white accessories and a white orchid corsage. Mrs. Cleveland, mother of the groom, appeared in a beige sheath with green accessories and a yellow-throated orchid.

Decorating the reception room where the newlyweds greeted their many guests, were arrangements of white chrysanthemums and blue delphinium and white tapers.

Serving the bride's cake were Mrs. Louis Babcock and Mrs. Verdon Sandberg, Mrs. Willard Deardorff and Mrs. Francis Deardorff, aunts of the bride, and Mrs. Ron Schumacher, presided at the coffee, tea and punch services. Cousins of the bride, Jackie Deardorff and Linda Ramsay, served the groom's cakes.

Mrs. Bruce L. Deardorff, sister-in-law of the bride, had charge of the guest book. Miss Judy Deardorff, cousin of the bride, and Miss Jane Bystrom were in charge of the gift table.

For a honeymoon trip to Southern Oregon coast, the bride changed to a melon two-piece wool suit with beige accessories and wore the white orchid from her bride's bouquet.

The bride was graduated from Molalla High school and the groom from Heppner High school are attending Pacific Uni-

Large Group Tours Rawlins Gardens; Club Plans Show

A group of 24 members and guests of the Lone Garden club enjoyed the beauty of the dahlias Tuesday, when Mrs. Rawlins was hostess for the monthly meeting of the club. About 175 varieties of dahlias caught the admiration of the group as they toured the gardens.

During the business session, reports of committees working on plans for the 14th annual flower show were heard. The show is planned for Sunday, September 26, between the hours of 2:00 and 7:00 p.m., in the lone school cafeteria. The club is inviting all organizations in the area to participate, with many divisions for entries available.

Special guests at the club meeting included Mrs. Marion Palmer, Mrs. Terry Thompson, Mrs. Claud Graham, Mrs. Dean Gilman, Mrs. Norman Florence, Mrs. Ralph Thompson and Mrs. Charles Vaughan.

University in Forest Grove, where the bride is majoring in history and the groom in speech therapy.

They are now at home at the University Apartments, Forest Grove.
