

Scholarship Girls Appear on Program

The program at the Soroptimist club at the Thursday, September 16 luncheon meeting, was a report of the activities of two of the recipients of the scholarship awards given by the club last spring.

Linda Eckman, daughter of the David Eckmans, received the grade school citizenship award and attended the Lutheran Bible Church camp near Tollgate, the last week in July. This camp was attended by young people from both Oregon and Washington.

Margaret Green, daughter of the Herman Greens, was chosen to attend Girls' State on the campus of Willamette University, Salem.

Girls' State is sponsored by the state department of the American Legion Auxiliary. Girls are chosen from the junior classes of high schools of the entire state for a week of study of the functions of state, county and local government. They participate by organizing the various departments of government among themselves. They have a week of active campaigning and elections and carry out the various functions of government by active participation.

Mrs. Eckman and Mrs. Green, who were guests of the club along with their daughters, were welcomed and introduced by Mrs. William Johnson, of the program committee.

Grange Booster Night Set for Saturday

The Rhea Creek Grange ladies met Thursday at the Grange hall for a business meeting and a clean up day, with a potluck luncheon at noon.

A booster night is planned for Saturday, September 25, at the Grange hall, beginning at 6:30 p.m. There will be a potluck supper for Grangers and friends, with games and fun time to follow.

Attending the work day were Mrs. Doc Babb, Mrs. Harold Wright, Mrs. Orian Wright, Mrs. William Bergstrom, Mrs. Henry Baker, Mrs. Evelyn Farrens, Mrs. Mary Wright, Mrs. Hannah Anderson, Mrs. Walter Wright, Mrs. Barton Clark, Mrs. Cecil Ludkins, Mrs. Ray Drake and Miss Marilyn Bergstrom. Several men were also on hand to assist with the clean up day.

The October meeting of the Grange ladies will be held at the home of Mrs. Orian Wright. There will be a potluck luncheon at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Farra traveled to Hermiston Sunday to attend the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Ross at the Methodist church. The bride is the former Judith Bennett, related to former residents here.

MRS. DENNIS HERBISON, the former Barbara Ann Blake, was a bride of August 28, in a chapel ceremony in Corvallis.

Jepsens Are Greeted At Church Reception

A lovely reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jepsen (the former Linda Franklin) was held at the social rooms of the First Christian church in Heppner on Sunday afternoon. Friends and relatives greeted the newlyweds in rooms decorated with bouquets of fall colored mums, glads, and dahlias.

The lace covered tea table was centered with a bouquet of yellow mums with green candles. Mrs. Walter Jepsen and Mrs. Fred Hoskins, Jr., poured coffee and Mrs. Keith Rea and Mrs. Carry Tullis served the punch. Cutting and serving the cake were Mrs. D. O. Nelson and Mrs. Paul Tews. Carol Holtz, niece of the bridegroom, passed the guest book. Miss Virginia Jepsen and Kathy Holtz assisted with the gifts.

Hostesses for the party were Mrs. Robert Bergstrom, Mrs. Mary Holtz, Mrs. Everett Struckmeier, Mrs. John Jepsen, and Mrs. Anita Stockard and Joan.

Rietmanns to Observe Wedding Anniversary

An open house reception in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rietmann on their 40th wedding anniversary will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rietmann on Sunday, October 3.

All friends and relatives are invited to call between the hours of 3:00 and 5:00 p.m. and extend greetings to the couple.

Miss Blake is Bride Of Dennis Herbison At Corvallis Chapel

Miss Barbara Ann Blake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Blake of Monmouth, and formerly of Heppner, became the bride of Dennis Herbison, son of Mrs. Evelyn Herbison of Condon and Willard Herbison of San Francisco, Calif., at a candlelight ceremony Saturday, August 28, at the Chapel of the Good Samaritan church in Corvallis.

Performing the four o'clock ceremony was Father C. Bruce Spencer of Coquille, and former pastor of All Saints Episcopal church, Heppner. Mary Neville was the organist and also accompanied Gordon Pratt, soloist, when he sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "Perfect Love."

Lighting the tapers before the ceremony were Karen and Kathy Blake, twin sisters of the bride, wearing street length sheath dresses of pink satin.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride chose to wear the wedding gown worn by her sister, Mrs. David Fitzgerald, at her marriage last November. The floor length gown was of white nylon lace, fashioned with scalloped boat neckline, long sleeves extending to a point at the wrist, and a tiered bouffant skirt. Her elbow length illusion veil was held in place by a pearl tiara crown, and her bridal bouquet was of pink rosebuds.

Mrs. David Fitzgerald was the honor attendant for her sister. She wore a pink satin floor length dress with quilted skirt, and carried a single white long stemmed rose.

Bridesmaids were Miss Jennifer Blake, sister of the bride, and Miss Karen McCurdy, Miss Patricia Van Winkle and Miss Brenda Barratt. Their dresses were identically styled to that worn by the matron of honor. Each carried a single white rose.

Little Sharon Blake attended as flower girl and Brent Blake served as ring bearer. Both are cousins of the bride.

Attending as best man was LeRoy Gardner. Ushers were David Fitzgerald, Tom Van Hee, Darrell Blake and Doug Dubuque.

The couple greeted their friends and relatives at a reception in the lounge room of the church immediately after the ceremony.

Serving the wedding cake were Mrs. Ardith Blake and Mrs. Dorothy Barratt. Pouring were Jean Siewert and Betha Heinrich, with Janet Barratt passing the guest book, and Terri Fitzgerald and Peggy Snyder presiding at the gift table.

For going away, the new Mrs. Herbison wore a bronze three-piece knit ensemble with black accessories. They are now at home at 169 Courtway Street, Monmouth. Both will attend Oregon College of Education this year.

The bride was a member of the 1965 graduating class of Heppner High school.
