

New Officers Take Over Rainbow Duties

Miss Cheryl Smouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smouse, Ione, was installed Worthy Advisor of Ione Assembly No. 89, Order of Rainbow for Girls, at a lovely ceremony at the Masonic Hall on Sunday afternoon.

Other officers seated for the fall term were: Linda Rowell, associate advisor; Bonnie Akers, charity; Teresa Stefani, hope; Bonnie Morgan, faith; Marlene Hamlett, recorder; Bonnie Hynd, treasurer; Connie Emert, chaplain; and Linda Nichols, drill leader.

Those holding the color stations are Lucinda Smith, love; Tanya Tucker, religion; Susan Jane Jepsen, nature; Betty Greenup, immortality; Marianne Williams, fidelity; Geraldine Krebs, patriotism; and Marsha Ball, service. Outer observer is Cathy Hausler; confidential observer is Teresa Tucker; musician is Susan Lindstrom, and choir director is Mary Nichols.

Cheryl chose pale green and white as her colors and "I Believe" as her theme. Bonnie Hynd sang "I Believe," accompanied by Connie Emert.

Following the installation, Cheryl was crowned by her father, Kenneth Smouse.

Installing the new officers were Susan Lindstrom, installing officer; Bonnie Hynd, marshal; Shariene Hamlett, record-

IONE—Guests of Willows Grange Saturday evening were Verne Crawford, deputy of Umatilla County Granges, and Mrs. Crawford. Both were introduced and made short talks.

Activities of the Grange are picking up after a two months vacation. Finishing of the hall, the stage and rooms upstairs will begin soon.

A program on safety was introduced by the lecturer, Mrs. Oscar Lundell. Berl Akers gave a talk "Safety from Fire," followed by "Safety for Pre-school Children," by Mrs. Lee Palmer.

Mrs. Harvey Ring gave the 4-H pledge of safety with a skit, "Safety Road," by Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen and Mrs. Marion Palmer. Forestry safety and advice of Smokey the Bear were given by Mrs. Art Dalzell. Warren Stender was the winner of the safety hazard game.

The Home Economics club held a no-host meeting at the hall preceding the Grange meeting. Date of the next meeting will be Friday, October 15, with Mrs. Berl Akers and Mrs. Cleo Childers as hostesses.

The October grange meeting will be Saturday, October 16, at the hall, to which the public is invited for a Halloween party at 8:30 p.m. Cards will also be played.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hemstreet of Portland were Monday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Engleman. They were in a trailer caravan on a trip of Eastern Oregon. They stopped in Heppner to see Mrs. Blaine Chapel at the hospital.

Reception to Honor Rietmanns

An open house reception in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rietmann on their 40th wedding anniversary will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rietmann on Sunday, October 3. The occasion is arranged by their children and all friends and relatives are invited to call between the hours of 3:00 and 5:00 p.m. and extend greetings to the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Adon Hamlett have returned from a trip to Boise. Mrs. Hamlett has been appointed a district distributor of Luzier, Inc., a subsidiary of Bristol-Myers, and attended a training meeting of Luzier at Boise, when the divisional manager, E. W. Olson, was present to instruct them. She will cover four counties, Morrow, Umatilla, Union, and Wallawa, and will manage the saleswomen for this area.

Dance classes sponsored by the Ione Dance club, will begin fall classes on Saturday evening, September 25. If enough interest is shown a teen age group will meet at 6:30 p.m. New adult students will meet at 7:30 for instruction and intermediates and advanced will have class at 8:30. Two new Latin dances will be introduced as well as a new society foxtrot, the Smoothie and Western Swing. Instructors will again be Jerry and Geneva Rickels of Pasco.

Mr. and Mrs. John Proudfoot spent the week-end in Portland, where they visited their son, Paul, who is in school there. Their daughter Pamela, enrolled as a junior at St. Paul's School for Girls in Walla Walla this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Griffith and Glen spent Saturday and Sunday in Portland and attended the wedding of a friend.

Heimbigner Are Honored

Ray Heimbigner, chairman of the third annual McNary Yacht club Labor Day ski show, and Mrs. Heimbigner, were honored at a party held in the Episcopal Parish hall in Hermiston on Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. James A. Watts were hosts and were assisted by several other members of the club. About 70 people were present to show their appreciation to Heimbigner for his long and devoted work in staging these successful Labor Day events enjoyed by so many. He was presented a new life jacket and a battery powered megaphone and Mrs. Heimbigner was presented a corsage of white carnations and pink rosebuds. The large cake served with the refreshments was decorated with water skiers and boats and inscribed "Thank you, Ray." Those attending the party from Ione were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Heimbigner and Tom, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, Mark and Frank, and Susan Lindstrom.

Mrs. Harold McDonald of Seattle, Wash., arrived on Friday for a visit at the home of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smouse. Mrs. McDonald is a writer for the Seattle Times and has authored several books under the name Lucille McDonald. She is very interested in the history of the northwest and spent considerable time out around the countryside during her visit here.

The Ione Library Board were hostesses for a tea on Monday afternoon at the library for the elementary and high school teachers.

New adult books on the shelves of the Ione Library this fall include Goldfinger, James Bond; The Ambassador, Morris West; John F. Kennedy, Man of Courage; Flight of the Falcon, Daphne du Maurier; I Told The President, Art Buchwald; and The Supreme Court, about a mythical president who tries to pack the Supreme Court. Hours for adults at the library are 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. every Monday and Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Ronald Bishop is librarian.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Connor drove to Eugene last Thursday to take their daughter, Lee, to enroll at the University of Oregon for her freshman year. Mrs. O'Connor's mother, Mrs. Edna Yarnall, who has been living in Eugene for several months, began the return trip home with them, but became very ill at Grass Valley. An ambulance was called and she was taken to The Dalles General hospital for observation and treatment. The O'Connors returned home on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lundell and Cheryl left last Thursday for Eugene, where Cheryl will enroll as a freshman at the University of Oregon.

Flower Show Cancelled

The Ione Garden Club fall flower show, planned for Sunday, September 26, has been cancelled. An early frost two nights last week killed many of the beautiful flowers in the member's gardens and also froze the dahlia blooms in the William Rawlins home. A special exhibit by Mr. Rawlins had been scheduled.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hemstreet of Portland were Monday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Engleman. They were in a trailer caravan on a trip of Eastern Oregon. They stopped in Heppner to see Mrs. Blaine Chapel at the hospital.
