Couple Reside Here Following Marriage At Episcopal Church

The marriage of Miss Kathleen Ann O'Harra, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard I. O'Harra, to Donald Earl Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Hughes, all of Heppner, was solemnized at an afternoon ceremony Friday, September 3, in the presence of relatives and close friends. The wedding date was also the birthday of the bride.

Vows were exchanged at the altar of All Saints Episcopal church, with the Rev. Father Chandler Jackson of Hermiston officiating.

Mrs. Emil Groshens, organist, played a background of wedding music.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was attired in a street length dress of bonded lace in A-line fashion. Both the sleeves and neckline were trimmed in scalloped lace.

Attending as maid of honor was Miss Kathie Ray, sister of the bride, wearing a street length dress of pink lace.

Best man was Wesley Marlatt, Heppner.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. O'Harra wore a two-piece suit of blue and white. Mrs. Hughes, mother of the groom, chose a two-piece ensemble of dark blue.

After the ceremony, those attending greeted the couple at a reception in the church parish hall. After the newlyweds had cut the first piece of the three-tiered wedding cake, it was served by Mrs. Merritt Gray.

Pouring coffee and punch were Mrs. Matt Hughes and Mrs. Don Belenbrock. Cheryl Belenbrock, cousin of the groom, attended the guest book. Miss Mary Cox was in charge of the gift table.

For traveling, the bride chose a blue and white two-piece suit. The couple took a week-end wedding trip to the Portland area.

The couple now resides at 680 W. Sperry in Heppner, where the groom is employed.

Attorney Discusses Importance of Wills At Mothers' Meeting

Regular meetings of the Heppner Mothers club resumed Monday evening when Mrs. Herman Winter entertained members and guests. Assisting the hostess was Mrs. Everett Struckmeier.

Guests of the evening were Mrs. Eugene Winters and Mrs. Al Boschee.

During the business meeting, reports were heard on projects which the club had carried on during the summer. The hospital committee had been active in remembering hospital patients with favors. Further hospital and library projects, with which the club is most closely associated, were discussed. Printed year books have been delivered to members by Mrs. Bob Henry, program chairman.

Attorney Winters presented the program of the evening, a talk on the legal aspects of "Wills" and their place of importance in the family program. Refreshments and social hour closed the meeting.

The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Abrams.

Legion, Auxiliary Leaders Represent Units in La Grande

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamlin and Mr. and Mrs. Riley Munkers attended a District 6 American Legion and Auxiliary conference, held in La Grande recently. Mrs. Hamlin is the district Auxiliary president.

Twelve of the 15 units in the district were represented with over 100 persons attending the conference and potluck supper that was highlighted by the presence of six department heads, including Department Commander Jack Plate and Mrs. Colleen Goger, department president.

Mrs. Hamlin was pleased to report that District 6 is leading the state in district membership.

Mrs. Corbin Honored With Shower Party

On Tuesday evening, the Wagon Wheel lounge was the scene of a pink and blue shower honoring Mrs. Kay Corbin, now of La Grande. Mrs. Denny McMillan and Betty Sorenson were the co-hostesses.

The occasion was motivated by the hostesses while Mrs. Corbin, along with her husband, was spending a two-week vacation here visiting friends and relatives. Corbin is a member of the Oregon State Police.

Thirty-one guests were on hand for the pleasant evening of games and refreshments prepared by Mrs. McMillan.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Van Schoelack and family are now at home at 306 Laird St., Hermiston, where they moved over the past week-end. The children are now enrolled in the Hermiston schools.

Yakima Chapel Scene Of H. Cohn Wedding

Marriage vows were exchanged between Clara W. Flory of Yakima, Wn., and Harold A. Cohn of Heppner, in a September ceremony at Ward Chapel of the First Presbyterian church in Yakima. Presiding was Dr. John Gordon.

The bride chose a century royal blue silk and wool jacket ensemble, with squinned cloche, and accented with a corsage of Cymbidium orchids.

Their attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Phillip W. Cohn of Hermiston, son and daughter-in-law of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Weedon, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, and Miss Rose G. Weber, sister of the bride.

Their wedding trip took them to points of interest in Montana, with plans for a later Christmas trip to Walker Air Force Base in New Mexico to visit Captain and Mrs. Kenneth D. Bauguess and family, son-in-law and daughter of the bride.

The new Mrs. Cohn was a long-time resident of Yakima, and retired in January, 1964, from the National Bank of Commerce. She is a past president of the Yakima Altrusa club, Cohn, a member of a pioneer Oregon family, is a stockman and former president of the Oregon Wool Growers association.

Many Call to Honor Victor Rietmanns On 40th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rietmann were complimented on their 40th wedding anniversary at a delightful reception at the home of their son Bill Rietmann on Sunday afternoon, October 3.

Besides Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rietmann, other hosts were a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Rohde of Kennewick, Wn., and a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rietmann.

The rooms and serving table were beautifully decorated with arrangements of chrysanthemums in shades of yellow, gold and bronze. The three-tiered white anniversary cake was served by Mrs. Esper Hansen, Mrs. John Turner, Mrs. David Rietmann and Mrs. Victor Peterson.

The honored couple received congratulations from 114 guests who called during the afternoon. Keeping the guest book was Mrs. Walter Roberts, sister of Mrs. Rietmann, and Mrs. William Melena.

Among those coming from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. John Turner of Baker, brother-in-law and sister of Mrs. Rietmann; Mr. and Mrs. Gene Rietmann of Portland; Mrs. Agnes Wilcox and Mrs. Mabel Denny of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rietmann of The Dalles; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Blake of Pacific City; Mrs. John Ransier, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Thorne all of Hermiston; Mr. and Mrs. David Rietmann and family of Kennewick; Mr. and Mrs. Ron Anderson, Mrs. Roy Hurst and Mr. and Mrs. John Krebs, all of Arlington; Mrs. Elmo McMillan of Salem, and Mrs. Esper Hansen, sister of Mrs. Rietmann, of Portland.

Guests from Heppner were Frank Turner, Mrs. J. O. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Harlan McCurdy, Sr. Seven grandsons of the honored couple were also present.

Club Meets Saturday

A meeting of the OES Social club of Ruth Chapter No. 32, has been announced for Saturday, October 9, starting at 2 p.m. in the Masonic hall. Mrs. Marjorie Worden will serve as hostess for the afternoon card play, with all regular members urged to be present.

AN OPEN HOUSE RECEPTION honored Mr. and Mrs. Norman Florence on Sunday, September 19, in observance of their 50th wedding anniversary. A large number of relatives and friends called to extend personal congratulations.

Reception Delights Couple On Golden Anniversary

A half-century of marriage was climaxed Sunday, September 19, for Mr. and Mrs. Norman Florence when they observed their 50th wedding anniversary in the familiar surroundings of their family home on Willow Creek.

At an open house reception, arranged and given by their children, they received greetings and congratulations from about 130 friends and relatives on the same date that they had repeated their marriage vows 50 years ago. Their home, a place of family tradition, was the birthplace and life-long home of Mr. Florence, whose parents were early Morrow county pioneers.

Arrangements for the happy occasion were under the direction of a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Gilman, Heppner; their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Florence of Eugene, and assisted by Mrs. Howard Bryant, Heppner.

Beulah Gammell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gammell, became the bride of Norman Florence on September 19, 1915. The ceremony took place at the Jim Gentry home in Heppner. Mrs. Gentry, now Mrs. Walter Rood of Elgin, was present as a special guest for the reception.

Other special out-of-town guests included their grandson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Florence of Eugene; Mrs. Jessie Kinney, Eugene; Mrs. Bertha Lane, Portland; Mrs. James Sherman, West Linn; Mrs. Bill Hinton, Ukiah; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Gammell, brother and sister-in-law of Mrs. Florence, of Adams; Mrs. Lee McRoberts, her niece, and children Timmie and Sherie of Kennewick, Wn.; Mr. and Mrs. John Clouston, Portland; Mrs. Diane Zimmerman and daughters Susan and Ann, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Godfrey, Portland, and Harley Hall, Portland, all cousins of Mr. Florence.

Table and other decorations carried out the traditional gold and white color scheme. The beautiful, three-tiered anniversary cake was a focal point of the serving table. Decorating the tiered layers were gold rosebuds and leaves, topped with a gold numeral "50" surrounded by gold lace. Accent colors of pale pink and green were carried out in a pink rosebud centerpiece holding lighted tapers, and by the lime punch in a gold bowl. Serving coffee from a golden
