

Grange Invites Public to Hear Pakistan Talk

BY DELPHA JONES

LEXINGTON — Lexington Grange will be hosts on Friday, October 22, at 8 p.m., to a reception honoring Glenn Simmons, state agriculture chairman of Oregon State Grange. Simmons recently returned from a trip to Pakistan where he went as a member of a group sponsored by Farmers and World Affairs of Philadelphia. The group had the opportunity to see exactly how farming is done in both West Pakistan and East Pakistan before they returned to the states March 25. The speaker has prepared a most interesting talk on Communism and Foreign Aid and will show films.

The Grange issues a cordial invitation to all neighboring granges and friends to attend this public meeting. Mrs. Alonzo Henderson and Mrs. C. C. Jones attended District 10 Garden Club meeting at the Tapadera in Pendleton on Tuesday, October 5. The meeting opened with the district chairman, Mrs. Fred T. Martin of Ione, presiding. The morning was spent in hearing some very interesting reports from garden clubs in the district. There was a lovely luncheon served at noon, after which a short business meeting was held. Mrs. Omar Rietmann, district anti-litter chairman, attended with the other three ladies. Mrs. Jones is secretary-treasurer of District No. 10.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Majeske are both ill at their home in Lexington. Lexington Grange met Saturday night at 6:30 p.m. with a potluck dinner. The program consisted of a very fine program with Willard O'Hara, administrator of Pioneer Memorial hospital giving a most instructive talk on Medicare and different phases of the hospital work. He dwelt some on the nursing home angle and later held a question and answer session. The grange wishes to express their "thank you" at this time to Mr. O'Hara. Following the program a short business meeting was held. It was announced that the November meeting will be an election of officers, and the program will be films and a talk by Virginia Majeske, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Majeske, who honored the Grange by being the 1963 rodeo princess.

Mr. and Mrs. Greg Leyva and children spent the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Steagall. Mr. and Mrs. Leyva recently returned from a trip to Kansas City where they took delivery on a plane for their work at La Grande. Leyva is associated at the La Grande airport where they make their home. Donald Wayne VanWinkle is now based in Fort Ord, Calif., where he is undergoing training for the U. S. Army. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. VanWinkle.

Miss Leora VanWinkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. VanWinkle, is now a student at Blue Mountain college in Pendleton. Mrs. Emma Peck and daughter Joyce were Lexington visitors one evening last week from Pendleton. Holly Rebekah Lodge met last Thursday night with N. G. Ardith Hunt in the chair. The meeting was preceded by a potluck dinner shared jointly with the Oddfellows. Plans were made for the visitation of Hazel Wainwright, state assembly president of Oregon for Friday, October 15. Three members gave the unwritten word.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hunt and children of Beaverton visited over the week-end with Mr. Hunt's mother, Bertha Hunt. Laddie Henderson spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Henderson. Laddie flew to Lexington from Hood River where he is employed.

Frank Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson, is visiting his parents for 20 days from his training in the U. S. Marines in San Diego, Calif. He will leave for the far East upon his return to service with the 3rd Marine Division.

A group of ladies met recently at the home of Mrs. Alonzo Henderson for the purpose of talking plans for a Federated Garden club in Lexington. The following ladies volunteered to serve as temporary officers until an election could be held. Mrs. Frank Robinson, chairman; Mrs. Florence McMillan, vice chairman; Mrs. Harley Sager, secretary; and Mrs. Bob Davidson, treasurer. At the next meeting it is hoped to have a name chosen, and to draw up the plans for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Cutsforth and Mr. and Mrs. Mel Boyer enjoyed some hunting in the Hood River area over the week-end. Lexington Christian church had as guest speaker, Clarence Baker of Heppner, one of the laymen of the Heppner Christian church. Mr. Baker spoke in the absence of the minister who with his wife is attending a minister's conference in Spokane. Carl Marquardt of the Lexington church spoke at an earlier service in Heppner on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Munkers and Mrs. Trannie Parker were Portland visitors this week. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bloodworth are busy preparing their yard for the winter months.

Couple Repeats Vows At Impressive Church Ceremony October 2

BOARDMAN — Miss Paula Marcelle Williams, daughter of Mrs. Marcelle Miller of Walla Walla, Wash., and David L. Williams of Seattle, Wash., became the bride of Johnny Jay Partlow, son of Mrs. LaVern Partlow of Boardman and John Partlow of Hillsboro, in a candlelight double ring ceremony at the Trinity Lutheran church in Walla Walla October 2. The service was performed by Rev. Harold Iben before the altar banked with tall baskets holding pink gladioli.

The bride wore a sheath gown of silk face peau de sole and re-embroidered Alencon lace, fashioned with scoop neckline, elbow-length sleeves and fitted bodice with set-in midriff. It had a double detachable train enhanced with motifs of lace. The ballerina veil of silk illusion fell from a caplet of re-embroidered Alencon lace and pearls. A cascade of white roses and stephanotis centered with a corsage of pink and white roses formed her bouquet.

Miss Patricia Miller of Boardman was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Priscilla Van Horne of Fullerton, Calif., and Sally Bennett of Enterprise. They wore identical sheath gowns of deep pink crepe fashioned with Venise lace panels as back accent. They wore small pink leaf and pearl hats designed and made by the bride's mother and carried semi-cascade bouquets of pink glamelias with pink streamers.

The bride's mother's ensemble was accented by a corsage of pink roses, and that of the groom's mother by one of white roses.

Steve Partlow of Boardman, brother of the groom, was best man, and groomsmen were Ivan Kress of La Grande, brother-in-law of the groom, and Jim Hoffman of Boardman. Ushers were Michael and James Partlow of Boardman, cousins of the groom. At the reception, Mrs. Harold Baker and Mrs. Willard Baker of Boardman, aunts of the groom, poured, and Mrs. Roy Partlow of Boardman, aunt of the groom, and Mrs. Jay Burres served the cake. Alicia Miller was at the guest book and Mrs. Ivan Kress of La Grande, sister of the groom, had charge of gifts.

Following their wedding trip the couple is at home in La Grande, where the groom will continue his education at Eastern Oregon college. Both are graduates of Riverside High school at Boardman, and the bride attended Eastern Oregon college for one year. Wedding guests from a distance included the bride's father, David L. Williams; her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Owen J. Williams; her uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jay Holm, and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry E. Holm, and the Larry Ahlesons, Woodward Hoopeses and Howard Andersons, all of Seattle; a great uncle, Martin L. Oliver of St. Helens; an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Burres of Rufus, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Holm of Umatilla.

Attending from Boardman were Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Black, Franell Walker, Mrs. Ralph Skoubo, Mrs. Dante Daltoso, Lester Lazorou, Mrs. Russell Miller, Jim Miller, Rod Plug, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Baker and family, Mrs. Dean King, Mrs. Zoe Billings, Joan and Rick Partlow, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kress. Others were Mr. and Mrs. Sigvald Aase of Touchet, Wash., Mrs. Norm Manka of College Place, Mrs. Franklin Ball of Hermiston, and Mrs. Albert Partlow and daughter Cheryl of Irrigon.

They recently built a new home on the main street in Lexington. While working on the house they have been living in the former Wm. C. VanWinkle home.

Billy Klinger is living with her grandmother, Mrs. Wm. C. VanWinkle, while Mr. Klinger is in Navy training.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Fetsch have received word from their son Bobby that he has arrived in Southern Germany in Baumholden. His address is Pvt. Robert L. Fetsch, U. S. 56366042, Hq. Co. 68th Armor, APO 09034, New York, N. Y., in case his former classmates would care to write him.

John Fetsch, brother of Al Fetsch, and son Dick of Salem and Roy Putnam of Portland have been recent house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Al Fetsch.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Palmer have as their guest, Scott Crabtree, a grandson, while his mother Janet Crabtree is getting settled at her school, Blue Mountain college in Pendleton.

Punt, Pass, Kick Winners Named At Saturday Meet

Twelve winners were named in the annual Punt, Pass and Kick competition sponsored by Heppner Auto Sales, Inc., at the rodeo grounds here Saturday. First, second and third places were chosen in each of the four ages, 8 through 13, with the highest score of the day going to Rory Stillman, winner of the 13 age bracket with 231.

More than 40 boys participated and the winners received football jackets, helmets, footballs and plaques. Top winners' scores will be sent in to compete with other winners in the region for selection for a trip to see a National Football league game.

Jerry Gentry topped the 8-year-olds with a combined score for punting, passing and kicking of 133 ft. He won a jacket. Second was Bobby Todd with 115 ft. and he received a helmet. Third was Charley McElligott with 112, and he won a football.

Mike Stevens with a score of 152 was first of the 9-year-olds and he received a jacket. Second was Phil Carlson, 151, winning a helmet, and third was Mark Cutsforth, 113, who won a football.

In the 10-year-old group, Dick Snider was first with 151, receiving a jacket; second was Gregg Green with 149, good for a helmet; and third was Dale Hedman, 156, who won a football. Hedman's high score was made in a playoff with Ken Sawyer to break a tie for third. The initial score was not that high.

Jerry Pettyjohn topped the 11-year-olds with 144, Wayne Schwarzin with second with 143, and Dave Hughes was third with 142.
