Holly Rebekahs Entertain in Honor Of State President

Holly Rebekah lodge held a special meeting at the Lexington hall Friday evening, and was honored with an official visit from the State Assembly President Hazel Waincott of Pendleton.

Members and guests met first in the dining room for a delightful dinner. Fall flowers, arranged attractively with bird figurines, provided decorations for the tables and about the room.

Entertainment was enjoyed following the dinner, provided by four talented daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Marquardt. Accompanied at the piano by their mother, they sang two delightful numbers, and one of the group, Norita Marquardt, entertained with a solo.

The meeting was immediately called to order in the lower hall. Roll call of lodges was responded by 15 members present from Sans Souci, Heppner; one from Paulina No. 13, Pendleton, and 18 from Holly lodge, Lexington. Officers and members of the host lodge were dressed in pastel colored formals.

Decorations in the hall carried out a colorful garden theme. Special point of interest was a wall plaque holding a pair of praying hands, in keeping with this year's emblem of the state president. As another tribute to the president, a special banner drill was performed. She was later escorted through a friendship garden, and was delayed for a few minutes of "fishing". With the assistance of Dist. Deputy President Florence McMillan of Holly and Noble Grand Lucille Parrish of Sans Souci, she found at the end of her line many lovely gifts.

Mrs. Waincott reported on work of lodges over the state and gave an interesting talk of instruction.

A social hour in the dining room closed the meeting. Before adjourning, all sang the honor guest's theme song, "Smiles."

Sunday Reception To Honor Mrs. Rice

A public reception will honor one of Morrow county's oldest residents, Mrs. R. B. (Laurel Lee) Rice, on Sunday afternoon, October 24. The occasion will honor her on her 90th birthday anniversary, and will be held in the Episcopal parish hall, with a group of friends and neighbors planning the affair and serving as hostesses.

Mrs. Rice has lived in the Lexington and Heppner communities since her marriage to Robert B. Rice in 1907. Friends are invited to come and extend their personal greetings to her, but she requests no gifts.

Reception hours will be between 2:00 and 4:00 p.m. on Sunday.

Plans for Christmas Show Get Underway

Mrs. Garry Tullis entertained members and guests of the Lone Garden club at its October meeting, with Mrs. Marion Palmer assisting.

Following discussion, it was decided to have a Christmas show on December 4 and 5, to replace the fall flower show that was cancelled in September. Plans are being made to hold the Christmas show in Lexington.

Mrs. Bob Jones presented the program of the day, a discussion on forcing bulbs to bloom in the home during the winter. It was followed by an exchange of bulbs between members.

The November meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Ralph Crum, with Mrs. Alma Rohman of Pendleton to be guest speaker.

Mrs. Wallace Wolff is serving as general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Hubert Wilson, pinochle chairman; Mrs. James Driscoll, bridge chairman; Mrs. Gene Ferguson, in charge of prizes, and Mrs. Don Munkers, in charge of desserts. Admission at the door will be $1 per person.

Auxiliary to Sponsor Benefit Card Party

As a benefit to help provide gifts and cheer to war veterans during the coming Christmas season, the local unit of the American Legion Auxiliary is sponsoring a public card party at the Legion hall Monday evening, October 25, with money received to go to this purpose.

Bridge and pinochle will be in play, starting at 8:00 p.m., with prizes and refreshments planned. The public is urged to attend.

Rainbow Sets Sale

Ruth Assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, will hold a traveling food sale on Saturday, October 30, it is announced. The girls will start at 10 a.m. and sell their home cooked foods by going from house to house until "everything is gone."

MISS JULIE PFEIFFER

Pfeiffers Announce Daughter's Betrothal

Mr. and Mrs. John Pfeiffer are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Julie Ann, to Thomas C. Saling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Saling of Corvallis.

A spring wedding is planned. After her graduation from Heppner High school, Miss Pfeiffer attended Multnomah Junior College in Portland and Blue Mountain College, Pendleton. The past months she has been employed in Venice, Calif.

Her fiancée has been a student at Oregon State University and at Santa Monica College. They plan to make their home in Corvallis following their marriage.

Biographical Sketch Of Mrs. McDaniel In 'Who's Who' Book

Recognition came to Mrs. Carl (Sylvia) McDaniel, Morrow county treasurer, when she received notice recently that her name and biographical sketch had been placed among those to appear in this year's edition of "Who's Who of American Women."

Nominees are chosen by the editorial board of Marquis-Who's Who, Inc., publishers of "Who's Who in America," and biographical data is compiled on women in America and Canada whose attainments and positions are recognized as outstanding. This is the fourth edition, which serves as a biographical reference among professional people. A regional publication, "Who's Who in the West," will also carry the sketch in their next issue.

Mrs. McDaniel is in her 11th year as county treasurer, taking over the office in 1953. She has been active in church and community affairs during her residence here.

Rebekahs to Serve Dinner Next Week

Committees of Holly Rebekah lodge, Lexington, will be busy during the coming week making preparations to serve their annual Turkey Dinner on Saturday, November 6. Serving will be between the hours of 5:30 and 8:00 p.m. in the Lexington IOOF hall, with the usual good menu planned.

The dinner is an annual money-making project of the lodge, with proceeds to be used in making improvements in the hall, and to buy additional furnishings for the hall.

Tickets will be $1.50 for adults, and 75c for children.

Entertainment of table games, and a coffee hour will follow the dinner. Door prizes of hand-made articles, including an Afghan, stole and dressed doll, will be given during the evening.

Teachers Society Meets for Luncheon

Delta Kappa Gamma, an honor society for women teachers, held a luncheon meeting Saturday at the Tapadera restaurant in Pendleton.

Mrs. Florence Ferebee, president of Alpha Rho State, was a special guest, also 18 members from Zeta Chapter in La Grande were present.

Mrs. Lester Doolittle enjoyed a week-end visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Doolittle, and sons Dennis and Ronald. They came from their home in Portland, returning on Sunday.
