REV. W. J. STRACK

Nazarenes Slate Ohio Minister For Meetings

Rev. W. J. Strack of Jefferson, Ohio, will conduct a 10-day series of special evening meetings at the Heppner Church of the Nazarene, starting Wednesday, November 3, according to Rev. Don McCarty, local pastor. They will be held each evening, except Saturday, through Sunday, November 14.

Rev. Strack, an elder in the Church of the Nazarene, has been in the active ministry since 1928. Coming from a versatile background ranging from employment in the automotive and automobile sales prior to his call to the ministry, to some 12 years in the pastorate, has given him a sympathetic understanding and approach to the spiritual needs and problems of the people.

The guest speaker has traveled throughout the United States and Canada, conducting revivals and camp meetings. His ministry is well-balanced, dynamic, and Biblical, with a proper emphasis upon the experience of entire sanctification and prophecy in the light of current events. Meetings are open to the public and visitors will be welcomed.

Club Advances Date of Dinner

By VIRGINIA KESLO
KINZUA—A special meeting of the Camp 5 Womens club was called by President Barbara Mortimore last Monday.

Grange Speaker Presents Illustrated Talk on Pakistan

By DELPNA JONES

LEXINGTON — Glenn Simmons of Glenwood, past Oregon Grange agriculture chairman, was present at Lexington Grange Friday night, October 22, where he talked on "Communism, Foreign Aid and Pakistan." He recently returned from a trip to Pakistan, where the group studied their customs, religions, and ways of livelihood, concentrating on farming practices. He was sponsored by Farmer's Group exchange from Philadelphia. He also showed films of his travels.

Following this, the grange was host to a reception for Mr. Simmons. Pouring at the reception was Mrs. Jim Lindsay of Ione and Mrs. Pearl Scott of Heppner. Mrs. Norman Nelson was in charge of the arrangements.

Newt O'Harra recently returned home from a few days spent with his son Jack O'Harra and family, and daughter Mrs. Patricia Darnielle and daughter of Portland. Mr. O'Harra flew from Pendleton to Portland.

Home Ec Club Elects
HEC of the Lexington Grange met at the home of Mrs. Nora Turner in Heppner last Thursday. Plans were made for a Smorgasbord and movie to be held the first part of December.

Proceeds will be used to help purchase folding tables for the dining section of the hall. An election of officers was held with the following elected: Mrs. C. C. Jones, chairman; Mrs. Pearl Scott, vice-chairman; Mrs. Nora Turner, secretary, and Mrs. Kenneth Smouse, treasurer. Plans to initiate three new members at the November meeting were discussed, and it was also announced that the meeting will include election of officers, the program will be by Ginger Majeske, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Majeske, who will show her slides and tell of her experiences as princess in the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo court. It was also announced that there will be an antique table for this meeting, with members asked to bring an antique to complete the showing.

Mrs. Florence McMillan and Mrs. Joe Yocom were Heppner business visitors on Monday.

Ponies Undefeated; Face Big One Here

By JOHN HARRIS

Coach Tom Hughes' Heppner Grade school football team has a perfect record so far this season with five wins against no defeats. However, their winning streak will be threatened Friday as they meet the toughest opponent they have faced this year, Arlington, here.

The Ponies squeaked by Arlington there, 7 to 6, but the team is well coached and will have good blocking and tackling. They are expected to give the Ponies a hard game when the teams collide on the rodeo grounds here at 2 p.m. Friday.

This will be the last football game for 17 eighth graders on the team. Everyone not getting in the regular game will be allowed to play in an extra non-counting quarter after the game.

The Ponies have beaten Ione by scores of 26-6 and 37-18, Echo by a score of 28-14, Irrigon by a score of 41-0 and Arlington, 7-6.

Names and numbers of the players are as follows:
Centers—Rob Abrams (30), Gary Adams (21) and Terry Hughes (26).

Guards—Garry Munkers (34), John Harris (37), Rick Cox (25), and Dave Wright (36), Rick Marquardt (43), Randy Hughes (28), Steve Kemp (20), Mark Hopkins (31), Mark Miller (42), and Ken Baker (28).

Ends—Hal Bergstrom (25), Lee Huson (19), Terry Criesp (16), Pat Kilkenny (23), David Gunderson (22), La Verne Van Marter (32), Jim Schaffitz (35), Jerry Ceel (18).

Backs—John McCabe (12), Pat Sweeney (10), Phil Ayers (24), Bill Greenup (14), Matt Murray (29), Mike Hedman (22), Tom Hughes (17), Larry Bellenbrock (15), Keith Curnutt (16) and John Hall (5).

Chapter Officers Attend Conference

Officers of the Heppner chapter, Future Farmers of America, attended the district leadership conference Monday, October 25, at Hermiston.

Members attending were Bob Harris, David Hall, Alfred Drake and Steve Wagenblast.

At the meeting the boys broke up into different groups according to the offices they hold. Leadership qualities were discussed and ideas exchanged with other chapter, district and state officers.

College Trio Due To Sing Sunday

Women's musical trio of the Northwest Nazarene college, Nampa, Idaho, will sing at the Heppner Nazarene church for two services Sunday morning, October 31, the Rev. Don McCarty, pastor, announces.

The three singers will appear first at Sunday School, which starts at 10 a.m., and then will sing at the morning service, which starts at 11 a.m. Everyone is welcome to come and hear them, the Rev. McCarty states.

Seaman Recruit Begins Training

Seaman Recruit William P. Klinger, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Klinger of Lexington, has begun seven weeks of Navy basic training at the U. S. Naval Training Center, San Diego, Calif.

On completion of his recruit training he will be assigned to a school, shore station, or ship, according to the results of his Navy classification tests, his own desires and the needs of the Navy.

HOSPITAL NEWS

The following patients were admitted to Pioneer Memorial hospital during the past week, and are still receiving medical care: Dewey Britt, Heppner; Lois Prock, Heppner; Kenneth Mulloy, Portland; Florence Nolan, Heppner; Bernard Lyle Cox, Lexington, and Edna Dick, Kimberly.

Those who were admitted for medical care, and were later dismissed, are the following: Bellinda Meadows, Kinzua; Lillian Sweek, Heppner; Elizabeth Wabs, Aloha, and James Ashwood, Condon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Connor became parents of a baby boy on Saturday, October 23, weighing 6 lbs., 6½ oz. He has been named Gregory Dean, and joins a little sister at home. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Nash, and his paternal grandfather is Albert Connor, all of Heppner.

A second daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Culp, Heppner, on Monday, October 25. Her birth weight was 7 lbs., 6½ oz., and she has been named Kerry Ellen. She joins a 2½-year old brother, Christopher, and a 1-year-old sister, Katrina. Maternal grandparents are Mrs. William Loudon, Portland, and Floyd Claywood, Dunster, B. C. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George Culp of Vale.

Medicare Signup Scheduled Friday

A "Medicare Sign-up" is to be held in Heppner on Friday, Oct. 29, from 11:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. at the City Hall. This is a continuation of the meetings recently held in Pendleton and Hermiston, and will be the last of the special "Signups."

All people in the Heppner area who will be 65 by the end of January, 1966, and who have never made an application for Social Security or Railroad Retirement Benefits are urged to attend.

An application is necessary to establish eligibility and should be made even if a person intends to continue working. Any people who have questions concerning Social Security should feel free to come in and talk to the representatives.

Methodists Hear Bishop Grant Speak

Twelve members of the Heppner Methodist church went to Arlington Monday night for the Bishop's Dinner at the Methodist church there. They joined some 100 other Methodists of the area in hearing an address by Bishop A. Raymond Grant of the Portland area conference, entitled, "Where in the World?"

Prior to the dinner were workshop sessions beginning at 4 p.m. with four program executives of the Portland area conference leading. They are the Rev. Robert McGlone, in charge of the Board of Education and Youth Work; the Rev. Asa Mundell, in charge of the Board of Evangelism and Board of Christian Social Concerns; the Rev. James Thompson, in charge of the Board of Missions and Church Extension and the Board of Lay Activities; and Norman Amtower, conference treasurer and business manager.

In his address, Bishop Grant answered the rhetorical questions, "Where in the World is God?", "Where in the World is the Church?", and "Where in the World are You?"

Attending from Heppner were the Rev. and Mrs. Melvin Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Green, Mr. and Mrs. Wes Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Pearson, and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Drake.
