

Ione Parties Mark Gay Halloween

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM
IONE—Beta Omega Sorority enjoyed a gala Halloween rush party on Wednesday, October 20, at the country home of Mrs. Robert Peterson.

Costumes were brought in paper sacks and passed around the room for a certain time period, then at a given signal everyone donned the costume from the sack he was holding. Games were also played.

Guests present were Mrs. Lindsay Kincaid, Mrs. John Jepsen, and Mrs. Elwayne Bergstrom of Heppner. Hostesses for the evening party were members of the social committee, assisted by Mrs. Joe Hausler and Mrs. Gene Rietmann.

McCabe and Arthur Warren. The hall was cleverly decorated in the Halloween theme.

The Ione Dance club had a Halloween costume party and dance following lessons on Saturday evening at the Legion Hall. During the party birthday greetings were extended to Eldon Padberg, with Mrs. Padberg furnishing a beautiful cake for the occasion. Dance lessons will be held next Saturday evening at the regular times and make-up lessons will be on Sunday beginning at 4:00 p.m. for the young people and 5:30 for adults.

Extension Plans Winter Workshop On Upholstering

Training in chair re-upholstery will be given through an Extension Service workshop this winter, according to Donna George, Morrow county extension agent.

Open to both men and women, the program is geared to homemakers with little or no previous experience. Those who re-upholstered several years ago can also benefit from methods for such new materials as foam rubber padding. Vinyl or plastic cover materials will not be dealt with, however, persons wanting to participate are requested to contact the extension office (phone 676-9642) before Thanksgiving. This is important so they can receive more information and expected attendance can be learned.

Prior to regular workshop sessions the home agent will hold preliminary lessons on fabric and equipment selection for all participants, probably in December. Up to 10 people will be taught in six Monday daytime workshop sessions by the agent, starting in January at Heppner. Two people will work on each chair. If there is sufficient enrollment, other community or evening workshops will be arranged.
