

Greenfield HEC Elects; Mystery Sister Party Set

By MARY LEE MARLOW
BOARDMAN—Mrs. Glen Carpenter was elected chairman of the Home Economics Club of Greenfield Grange in a meeting last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Guy Ferguson, Mrs. Leonard Bedord is vice-chairman; Mrs. Frank Marlow, secretary; and Mrs. Walter Hayes, treasurer.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. Bedord and Mrs. John Phillips. The club will be hostess for the annual Mystery Sister Christmas party December 15 at the grange hall, with the club officers in charge. Members of the Ladies Aid Society of Community church will be guests. Those not belonging to the Mystery Sisters may bring an exchange gift. Mystery Sisters will be revealed with exchange of gifts and names drawn for next year.

Hostesses appointed for the November 19 card party were Mrs. Delmer Hug and Mrs. Tom Hilling; for the December 3 party Mrs. John Phillips and Mrs. El Belanger.

A "Dutch" auction brought $140. Gifts for the state hospital in Pendleton were to be turned in before December 15.

Mrs. Vernon Russell was hostess for the meeting of the Boardman Tillicum club Wednesday. The club will host a tea party night of last week at her home, and open house for all the women of the community November 21, 1-5 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Ronald Black. All club members will assist her. All new comers to the community are urged to attend.

The next meeting will be the annual Christmas party December 14 at the home of Mrs. LaVern Partlow. There will be no second meeting in either November or December.

The Mothers Club of Boardman Grade school met last Wednesday at the school with Mrs. Vernon Russell, Mrs. Delmer Hug and Mrs. Harold Baker as hostesses.

The O.E.A. dinner was reported as netting approximately $70. A report was also made on the Hunters Breakfast.

The annual Christmas tree and program was planned for December 22 at 8 p.m. Mrs. Bob Sicard will be in charge of treats. Mrs. Baker is chairman to obtain a film for the school children for the last day of school December 23 before vacation starts.

Mrs. Russell and Mrs. Hug are in charge of getting a Christmas doll and boys' toy. Members will make clothes for the doll.

Greenfield Junior Grange met Thursday night of last week at the grange hall. Nathan Thorpe, county deputy and senior grange master, presented the grange with its charter with 31 names on it. He also instructed them in balloting for new members.

The meeting dates were changed to the first Thursday and third Saturday of each month. Meetings start at 6:30 p.m. Drill practice will start at the next meeting November 20. Eight honorary members were present at the meeting.

Mrs. Guy Ferguson was honored with a surprise birthday party at her home Thursday evening of last week when a group of friends called. She was presented with a cake and gifts. Present were Mrs. Charles Anderson of Pendleton, Mrs. Glen Carpenter, Mrs. Claud Coats, Mrs. Louise Earwood, Mrs. Zearl Gillespie and Mrs. Frank Marlow.

Cafeteria menus for Riverside High school and Boardman Grade school for the week of November 22-24 are as follows: Monday—hamburger gravy over buns, mixed vegetables and fruit; Tuesday—turkey and dressing, mashed potatoes and gravy, rolls, cranberry sauce and pumpkin pie, Wednesday—hash, French bread, green beans and fruit. School will be dismissed Thursday and Friday for Thanksgiving vacation. Bread, butter and milk are served with all meals.

Mrs. Ray Gronquist of Pendleton was honored with a birthday party last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. G. Seehafer. The afternoon was spent playing pinocle and canasta. Present were Mrs. Charles Anderson of Pendleton, Mrs. Walter Hayes, Mrs. Walter Wyss, Mrs. Glen Carpenter, Mrs. Bernard Donovan, Mrs. Wyss and Mrs. Donovan won the high prizes, and the low went to Mrs. Seehafer and Mrs. Carpenter.

Mrs. Bill White of Baker, and Sharon Donovan, students at E.O.C. La Grande spent the week-end at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Donovan.

Mrs. James Pappas and daughter, Cynthia Illingsworth of Portland were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Pappas' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. David Duncan.

W. G. Seehafer returned to his home last week after spending a week in St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton with a broken ankle. His leg is in a cast.

Mrs. Frank Marlow spent the week-end in Walla Walla, Wash., visiting her aunts, Mrs. Ernest Zerba and Mrs. A. C. Knudson.

Greenfield Grange will meet November 20 at the hall, starting with potluck supper at 6:30 p.m. Hosts will be Mr. and Mrs. Guy Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bedord and Mr. and Mrs. John Phillips. The Junior Grange will also meet at 6:30.

Monument News

By MARTHA MATTESON
MONUMENT—Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hunt and two daughters of Burns were here for a week of visiting and hunting.

Don Wicks of Springfield spent several days hunting in the area. He was a guest at the Elmer Matteson home, returning to Springfield November 1. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Day and Miss Sharlene McKinney of Prineville were recent visitors with relatives here and in Fox.

Mrs. Harry Scott and Gracie Matteson drove to John Day last week for medical care for little Robin Scott.

Verne McCarty and sons Paul and Don drove to Heppner last week to get his truck and visit Stella McCarty, who is working at the hospital there.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Harris have purchased a new trailer house and are now living at the George Capon ranch.

Mrs. Florence Buxton had as recent guests her sister and family from the valley.

Misses Vanita and Berveda Cork, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cork of Bend, visited recently with friends here.

Mrs. Robert Ferrell of Camp 5 visited her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Matteson while her husband was in a Pendleton hospital for treatments and tests.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Roack of Pendleton spent a few days here on business and visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Leathers.

LaVerne Matteson was in Heppner last week-end where he purchased a new freezer.

Those present Monday evening to eat cake and ice cream with little Martha Matteson on her 5th birthday were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Matteson, brother Ralph, Aunt Jessie Scott and Dianne Hunt, cousins Robert and Robin Scott, Mrs. Beeta Hinton, grandmother, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Matteson, grandparents.

Leo Flower drove to Heppner Monday to bring his wife, Clara, home. She had been in the hospital there for three or four days.

Mrs. Stella McCarty came home Tuesday to visit her sons and take care of business, returning Wednesday morning to her work in Pioneer Memorial hospital.

Many turned out to the church supper and harvest sale held Friday evening at the Legion-Grange hall.

The PTA will sponsor a Thanksgiving dance in the school gymnasium. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Forrest and children drove to John Day Saturday, taking his mother, Mrs. Irene Forrest, there for dental work.

Maynard Hamilton left November 15 for John Day on business, then took the bus to Boise, Idaho, where he will visit his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Banta, and a niece, Dorothy Merrell.

Women Choose December Date For Club Party

By VIRGINIA KELSO

KINZUA—The Kinzua Women's club had its regular meeting last Thursday afternoon with Vonnie Browning and Virginia Kelso as hostesses.

During the meeting a date was set for the club's Christmas party and gift exchange. It will be on Saturday evening, December 11, and will be a potluck for the ladies and their husbands. The members will exchange gifts with their secret pals and the husbands will bring a gift to exchange.

A report was given on the food sale held last Wednesday at the Mercantile. Games were played for traveling prizes. There will be no second meeting in November as it would fall on Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Shelton returned home Friday from a two-weeks trip to Salem, Missouri, where they visited with relatives.

A stork shower honoring Mrs. William Stephens was held last Tuesday at the school. Games were played with prizes being won by Pat McMinn, Sue Mattison, Naurine Benson and Thelma Hill. Mrs. Stephens then opened her many gifts assisted by Mrs. Archie Cox and Mrs. R. O. Stephens. Cake and fruit salad were then served to the guests by the hostesses Virginia Sitton, Linda Rector, Midge Murray and Sharon Kelso.

Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Murdoch went to Silver Lake last Tuesday where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Waldvogel.

Richard Mortimore and Earl Norris were in Condon Wednesday where Earl had seven stitches taken in the index finger of his right hand.

The regular womens card party at Camp 5 was held Thursday with Marie Rhoton as hostess. High was won by Carol Norris, low by Nancy Hawk, and floating by Carol Norris and Marie Hulett. Grand high for the series went to Carol Norris and second high to Barbara Mortimore. Others playing were Lola Ferrel, Jean Medlock, Rusty Medlock, Etta Ferrel, Helen Troxell, Betty Murdoch, Linda Warner, and Judy Norris.

Mrs. Jack Warner, Mrs. John Hawk, and Mrs. Dell Williams were in Heppner Tuesday for medical care for Mrs. Williams.

The Friendship club met Wednesday evening at the school with Doris Stubblefield as hostess. High was won by Marilyn Bailey, low by Irene Samples, and floating by Judy Norris and Rosemary Stubblefield. Others playing were Vi Slinkard, Carol Norris, Naomi Rice, Mavis Oyer, Pat McMinn, Rosie Graham, and Rita Conlee. A going away gift was presented to Irene Samples from the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ferrel were in John Day Wednesday on business and for a medical checkup for Bob.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Troxell and family spent Wednesday in Heppner on business and visiting with Mrs. Harriet Evans.

Mrs. Frank Ferrel and Mrs. Ralph James were in Heppner Tuesday on business and medical care for Mrs. James.

Mrs. Herschel Murdoch and Mrs. Jack Bell and Mrs. Will Evans of Fossil were business visitors to Condon Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ferrel were in John Day Wednesday on business and for a medical checkup for Bob.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Troxell and family spent Wednesday in Heppner on business and visiting with Mrs. Harriet Evans.

Mrs. Frank Ferrel and Mrs. Ralph James were in Heppner Tuesday on business and medical care for Mrs. James.

Mrs. Herschel Murdoch and Mrs. Jack Bell and Mrs. Will Evans of Fossil were business visitors to Condon Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ferrel were in John Day Wednesday on business and for a medical checkup for Bob.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Troxell and family spent Wednesday in Heppner on business and visiting with Mrs. Harriet Evans.

Mrs. Frank Ferrel and Mrs. Ralph James were in Heppner Tuesday on business and medical care for Mrs. James.

Mrs. Herschel Murdoch and Mrs. Jack Bell and Mrs. Will Evans of Fossil were business visitors to Condon Wednesday.

Many Take Part In Achievement Party

By LAVELLE PARTLOW

IRRIGON—The North Morrow County 4-H Achievement Party was held at the A. C. Houghton cafeteria last Tuesday evening, with Morrow county agents Gail McCarty and Miss Donna George of Heppner participating.

The evening began with a fried chicken dinner and emceed for the following program were Fran Walker and Bruce Jones. The program began with the United States and 4-H flag pledges and then the club members joined in for a session of group singing.

Special guests were introduced, and an instrumental trio was presented by Randy Baker, Ron Baker and Rick Partlow, accompanied by Mrs. Harold Baker, Lynda Early and Mike Partlow gave reports on their experiences at 4-H Summer School in Corvallis, followed by baton twirling by Vivian Phillips.

County agents Gail McCarty and Donna George presented pins and certificates and Teresa Ball and Lonnie Belanger gave 4-H Summer Camp reports. Leon Wilson sang a vocal solo followed by slides of 4-H activities and a tap dance by Susan Ball. The evening climaxed with a presentation of special awards by the extension agents.

The Irrigon Livestock 4-H club had its first meeting Wednesday at the old Irrigon school. Pete Richards is the club leader, and officers include: Tammy Snyder, president; Arthur Olin, vice president; Judy Snyder, secretary-treasurer; Karen Richards, news reporter, and David Richards, recreation leader. The members decided to select a name for their club at their next meeting. The group saw a movie on proper procedures in judging dairy cows, pigs and laying hens. Also, they completed forms on judging livestock.

The Irrigon girls' 4-H Cooking club met at the old school Monday with their leader, Mrs. Pete Richards. The girls practiced measuring flour and water and plan to make banana-milk drinks next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Partlow and Sheryl drove to Vancouver, Wash., and spent the week-end visiting Mrs. Partlow's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Berg and Ronald and also Mrs. Myrtle Markham who spent the past week with the Bergs. While there they also visited Mr. and Mrs. Jay Berry, Dr. and Mrs. Wayne Rosenkrantz and Dianna and Mrs. Russell McCoy, Mrs. Darrel Richards and Julia Anne, Mr. and Mrs. Mac McCoy and Mr. and Mrs. Warren McCoy.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Davis drove to Vancouver, Wn., and spent the week-end with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Gronquist.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren McCoy drove to Seattle to attend the Oregon State University of Washington football game. Their daughter, Susan McCoy, participated in the Oregon State marching band at half time. McCoy's drove back to Vancouver, Wash., and visited his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Mac McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Berg and Ronald and Mrs. Myrtle Markham.

Rev. and Mrs. DeRosso and family, formerly of Weston, visited the Irrigon Assembly of God church Sunday evening, and Rev. DeRosso gave the sermon.

Rites Held for Mrs. Mulkey
Funeral service for Mrs. Linda Lee Mulkey was at Burns Mortuary in Hermiston Monday, November 15, with the Rev. Eugene Hamblen officiating, and music by Merrill Womach. Linda is survived by her husband, Jerry Mulkey and their daughter, Sheila Rae, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. LaVern Christian, Irrigon; sisters, Mrs. Judy Creighton of Baker, Janet and Etta Lou, and a brother Darwin all of Irrigon. Concluding services were at Desert Lawn Memorial cemetery, Irrigon.

Menus at A. C. Houghton school for the week of November 22-26 are as follows: Monday—Sauerkraut and wieners, corn and applesauce; Tuesday—

Preparations are under way for the Kinzua Community church Christmas program which is scheduled for Sunday evening, December 19.

The 4-H cooking club, has been newly organized for their phase 2. Nine girls are enrolled and they meet every two weeks. Officers were chosen with Joyce Hatter as president; Dianna Meadows, vice president; Nancy Brittain, secretary-treasurer; Nancy Benson, song leader, and Linda Rice, reporter. Other girls belonging are Theresa Hyatt, Darla Brock, Debra Mathias, and Barbara Hatter. Leader of the group is Mrs. Wanita Hubbell. Their next lesson will be the making of a vegetable salad.

Preparations are under way for the Kinzua Community church Christmas program which is scheduled for Sunday evening, December 19.

The 4-H cooking club, has been newly organized for their phase 2. Nine girls are enrolled and they meet every two weeks. Officers were chosen with Joyce Hatter as president; Dianna Meadows, vice president; Nancy Brittain, secretary-treasurer; Nancy Benson, song leader, and Linda Rice, reporter. Other girls belonging are Theresa Hyatt, Darla Brock, Debra Mathias, and Barbara Hatter. Leader of the group is Mrs. Wanita Hubbell. Their next lesson will be the making of a vegetable salad.

The 4-H cooking club, has been newly organized for their phase 2. Nine girls are enrolled and they meet every two weeks. Officers were chosen with Joyce Hatter as president; Dianna Meadows, vice president; Nancy Brittain, secretary-treasurer; Nancy Benson, song leader, and Linda Rice, reporter. Other girls belonging are Theresa Hyatt, Darla Brock, Debra Mathias, and Barbara Hatter. Leader of the group is Mrs. Wanita Hubbell. Their next lesson will be the making of a vegetable salad.

The 4-H cooking club, has been newly organized for their phase 2. Nine girls are enrolled and they meet every two weeks. Officers were chosen with Joyce Hatter as president; Dianna Meadows, vice president; Nancy Brittain, secretary-treasurer; Nancy Benson, song leader, and Linda Rice, reporter. Other girls belonging are Theresa Hyatt, Darla Brock, Debra Mathias, and Barbara Hatter. Leader of the group is Mrs. Wanita Hubbell. Their next lesson will be the making of a vegetable salad.

The 4-H cooking club, has been newly organized for their phase 2. Nine girls are enrolled and they meet every two weeks. Officers were chosen with Joyce Hatter as president; Dianna Meadows, vice president; Nancy Brittain, secretary-treasurer; Nancy Benson, song leader, and Linda Rice, reporter. Other girls belonging are Theresa Hyatt, Darla Brock, Debra Mathias, and Barbara Hatter. Leader of the group is Mrs. Wanita Hubbell. Their next lesson will be the making of a vegetable salad.

The 4-H cooking club, has been newly organized for their phase 2. Nine girls are enrolled and they meet every two weeks. Officers were chosen with Joyce Hatter as president; Dianna Meadows, vice president; Nancy Brittain, secretary-treasurer; Nancy Benson, song leader, and Linda Rice, reporter. Other girls belonging are Theresa Hyatt, Darla Brock, Debra Mathias, and Barbara Hatter. Leader of the group is Mrs. Wanita Hubbell. Their next lesson will be the making of a vegetable salad.

The 4-H cooking club, has been newly organized for their phase 2. Nine girls are enrolled and they meet every two weeks. Officers were chosen with Joyce Hatter as president; Dianna Meadows, vice president; Nancy Brittain, secretary-treasurer; Nancy Benson, song leader, and Linda Rice, reporter. Other girls belonging are Theresa Hyatt, Darla Brock, Debra Mathias, and Barbara Hatter. Leader of the group is Mrs. Wanita Hubbell. Their next lesson will be the making of a vegetable salad.

The 4-H cooking club, has been newly organized for their phase 2. Nine girls are enrolled and they meet every two weeks. Officers were chosen with Joyce Hatter as president; Dianna Meadows, vice president; Nancy Brittain, secretary-treasurer; Nancy Benson, song leader, and Linda Rice, reporter. Other girls belonging are Theresa Hyatt, Darla Brock, Debra Mathias, and Barbara Hatter. Leader of the group is Mrs. Wanita Hubbell. Their next lesson will be the making of a vegetable salad.

The 4-H cooking club, has been newly organized for their phase 2. Nine girls are enrolled and they meet every two weeks. Officers were chosen with Joyce Hatter as president; Dianna Meadows, vice president; Nancy Brittain, secretary-treasurer; Nancy Benson, song leader, and Linda Rice, reporter. Other girls belonging are Theresa Hyatt, Darla Brock, Debra Mathias, and Barbara Hatter. Leader of the group is Mrs. Wanita Hubbell. Their next lesson will be the making of a vegetable salad.

The 4-H cooking club, has been newly organized for their phase 2. Nine girls are enrolled and they meet every two weeks. Officers were chosen with Joyce Hatter as president; Dianna Meadows, vice president; Nancy Brittain, secretary-treasurer; Nancy Benson, song leader, and Linda Rice, reporter. Other girls belonging are Theresa Hyatt, Darla Brock, Debra Mathias, and Barbara Hatter. Leader of the group is Mrs. Wanita Hubbell. Their next lesson will be the making of a vegetable salad.

The 4-H cooking club, has been newly organized for their phase 2. Nine girls are enrolled and they meet every two weeks. Officers were chosen with Joyce Hatter as president; Dianna Meadows, vice president; Nancy Brittain, secretary-treasurer; Nancy Benson, song leader, and Linda Rice, reporter. Other girls belonging are Theresa Hyatt, Darla Brock, Debra Mathias, and Barbara Hatter. Leader of the group is Mrs. Wanita Hubbell. Their next lesson will be the making of a vegetable salad.

The 4-H cooking club, has been newly organized for their phase 2. Nine girls are enrolled and they meet every two weeks. Officers were chosen with Joyce Hatter as president; Dianna Meadows, vice president; Nancy Brittain, secretary-treasurer; Nancy Benson, song leader, and Linda Rice, reporter. Other girls belonging are Theresa Hyatt, Darla Brock, Debra Mathias, and Barbara Hatter. Leader of the group is Mrs. Wanita Hubbell. Their next lesson will be the making of a vegetable salad.

The 4-H cooking club, has been newly organized for their phase 2. Nine girls are enrolled and they meet every two weeks. Officers were chosen with Joyce Hatter as president; Dianna Meadows, vice president; Nancy Brittain, secretary-treasurer; Nancy Benson, song leader, and Linda Rice, reporter. Other girls belonging are Theresa Hyatt, Darla Brock, Debra Mathias, and Barbara Hatter. Leader of the group is Mrs. Wanita Hubbell. Their next lesson will be the making of a vegetable salad.

The 4-H cooking club, has been newly organized for their phase 2. Nine girls are enrolled and they meet every two weeks. Officers were chosen with Joyce Hatter as president; Dianna Meadows, vice president; Nancy Brittain, secretary-treasurer; Nancy Benson, song leader, and Linda Rice, reporter. Other girls belonging are Theresa Hyatt, Darla Brock, Debra Mathias, and Barbara Hatter. Leader of the group is Mrs. Wanita Hubbell. Their next lesson will be the making of a vegetable salad.

The 4-H cooking club, has been newly organized for their phase 2. Nine girls are enrolled and they meet every two weeks. Officers were chosen with Joyce Hatter as president; Dianna Meadows, vice president; Nancy Brittain, secretary-treasurer; Nancy Benson, song leader, and Linda Rice, reporter. Other girls belonging are Theresa Hyatt, Darla Brock, Debra Mathias, and Barbara Hatter. Leader of the group is Mrs. Wanita Hubbell. Their next lesson will be the making of a vegetable salad.

The 4-H cooking club, has been newly organized for their phase 2. Nine girls are enrolled and they meet every two weeks. Officers were chosen with Joyce Hatter as president; Dianna Meadows, vice president; Nancy Brittain, secretary-treasurer; Nancy Benson, song leader, and Linda Rice, reporter. Other girls belonging are Theresa Hyatt, Darla Brock, Debra Mathias, and Barbara Hatter. Leader of the group is Mrs. Wanita Hubbell. Their next lesson will be the making of a vegetable salad.

Princess Reports at Grange

By DELPHA JONES

LEXINGTON—Lexington Grange No. 726 met at the hall for its regular meeting on Saturday evening. The meeting started with the program, which consisted of movies by Ginger Majeke and a very interesting talk on her activities last summer as Morrow County Fair and Rodeo princess. She was assisted by her father, Gene Majeke.

Following the program, the meeting was held, with Kenneth Smouse as acting Master. Main business of the evening was the election of officers. The following were elected: Charles C. Jones, master; Edward L. Hunt, overseer; Kenneth Smouse, secretary; Jean Nelson, treasurer; Delpha Jones, lecturer.

Roast turkey and dressing, mashed potatoes and gravy, cranberry sauce, celery sticks, salad and pumpkin tarts; Wednesday—Meatloaf, grapefruit, buttered peas and strawberry shortcake. School will be dismissed Thursday and Friday for the Thanksgiving holiday. All meals are served with bread and butter and milk.

A ladies black coat, left at A. C. Houghton school after the recent Pomona Grange meeting, may be claimed in the office.

J. W. Higgins of Kellogg, Idaho, is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. C. Anderson.

Rev. and Mrs. John H. Kenney, pastor of the Irrigon Assembly of God church, and several members of the congregation attended a District Fellowship meeting at Pilot Rock Monday. Meetings and the potluck meal were in the Community Building.

Mrs. Rose Swinden of Birmingham, England is visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Beinbauer and family. This was the first time Mrs. Swinden had seen her grandson John, youngest of the Beinbauer's four sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Rees Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Stephens attended and participated in a Veterans Day Parade in Milton-Freewater Veterans' Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colley have had as guests this past week Mr. and Mrs. Art Schmock from Rogue River.

Mrs. Bertha Hunt returned home Friday after a week spent in Beaverton with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hunt and children. She returned home with the family who remained for the week-end, and other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Waddill of Oregon City. The men enjoyed some elk hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colley have had as guests this past week Mr. and Mrs. Art Schmock from Rogue River.

Mrs. Bertha Hunt returned home Friday after a week spent in Beaverton with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hunt and children. She returned home with the family who remained for the week-end, and other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Waddill of Oregon City. The men enjoyed some elk hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colley have had as guests this past week Mr. and Mrs. Art Schmock from Rogue River.

Mrs. Bertha Hunt returned home Friday after a week spent in Beaverton with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hunt and children. She returned home with the family who remained for the week-end, and other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Waddill of Oregon City. The men enjoyed some elk hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colley have had as guests this past week Mr. and Mrs. Art Schmock from Rogue River.

Mrs. Bertha Hunt returned home Friday after a week spent in Beaverton with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hunt and children. She returned home with the family who remained for the week-end, and other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Waddill of Oregon City. The men enjoyed some elk hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colley have had as guests this past week Mr. and Mrs. Art Schmock from Rogue River.

Mrs. Bertha Hunt returned home Friday after a week spent in Beaverton with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hunt and children. She returned home with the family who remained for the week-end, and other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Waddill of Oregon City. The men enjoyed some elk hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colley have had as guests this past week Mr. and Mrs. Art Schmock from Rogue River.

Mrs. Bertha Hunt returned home Friday after a week spent in Beaverton with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hunt and children. She returned home with the family who remained for the week-end, and other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Waddill of Oregon City. The men enjoyed some elk hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colley have had as guests this past week Mr. and Mrs. Art Schmock from Rogue River.

Mrs. Bertha Hunt returned home Friday after a week spent in Beaverton with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hunt and children. She returned home with the family who remained for the week-end, and other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Waddill of Oregon City. The men enjoyed some elk hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colley have had as guests this past week Mr. and Mrs. Art Schmock from Rogue River.

Mrs. Bertha Hunt returned home Friday after a week spent in Beaverton with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hunt and children. She returned home with the family who remained for the week-end, and other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Waddill of Oregon City. The men enjoyed some elk hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colley have had as guests this past week Mr. and Mrs. Art Schmock from Rogue River.

Mrs. Bertha Hunt returned home Friday after a week spent in Beaverton with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hunt and children. She returned home with the family who remained for the week-end, and other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Waddill of Oregon City. The men enjoyed some elk hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colley have had as guests this past week Mr. and Mrs. Art Schmock from Rogue River.

Mrs. Bertha Hunt returned home Friday after a week spent in Beaverton with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hunt and children. She returned home with the family who remained for the week-end, and other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Waddill of Oregon City. The men enjoyed some elk hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colley have had as guests this past week Mr. and Mrs. Art Schmock from Rogue River.

Mrs. Bertha Hunt returned home Friday after a week spent in Beaverton with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hunt and children. She returned home with the family who remained for the week-end, and other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Waddill of Oregon City. The men enjoyed some elk hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colley have had as guests this past week Mr. and Mrs. Art Schmock from Rogue River.

er; Marie Steagall, chaplain; Gene Majeke, steward; Fred Nelson, gatekeeper; Joe and Hilda Yocom, assistant steward and lady assistant; Nora Turner, Cores; Alice Majeke, Pomona, and Ola, Ruggles, Flora.

It was announced that the Grange is sponsoring a box of gifts for the Eastern Oregon State hospital and all gifts are to be left unwrapped at Del's Market before December 1, when they will be picked up and delivered to the hospital.

Date of the next regular Grange meeting was changed from December 11 to December 18. Installation for the Granges of the county is planned for December 11 at the Lexington hall. The meeting of the 18th will start with a potluck dinner at 6:30 and the Christmas party following.

Adding to the enjoyment of the last meeting was a display table of favorite antiques brought by members from their homes. A variety of about 25 items were of historical interest to those attending.

Holly Lodge Has Election
At the regular meeting of Holly Rebekah lodge last Thursday evening, officers were elected, which will take office at the first meeting in January. They are Mrs. Charles Padberg, noble grand; Mrs. Joe Yocom, vice grand; Mrs. Charles C. Jones, secretary; Mrs. Alonzo Henderson, treasurer, and Mrs. Archie Munkers, board member. Refreshments were served following the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colley have had as guests this past week Mr. and Mrs. Art Schmock from Rogue River.

Mrs. Bertha Hunt returned home Friday after a week spent in Beaverton with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hunt and children. She returned home with the family who remained for the week-end, and other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Waddill of Oregon City. The men enjoyed some elk hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colley have had as guests this past week Mr. and Mrs. Art Schmock from Rogue River.

Mrs. Bertha Hunt returned home Friday after a week spent in Beaverton with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hunt and children. She returned home with the family who remained for the week-end, and other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Waddill of Oregon City. The men enjoyed some elk hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colley have had as guests this past week Mr. and Mrs. Art Schmock from Rogue River.

Mrs. Bertha Hunt returned home Friday after a week spent in Beaverton with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hunt and children. She returned home with the family who remained for the week-end, and other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Waddill of Oregon City. The men enjoyed some elk hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colley have had as guests this past week Mr. and Mrs. Art Schmock from Rogue River.

Mrs. Bertha Hunt returned home Friday after a week spent in Beaverton with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hunt and children. She returned home with the family who remained for the week-end, and other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Waddill of Oregon City. The men enjoyed some elk hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colley have had as guests this past week Mr. and Mrs. Art Schmock from Rogue River.

Mrs. Bertha Hunt returned home Friday after a week spent in Beaverton with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hunt and children. She returned home with the family who remained for the week-end, and other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Waddill of Oregon City. The men enjoyed some elk hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colley have had as guests this past week Mr. and Mrs. Art Schmock from Rogue River.