

Smiths Greet Friends On 25th Anniversary At New Ranch Home

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Smith were at home Sunday afternoon, November 21, to a large number of friends and relatives who called to extend their congratulations to them on their 25th wedding anniversary, and to compliment them upon their recently completed new ranch home near Ione.

The combination anniversary reception and housewarming was planned by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Snow, and assisted by friends, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lindsay and Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Townsend.

Harvey and Virginia (Wilson) Smith were married Nov. 22, 1940, in California. The bride was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson, who had lived many years in the Ione community. The newlyweds came to Ione after their marriage and have since been engaged in farming, and have been active in community affairs.

The refreshment table featured a pink and silver decorative theme. A beautiful floral centerpiece of pink chrysanthemums, accented by silver bows, was flanked by silver tapers and silver service. The centerpiece was presented to them by Mrs. Victor Rietmann.

A three-tiered white anniversary cake, decorated with pink frosting, rosebuds and silver leaves, was topped with a large silver "25". After the honored couple had cut the first piece the cake was served by Mrs. Cecil Thorne of Hermiston and Mrs. Carl Rhea of Lexington.

Pouring tea and coffee were Mrs. Ted Smith of Heppner, sister-in-law of the honored pair, and by Mrs. Lawrence Jones of Ione.

Punch was served by Miss Jeri Snow, granddaughter of the Smiths. Miss Marianne Petty-John passed the guest book, which held signatures of about 50 guests.

Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Earl McCabe and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, both of Ione.

A novel turkey fashioned from a large cone by Mrs. Ernie Winchester of Heppner was presented the honored couple. Nestled in the pine cone were money gifts from their many friends. In addition they were presented with other lovely gifts.

Following the reception hours, Mr. and Mrs. Smith were hosts to 16 guests, who stayed to enjoy a buffet supper together.

GIVE A GIFT certificate subscription to Gazette-Times for birthdays, anniversaries or any occasion; $4.50 anywhere.

SOCIETY

Retired Teachers Set Pilot Rock Meeting

Meeting of the Morrow and Umatilla Counties Retired Teacher's Association will be Saturday, December 4, at the home of the president, Mrs. Earl Colberg, 148 S. E. Cherry St., Pilot Rock (across from the high school).

A potluck dinner will be served at noon for all members and associate members, with coffee, rolls and table service supplied by the hostess. Those attending are asked to bring a gift for the Eastern Oregon State hospital, according to Mrs. Rees Morgan of Irigton.

Friday Night Date Set for Wedding

A public invitation is extended friends and relatives in the area to attend the double wedding ceremony Friday evening, November 26, of Miss Anita Groves to Daryl Dick, and of Miss Marcia Rands to David George.

Vows will be exchanged at All Saints Episcopal church, Heppner, at 7:00 p.m., with the Rev. Chandler Jackson of Hermiston performing the double ceremonies.

All four of the young people are graduates of Heppner High school and are enrolled in colleges in Oregon.

Reception Saturday To Honor Swansons

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Swanson will entertain at a reception on Saturday afternoon, November 27, in honor of their son and his new bride, Mr. and Mrs. John E. (Kathleen McMahon) Swanson, who were married November 13 in Portland.

The family extends a cordial invitation to friends and relatives in the area to call at the Swanson home between the hours of 2:00 and 5:00 p.m. and greet the newlyweds.

Daughter Welcomed By Gerald Roods

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Rood have welcomed into their home a little 3½-year-old daughter, Susan Deann.

The striking, little brown-eyed miss was brought to her new home last Wednesday, and is very excited about getting acquainted and making new friends here.

Preparations Develop For Club's Christmas Show at Lexington

Interest is developing in plans and arrangements for the Christmas Show and Silver Tea, to be sponsored by the Ione Garden club Saturday and Sunday afternoons, December 4 and 5. Setting for the show will be the Rebekah Hall in Lexington, with hours on Saturday from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. and on Sunday from 12:00 to 5:00 p.m.

The show will center around the theme, "Everywhere, Everywhere, Christmas," and is aimed at giving individuals of all ages, as well as community organizations that are interested, an opportunity to share ideas which would add beauty through home decorations for the coming holiday season.

Anyone is invited to enter an exhibit, with entries to be received December 3 from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m., and on December 4 from 8:00 to 10:00 a.m. at the Lexington hall. Entries are to be removed after 5:00 p.m. on December 5. Judging will begin at 11:00 a.m. December 4, with ribbons to be given for first, second and third prizes in each division and sweepstakes prize for the exhibitor winning the most blue ribbons in both adult and junior divisions.

Included in the schedule of entries, are divisions which will feature decorated trees, nativity scenes, arrangements using religious symbols, wreaths, swags, wall decorations, corsages, package gift wrappings, table settings for various holiday occasions, and various accessories.

The show will be free to the public, and there will be no sale items. A silver tea will be served for those who wish it.

Further information may be obtained from Mrs. Phill Emert, general chairman, or Mrs. William Rawlins, schedule chairman.

Mrs. Hager Enjoys Trip to East Coast

Mrs. Emma Hager returned home Saturday after a five weeks trip to Washington, D.C., and Virginia to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Col. Clayton A. Shaw, and family.

She traveled all through Virginia during the visit, seeing the historical towns of Jamestown, Williamsburg and other memorable places. She also visited in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Hager said she had a "wonderful flight" both ways on the air trip and everything contributed to a very enjoyable time.

OEA Commends Mrs. Gunderson For Past Service

IONE—The Morrow County OEA meeting was held Monday evening in the Ione School cafeteria. During the banquet, which was served by the Ione PTA, Larry and Gene Rietmann entertained with musical numbers on the piano, melodica, and saxophone. Bonnie Lynd, accompanied by Susan Jane Jepsen, sang a solo.

Mrs. Eddie (Beverly) Gunderson was presented a plaque of appreciation from the association for her fine work as clerk of the Morrow County School Board for many years. She also received several letters of commendation from school administrators with whom she had been associated.

Jack Loyd, president, presided over the business meeting. Some minor changes to the constitution were discussed.

Tables for the eighty or more guests, including the Morrow county school board members, were decorated in a Thanksgiving theme. Girls of the high school home economics class served.

Serving as chairman of the dinner committee was Mrs. Herbert Peterson. She was assisted by Mrs. Ernest Christopherson, Mrs. Donald Peterson, Mrs. Robert Rietmann, Mrs. Robert Davidson, Mrs. Paul Tews, and Mrs. Keith Rea.

Legion Groups Plan for Events

By MARTHA MATTESON

MONUMENT—American Legion and Auxiliary, Post No. 148, met last Thursday evening at their hall. Plans were made for the "Gay '90" dance on January 22. The Christmas family party was planned for Thursday, December 16. A potluck dinner will be served at 6:30, followed by the arrival of Santa.

The auxiliary held a food sale Saturday at Boyer's store and is now making cookies to send across to the boys in Vietnam for Christmas.

Maynard Hamilton came home Sunday after spending a week at Boise, Idaho, where he had visited his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Banta, a niece, Dorothy Merrill, a nephew, Maynard Banta, his wife and son James, who is on leave from the Marines at Chincquapin, N. C.

Mrs. George Stiritz and Laura Lee Shank spent a day last week in John Day visiting Mrs. Stiritz's sister, Mrs. Ofie Stewart.

On November 19 the George Stiritz had a birthday dinner at their home honoring their granddaughter, Laura Lee Shank. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shank, Mr. and Mrs. Tunis Rounds, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Ogle and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Harris and family and Henry Durst.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shank returned November 19 from a week's vacation to Fall River Mills, Calif., where they visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Creighton. They also visited her brother, Alva Osborne and family in Reno, Nev.

Verne McCarty drove to Heppner Monday, taking his father there for medical aid.

Mr. and Mrs. Ansil Martin and two sons of Prineville spent the week-end here visiting her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Johnson, her sister, Mrs. Francis Nolan and children.

Mrs. Al Ullman Enjoys Visit Here

Mrs. Al (Anita) Ullman spent last week here as the guest of Mrs. Amanda Duvall. They called on many friends while she was here.

Mrs. Duvall took her to Portland on Thursday and on Friday they went on to Eugene and were present at the banquet of the Association of Oregon Counties that evening where Congressman Ullman was guest speaker.

On Saturday he attended the University of Oregon Oregon State University football game, and the ladies came back to Portland and did some shopping.

Congressman Ullman joined them that evening and on Sunday the Ullmans left by jet airplane for Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Duvall returned home.

Need extra cash? Sell unused items around your place with a Gazette-Times classified ad.

Linn Discusses Mental Health

By VIRGINIA KELSO

KINZUA—Dr. John Linn of Condon gave the second in his series of lectures on "Mental Health" at the Kinzua Grade school last Monday evening.

These are very interesting lectures and the next one will be the third Monday in January at the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Arna Slinkard of Klamath Falls spent the week-end here visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Slinkard and son Mike and with other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Delbert Barzee and daughters Cheryl and Joyce and Mrs. Paul Oyler spent the week-end at Bates visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Ziemmer and family.

Mrs. Harvey Spivey has received word that her son Bill Roberts who is stationed at Moffett Field, Calif., has been promoted to plane captain over TR 33.

Mrs. William Bell and son Brian of The Dalles visited last Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Alan Guinn and family.

In Condon Friday on business were Mrs. Bert Hoover and Mrs. Carl Miller of Fossil. Also there were Mr. and Mrs. Clay Phillips.

Attending Ladies Night at the Condon Elks club last Thursday night were Mrs. Steve Conlee, Mrs. Ernie Schell, Mrs. Don Slinkard and Mrs. Robert Kelso. Mrs. Conlee was the fortunate winner of the door prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Britt returned home Thursday from a weeks vacation and hunting trip to the Tollgate area. They had left their children with Mr. and Mrs. Homer Bowman.

Mrs. William Stephens of Prineville visited Tuesday night here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Benson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reavis spent last week-end transacting business at Sunnyside, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Conner of Baker visited last Wednesday and Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Verlin Conner and family.

Stanley Benson who recently completed his basic training at Fort Ord, Calif., arrived home last Sunday for a two weeks leave. When he returns to Fort Ord he is transferring to the Airborne branch of the service.

The Doubledeck club was entertained Wednesday evening with Mrs. Virginia Kelso as hostess. High was won by Vonnie Browning, low by Marge Asher, and floating by Virginia Sifton and Kathryn Flack. Grand high for the series was won by Marge Asher and grand low by Vonnie Browning. Others playing were Helen Wright, Rita Conlee, and Marj Boring. Mrs. Bert Hoover went to Pendleton last Wednesday to attend a postmaster's meeting concerning the handling of Christmas mail. She was accompanied by Mrs. Lee Hoover and daughter Peggy Jo of Fossil.

Mrs. Jiggs Bowman went to Heppner Friday to get Mr. Bowman who had spent several days as a patient at the Pioneer Memorial hospital.

Mrs. Steve Conlee was hostess last Wednesday afternoon to a birthday party for her son Gene on his first birthday. After the youngsters played a while, birthday cake and ice cream were served to Gene, Sheri McMinn, Bobby Hulett, Mike Rice, Helen and Mary Graham.

When you patronize Gazette-Times advertisers, you help make a better paper. Tell them you saw it in the Gazette-Times.

2 PIECE SAUCE SET $1.50

to introduce Juliette

Silverplated Juliette ladle paired with 6 1/2" clear glass bowl. Exceptionally versatile.

THE INTERNATIONAL SILVER COMPANY

"Something from the jeweler's is always something special."

Peterson's JEWELERS

Store Hours: 9 A. M. To 6 P. M.

PH. 676-9200

177 MAIN ST. HEPPNER

BLOOD NEEDED!

Do Your Part!

Give A Pint At BLOOD DRAWING

3 to 6 p.m.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 29

Heppner Elks' Temple

FREE CANTEEN SERVICE

If convenient, make appointments in advance by calling Mrs. Orville Cutsforth (676-9436) or Heppner Elk's Temple (676-8993). However, appointments are not essential.

THE BLOODMOBILE IS COMING

THIS MESSAGE SPONSORED BY YOUR HOME-OWNED BANK AS A COMMUNITY SERVICE

BANK OF Eastern Oregon

HEPPNER BRANCH
HEPPNER—ARLINGTON—IONE
MEMBER, FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

POWER CONTROL

ELECTRIC MOTOR SERVICE

WE REPAIR:
• Electric Motors
• Power Tools
• Hydraulic Jacks
• Alemtle Equipment

421 S. E. 4th Pendleton
Phone 276-5962

THANKSGIVING

TO YOU AND YOUR FAMILY... HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

Bring on the turkey and all the trimmings... it's time for fun and feasting. It's time to be thankful, too, and to our "family" of fine customers, we say a grateful and sincere "Thank You."

