C. Crawford; treasurer, Mrs. James Lindsay; secretary, Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen; gate keeper, Richard Kinzer, ceres, Mrs. Marion Palmer; pomona, Mrs. Berl Akers; flora, Mrs. Arthur Dalzell; lady assistant steward, Mrs. Cleo Childers; musician, Mrs. Leo Crabtree. The executive committee includes Berl Akers, W. C. Crawford, and Carl Troedson.

Congratulations and a 'thank you" were extended to Mrs. Crawford, who has served Willows Grange as chaplain for 17 years, with very few absences.

All subordinate Grange officers in the county are invited to a joint installation with Pomona officers at Lexington Grange hall on December 11 at 10:30 a.m. State Deputy Cabel will officiate.

The Grange thanks the United Church of Christ for the pews donated to the organization.

The next regular Grange meeting will be in the evening of December 11. A Christmas program will be presented by members of Rainbow Assembly No. 89.

HEC Chooses Officers

The newly elected officers of the Home Economics club are Mrs. Marion Palmer, chairman; Mrs. Lee Palmer, vice-chairman; Mrs. Arthur Dalzell, secretary; and Mrs. Berl Akers, treasurer. At the meeting held on Friday, members bought Christmas gifts to be sent to the Eastern Oregon hospital patients in Pendleton.

The next meeting will be Friday, December 17, at the home of Mrs. Lee Palmer with Mrs. Marion Palmer as co-hostess.

This is the Christmas party, and members will bring packages for exchange. Value is to be about $1.00. Names for secret pals will be drawn for the coming year. Installation of officers will be a feature of the meeting.

John Rea, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clell Rea, has been accepted for Job Corps. At present he is stationed at Tillamook.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Peterson over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Anderson and family of Troutdale, cousins of Mrs. Peterson's. They all attended the football game on Saturday, when Reynolds High school successfully defeated Pendleton High school on the Pendleton field.

Masons Entertain Boys, Men Teachers at Dinner

Ione Lodge No. 120 A.F. & A.M. were hosts for a dinner on Wednesday evening honoring the high school boys and the men teachers. The ham dinner was prepared by members of Locust Chapter No. 120. Walter Jacobs, worshipful master, was master of ceremonies. Two movies were shown, "Northland Empire" and "Last of the Giants," a film on trains.

Rainbow girls, Susan Lindstrom, Bonnie Akers, Teresa Stefani, Tanya and Teresa Tucker, and Betty Greenup assisted with serving the banquet. Mrs. Holmes Gabbert and Mrs. James Barnet decorated the tables in a fall football motif. Mrs. Herbert Ekstrom, Jr., was chairman of the dinner and she was aided by Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, Mrs. Walter Jacobs, Mrs. Omar Rietmann, and Mrs. Berl Akers.

William C. Maness Dies in Portland

William C. Maness, 63, father of Mrs. Albert (Beverly) Wright of Heppner, died in a Portland hospital Saturday, November 13, following a short illness. He lived on route 2, Molalla.

Funeral services were Wednesday, November 17, at 2 p.m. at the Molalla chapel of Everhart and Kent. Interment was in the Adams cemetery of Molalla.

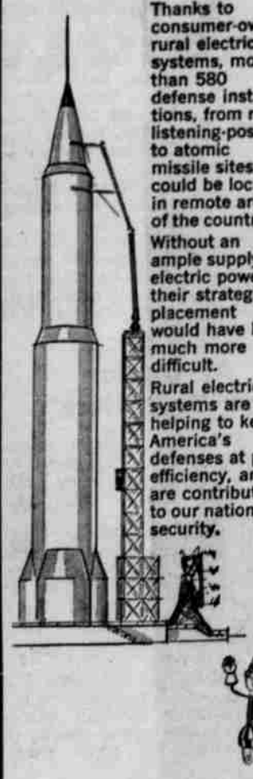
He was born in Oak Park, Minn., on February 5, 1902, and grew up there. After living in St. Paul, Minn., for many years where he worked as a steam engineer, he came to Oregon in 1941 and lived in Heppner before going to Molalla in 1953.

He had been a seaman in the merchant marine in recent years and retired in 1964. He was a member of the Molalla Saddle club and the Oregon Arabian Horse Breeders association.

He was married to Rose M. Wallace at Bowling Green, Ohio, November 27, 1948, and she survives.

Other survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Wright of Heppner and Mrs. Joe (Virginia) Krupicka of Molalla; a brother, Arthur Maness, of Clearwater, Minn.; three sisters, Mrs. Lillie Flynn of Clearwater, Sally Moran of San Diego, Calif., Mrs. Frances Aanonson of Frederick, Wis., and seven grandchildren.

A STRONG AMERICA with Rural Electricity...



Thanks to consumer-owned rural electric systems, more than 580 defense installations, from radar listening-posts to atomic missile sites, could be located in remote areas of the country.

Without an ample supply of electric power, their strategic placement would have been much more difficult.

Rural electric systems are helping to keep America's defenses at peak efficiency, and are contributing to our national security.

John Cole Named Service All-Star

John F. Cole, fireman apprentice in the Navy, has been selected as first string defensive linebacker on the 11th Naval District All-Star football team, according to the personnel office of the Service School Command, U. S. Naval Training Center, San Diego, Calif.

At the school, he served his team as co-captain for the first part of the year. Since he is being transferred to the Great Lakes Naval Training Center, he was unable to complete the season.

Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cole of Portland, was in Heppner on leave prior to assuming his new assignment over the week-end, visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Don Clark and family, with whom he lived for two years while completing high school.

He left Monday for Portland to visit his parents and expected to go to the Great Lakes station December 3.

Cole graduated from Heppner High in the spring of 1964 and was all-conference center in football in his senior year.

He attended Blue Mountain College for one year before entering service. He said that after four months at Great Lakes he may apply for officer's training school in the navy.

At Great Lakes he will take 15 weeks of school for machinist's mate, and then will attend submarine school and nuclear power school before he gets into the Nuclear Submarine Fleet.

John said that he had gained some weight since high school days and scaled 180 lbs. in playing the linebacker spot. The training school team played teams in the marines, submarine teams and others. In a league of 10 teams, it finished in a 3-way tie for last place.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sparks of Clatskanie and Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Ostrander and family of McMinnville were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Palmer during the past week-end.

Alumni News

Wayne Evans is playing on the Freshman basketball team at OSU. Stuart Dick is playing on the junior varsity at EOC. David George has made the varsity at Blue Mountain.

Word from Africa tells us that David and Kit Anderson are playing basketball with the International Secondary School at the University of Ibadan in Ibadan, Nigeria.

Marcia Rands and Dave George, and Anita Groves and Daryl Dick, all alumni of HHS, will take their marriage vows in a double wedding Friday.

Among students home last week-end were Karen McCurdy and her girl friend, Susan Russell of Portland. They are both freshmen at EOC.

Rockhound Corner

By RUBY MILLER

During the business meeting of the Morrow County Gem and Mineral Society on Saturday, November 20, ideas which would make the meetings more educational and informative were discussed.

Plans were made for the Christmas dinner, to be held at the Wagon Wheel on December 18. Officers will be elected at this time, and all members are urged to attend.

George Miller displayed several frames of agate cabachons and polished slabs of agate from Laguna, Mexico. Ruby Miller showed slides of their recent trip into Canada, Minnesota, South Dakota and Wyoming.

Elwood Boyd furnished the refreshments and the door prize, a gift-wrapped 12x12x14 inch box containing a basalt rock weighing 33 pounds, packed in wads of newspaper. In the smallest one was a nice tie tack, made of petrified wood. We had fun opening it.

Medical Careers Call 3 Seniors

Three HHS seniors who are planning a medical career are Mark Murray, Tim Driscoll and Susan Drake.

Mark, who intends to go into the pharmacy business, acfrom his father who owns and quired his interest in pharmacy runs Murray's Rexall Drug in Heppner. Tim also plans to become a pharmacist.

The third student who plans to go into the field of medicine is Susan Drake, who wants to become a nurse.

Weightlifting Class Starts In Boys' PE

HHS boys in physical education classes have been lifting weights during P. E. period. Weight lifting is required for the freshman and sophomore classes.

Although it is not required in the upper classes a large number of boys turn out for the weight lifting. The purpose of this activity is to make men out of the boys, under the supervision of Don McClure.

Don Munkers, a freshman at EOC, was visiting his home here last week-end.
