Cardinals Drop Two League Games Over Weekend

Hot shooting of Mike Smith and a good night at the free throw line gave Riverside High a 64 to 59 basketball victory over Ione on the Cardinals court Friday night.

At Weston Saturday night the lone five lost another when its shooting dropped to 28% as against 42% for Weston. Final score was 51 to 38.

In the Friday game, Riverside pulled to an early lead with Smith leading the way. Ione surged to close the gap to one point in the fourth quarter after they had trailed at half-time, 33 to 22.

But the Cards lost Mark Halvorsen, Jay Ball and Wes Holstein on personals, and the Pirates pulled away again. The Cards were charged with 21 personals to 11 for Riverside. The visitors hit 16 of 31 tries from the charity stripe while Ione got only five of 13.

Stan Holstein of the Cards led all scoring with 21 and Halvorsen brought down 17 rebounds to lead that department.

At Weston, Coach Gene Dockter's team trailed 23-16 at the half but came to within four points at the end of the third, 34 to 30. The winners pulled away in the final stanza with Halvorsen again going out on fouls.
