

Year's Activities; Name New Officers

A year of activities for the Morrow County CowBelles was reviewed by committee chairmen at the annual December business meeting of the organization, and officers for the coming year were selected.

The annual meeting was called to order by Mrs. Ralph Beamer, last year's president, at a luncheon meeting at the Heppner Grill.

A nominating committee presented the following slate of new officers: Mrs. Wavel Wilkinson, president; Mrs. Walter Wright, first vice president; second vice president to be chosen; Mrs. Larry Lindsay, third vice president, and Mrs. Marjorie Worden, secretary-treasurer.

Before Mrs. Wilkinson was presented the gavel as new president, Mrs. Beamer expressed her appreciation to members for the cooperation which she had received during the past year, and special thanks to officers and those who had served as chairmen of committees.

As chairman of the 4-H committee, Mrs. Bernard Doherty reported that a memorial fund had been established with the 4-H Council as a tribute to John Graves, and a donation was voted to the fund.

The sale of beef certificates is promoted by the club, with special promotion during the pre-Christmas season. They are on sale throughout the year at the First National Bank and are redeemable at any store throughout the nation.

Mrs. Wilkinson appointed the following committee chairmen for the coming year: Mrs. Raymond French, budget; Mrs. Doherty, 4-H; Mrs. Larry Lindsay, father of the year; Mrs. Shirley Rugg, beef in the school; Mrs. Gerald Swaggart, beef for Father's Day; Mrs. Worden, beef certificates, and Mrs. Walter Wright, beef promotion.

Neill Families Hold Reunion in Hermiston

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Neill were among 38 relatives who met at the Civic Recreation Center in Hermiston December 31 for a big family reunion. Originally planned for the W. D. Neill home in Hermiston, the large gathering moved to the larger meeting place.

The Neills had also enjoyed other holiday family gatherings, welcoming the families of their children, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Scott and family and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Baker and children to their home on Thursday evening before Christmas, and then traveled to Salem on Friday to spend Christmas with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Kinton. They also visited another son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Knight in Kennewick, Wn., during the holidays.

Garden Club to Meet At Lundell Home

An interesting program is planned for the January meeting of the Ione Garden club, Tuesday afternoon, January 11, at the home of Mrs. Mary Lundell in Ione.

Theme of the program will be "Oriental Gardens," with a guest speaker, who will also show colored slides related to the topic.

The afternoon program will start at 2:00 p.m.

MISS SHARON KAY HAMS

Parents Announce Couple's Betrothal

Mr. and Mrs. Darold Hams are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Sharon Kay, to Jay Ball, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Ball of Heppner.

Sharon was a graduate of Heppner High school in 1965, and is presently enrolled at the Portland Beauty Academy.

Ball was also graduated from Heppner High school with the class of 1965, and plans to enter service in the navy.

No wedding date has been set.

Altar Society Sets Card Party, Coffee

Plans for a public card party and for a coffee hour were made at the regular meeting of St. Patrick's Altar Society Tuesday evening, January 4, in the parish hall with Mrs. Randy Lott presiding.

The card party will be January 31 in the parish hall with pinocle and bridge in play. The coffee hour will honor incoming and outgoing officers at the February meeting. An exchange student Lars Johanson, of Sweden will also be contacted to show slides and give a talk about his native land.

The Holy Names breakfast will be served Sunday by Mrs. Joe Balfe, Mrs. John Privett, Mrs. John Mollahan and Mrs. Jerry Sweeney.

At the January meeting each member brought a "white elephant" to be used for prizes for games which were played following the meeting.

The door prize was won by Mrs. Elsie Mollahan. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Lott and Mrs. Wilbur Warden.

The society expresses thanks to all those who donated point-tittas at Christmas time.

Ruhls Entertain Holiday Visitors

The Christmas and New Year's holidays provided an occasion for relatives and friends to meet at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Ruhl. Here during their school vacation were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ruhl and daughter Dana, of Klamath Falls, who were also guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clint McQuarrie. Dick is head football coach at Henley High school in Klamath Falls.

The Ruhls were hosts on New Years for dinner and an afternoon of enjoying the televised football games. Together for the day were Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Hayes and Jay, Mr. and Mrs. Skip Ruhl and Cindy, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ruhl and Dana, Mr. and Mrs. McQuarrie, Mrs. Gene Gray and Florence, mother and sister of Mrs. L. E. Ruhl, and the hosts.

Mrs. Stratton Given Farewell Surprise

Mrs. Theta Stratton, who left January 2 for Eugene, had a doubly enjoyable evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. (Pete) McMurtry on December 30.

She was a dinner guest of the McMurtrys along with Bob Lowe. After the dinner, women of the Degree of Honor came for a farewell surprise party. She was given a gift in the nature of a money tree and enjoyed visiting with her friends. Thirteen were present.

Mrs. Stratton has accepted a position as a cook at a University of Oregon sorority house.

ertheless enjoyed a pleasant plane trip to California over the holidays in company with his son, Scott McMurdo of Portland. The two joined other relatives in the south and attended the Rose Bowl game in Pasadena. During his week's stay he visited two brothers in California and with a dentist son, Dr. Bernard McMurdo in Burlingame. He arrived back home early Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Marcel Jones is making satisfactory recovery at home following surgery and dismissal from St. Anthony hospital, Pendleton, on December 24. Although treatment requires daily trips to the hospital for X-ray therapy for three more weeks, she is convalescing satisfactorily and has expressed appreciation to her many friends for their kindnesses.
