

Rodeo Board Honors Jack Lockes Monday At Farewell Dinner

As a farewell tribute to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Locke, who are leaving this week to make their home near Gresham, a dinner was held in their honor Monday evening at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Dougherty. Locke was recently transferred to the Gresham Branch of First National Bank after serving the Heppner bank for the past 18 months.

Members of the Morrow County Rodeo Board and their wives were invited to the Dougherty home for a potluck dinner. The evening was highlighted with the presentation of a monogrammed desk pen set to Locke in appreciation of his work as secretary of the rodeo board, and a ladies leather wallet to Mrs. Locke for her able assistance to the secretary. Making the presentations was Tad Miller, president of the board. Replacing Locke as secretary will be John Venard.

Those enjoying the activities of the evening, besides the honored guests, were Mr. and Mrs. Charley Daly, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond French, Mr. and Mrs. Tad Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Steagall, Mr. and Mrs. Roice Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. Wes Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Munkers, Mr. and Mrs. Don Greenup, Mr. and Mrs. Venard, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Dougherty.

Mr. and Mrs. Locke and family are moving this week to their new home at 2421 N. E. 112th Avenue, Portland, and have extended their good wishes to their many friends whom they leave here, and invite friends to visit them at their new location.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM MAHON (Naomi Jean Harsin)

William Mahon Weds Naomi Jean Harsin In LaGrande Service

The sanctuary of the First Christian church in La Grande was the setting for the wedding of Miss Naomi Jean Harsin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Harsin of La Grande, to William Mahon, son of Mrs. Alice McCabe of Heppner, on November 20. The Rev. Al Boschee, pastor of the Heppner Christian church, performed the marriage ceremony.

Wedding music was played by Marilyn Archibald, who also accompanied the soloist, Jeffery Edwards.

Colorful flowers of the season decorated the altar. Jeffery Edwards served as candlelighter before the ceremony. Escorted by her father, Ivan Harsin, the bride was lovely in a white wedding gown of Chantilly rosepoint lace over tulle and satin. The gown featured a scalloped neckline etched in iridescent sequins, a basque bodice, long tapered sleeves which came to petal points over the wrist, and a bouffant floor length skirt made of rows of ruffled lace in front, with an apron effect of lace for the back detail. The shoulder length veil was held by a water lily shaped crown of seed pearls and crystal teardrops. A white orchid centered her bouquet of white carnations and white chrysanthemums.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her cousin, Miss Shelly Rae Haefel of Union. She was gowned in a tangerine all-over embroidered floor-length taffeta, and carried a bouquet of rust colored miniature chrysanthemums.

Harold Harsin, brother of the bride, served as best man. Ushers were Bobby Mahon, cousin of the groom, of Elgin, and Darwin Harsin, a brother of the bride, La Grande.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Harsin chose an emerald green two-piece silk suit with matching hat and black accessories, with which she wore a bronze colored chrysanthemum corsage.

Mrs. McCabe, mother of the groom, was attired in a beige knit suit, with brown accessories, and her corsage was of yellow chrysanthemums.

The guests assembled to greet the bridal party at a reception immediately following in the social hall of the church.

Mrs. Wilma Edwards and Mrs. Thelma Haefel, aunts of the bride, served the white, four-tiered wedding cake embellished with yellow and orange roses and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Don Eubanks of Lone, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Wayne Harsin of Heppner, aunt of the bride, poured.

Linda Chenault was in charge of the guest book; and sisters-in-law of the bride, Sue and Judi Harsin, presided at the gift table.

For their honeymoon to various points of interest in southern Oregon, the new Mrs. Mahon wore for traveling a two-piece lavender knit suit with black accessories, and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride attended the La Grande high school and the groom attended the Heppner high school. He is presently employed for the Boise Cascade Plywood Co. in Elgin. The young couple live in La Grande at 1604 1/2 First St.

Many friends and relatives attended from La Grande and Island City. Those attending from the Heppner area were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Harsin, Cindy and Kerry, Mrs. Alice McCabe and Allen, Mrs. Don Eubanks of Lone, and the Rev. and Mrs. Al Boschee.

Among the service men home for the Christmas holidays was Robert L. Nichols, now stationed at Ft. Benning, Ga., in Officer's Candidate school. He had previously spent three years in Germany. While here, he visited his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Mollahan, and his brother, Raymond Nichols. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Thorpe are now living in Banning, Calif.

Public Installation Set for New Rainbow Officers on Sunday

Miss Jan Hager, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hager, will be installed new worthy advisor of Ruth Assembly No. 50, Order of Rainbow for Girls, at public installation ceremonies on Sunday afternoon, January 15. The meeting is scheduled for 2:00 p.m. in the Heppner Masonic hall.

The assembly extends a special invitation to all Masons, Eastern Star members, their families and friends to attend the afternoon ceremony.

A complete slate of new officers and advisory board members will also take oath of office for the coming term.

Among recent honorees accorded Jan, the incoming advisor, was her selection as queen of the annual Christmas Ball on December 27 in the IOOF hall. Selection of the queen and court is by secret ballot of members at the meeting prior to the dance and kept secret by the advisory board and mother advisor until the crown is placed on the queen at intermission of the dance. Last year's queen was Miss Jean Siewert.

Princesses with Queen Jan were Janis Baker and Shirley Erwin. The court was presented lovely corsages by their mother advisor, Mrs. Tom Hughes.

MISS JUDITH HAMILTON

Judith Hamilton Engagement Told

Mrs. Betty Hamilton announces the engagement of her daughter, Judith Kay, to James Stuart Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Johnson of Portland. Miss Hamilton, a 1963 graduate of Heppner High school, attended Portland State College and Western Business University. She is now employed by the First National Bank of Oregon and State College where he is a senior in pre-law. He is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity. The future bridegroom is a former University of Oregon student, presently attending Portland State College. No date has been set for the wedding.
