

Officers Chosen to Head Lone Television Co-op

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE—Annual meeting of the Lone Television Co-op was held Monday evening at the Legion Hall. Roy W. Lindstrom was re-elected vice-president and Wallace Matthews and Garland Swanson were elected again to the board of directors. Hold-over officers are Bill Rietmann, president; Mrs. Vester Hams, secretary-treasurer; and E. W. Bristol and Ronald Bishop, directors.

Those winning free television service in a drawing were: Mrs. Howard Crowell, six months; Harvey Ring, four months; and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, two months. Thirteen pies were also given away for door prizes. A box of candy donated by Brittons was won by Mrs. Pete Cannon.

The senior class under the direction of their advisor, Bill Johnson, were selected by the co-op to serve the refreshments following the meeting.

Willows Installs Officers. Nine Candidates Given Degrees. More than 50 persons enjoyed the potluck dinner at Willows Grange Hall on Sunday, January 16.

Open installation was held for five officers not installed earlier. Nathan Thorpe, Morrow county deputy, acted as installing officer; Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, marshal, and Mr. and Mrs. Berl Akers as L.A.S. and A.S. The charter was draped in memory of George Elder.

Further business included the exemplification of the 3rd and 4th degrees to two candidates from Greenfield Grange, two from Lexington, two from Rhea Creek, and three from Willows Grange. Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen acted as master and Mrs. Marlon Palmer and Lee Palmer acted as assistant stewards.

Groves Construction Co. was given a contract to finish the main hall at the Grange. It is hoped the work will be completed in about 30 days.

A highlight of the evening was the presentation of a white Bible to Mrs. W. C. Crawford for serving 17 years as chaplain, and a pin to Mrs. Halvorsen for 10 years of service as secretary.

Pomona Grange will be held on Saturday, January 29, at Rhea Creek Grange. This will be an all day meeting.

The next meeting of Willows Grange will be Sunday, February 20, with a potluck dinner at noon.

Ione PTA meeting was held at the cafeteria last Wednesday evening with the president, Mrs. Robert Davidson, presiding. At the business meeting it was decided to try to finance the purchase of a whirlpool vibro bath of stainless steel to be used for athletic injuries, muscular problems, and crippling diseases of school children as well as adults in the community. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. George Griffith, and Mrs. Ernest Christopherson, Jr.

Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn, Sr. presided at the annual meeting of the Ione Dance club at a meeting at the Legion Hall on Sunday evening. Ted Palmateer was elected president and Mrs. Pete Cannon was re-elected secretary-treasurer. Garland Swanson, Ralph Richards, Ray Boyce, and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom were elected to the executive committee. The next dance will be Saturday, February 5, at 9:00 p.m. Jerry and Geneva Rickels of Pasco will again offer dance instruction to teenagers, beginners, and advanced groups. Tentative date to begin these lessons was the first Saturday night in April to continue for six weeks.

Peter McElligott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McElligott, was rushed to the hospital in Pendleton on Sunday night, where an emergency appendectomy was performed. He is progressing well at this writing.

Mrs. Earl McCabe has returned home from Pioneer Memorial hospital, where she spent a few

Busy Schedule Ahead for Club, Officers Elected

By DELPHIA JONES

SKI enthusiasts in the Ione area are enjoying going to Arbutle Mt. each Saturday on the bus. The ski bus comes from Condon through Ione, Lexington, and Heppner. There are still a few seats left and anyone wishing to ride to the mountains may pay a dollar and meet the bus at Thiel's Cafe at about 8:30 a.m. Those signing up for twelve lessons, twelve trips and the whole day of skiing may do so for a $20 fee. Tim Tullis of Ione is one of the ski instructors who is donating his time to help youngsters learn to ski.

Rainbow Assembly No. 89 had initiation ceremonies on Tuesday evening at the Masonic Hall for Debbie Warron, Cheryl Smouse, worthy advisor president. Social committee Mary Nichols, Susan Lindstrom, and Cheryl served refreshments following the meeting.

"Oregon for the Curious" by Ralph Friedman was reviewed by Mrs. Elmer Griffith at the Topic Club meeting on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom. She took the members on an imaginary trip of historical points of interest in Oregon. During the meeting Mrs. Gene Rietmann and Mrs. Lindstrom were appointed to have charge of the Oregon shelf, which the Topic Club has planned for the Public Library. Fourteen members answered roll call with a historical fact about Oregon. Mrs. John Proudfoot was assisting hostess.

Members and friends of the Ione United Church of Christ are reminded that the annual meeting and a planned potluck dinner will be held at the church social rooms following the morning worship service, Sunday, January 23. Baby sitters will be provided for small children and older children will be entertained with movies during the business meeting.

Franklin Lindstrom returned to his ranch home near Ione on Friday after having been hospitalized in Hermiston for major surgery.

A large crowd enjoyed the donkey basketball game at the Ione gymnasium on Thursday evening, when the lone Town team played the Echo town team. The event was sponsored by the Lions Club.

Mrs. Walter Roberts and Mrs. Victor Rietmann drove to Pendleton on Friday afternoon to take their sister, Mrs. Esper Hansen, to the bus. She left for her home in Portland after visiting relatives here and in Baker.

Mrs. George Portschy and son Brent, and Miss Sue Townsend, all of Portland were guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Her-shal Townsend recently. Brent stayed here with his grandparents for a visit.

Mrs. Edith Nicholson returned home on Thursday from a four day stay in Pioneer Memorial hospital.

St. William's Altar Society met at the church on Wednesday evening with Mrs. Delbert Emert as hostess. Following the business meeting secret pals were revealed and new names drawn for the coming year.

Monday morning Mrs. Lake Beckner had the misfortune to slip and fall on the ice just outside her back door, causing the leg bone between the knee and ankle to be badly cracked. She was taken to a physician in Heppner, where the entire leg was placed in a cast. Mrs. Sam Byrne is caring for her during the day and Mrs. Leo Crabtree is with her at night.

Mrs. Milton Morgan was honored on her birthday Saturday afternoon at a coffee party at the home of Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom. Guests who came to congratulate her were Mrs. Raymond Lundell, Mrs. James Barnett, Mrs. Marion Palmer, Mrs. Garry Tullis, Mrs. W. C. Crawford, Mrs. Lee Palmer, and Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn, Sr.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Chapel were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Knighten of Condon, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Imel of Bend, and children Stacie, Stuart and Stephanie, of Walla Walla were Friday visitors at the home of Allen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allen.

Mrs. LaVern Partlow and son Steve went to La Grande Sunday to visit at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Kress, and her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Partlow.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Potts went to Richland, Wash., Sunday to visit at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bundy.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey West, Jr., visited in Arlington Sunday at the home of Mrs. West's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Beeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Donovan and children Jerry, Jack and Carol Ann spent the week-end in The Dalles visiting Mrs. Donovan's brothers-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Russell and Mr. and Mrs. John Hutson, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Dewese of Grandview, Wash., visited one day last week at the home of Mrs. Dewese's sister, Mrs. Florence Root.

Mrs. Frank Marlow spent the week-end in Walla Walla, Wash., visiting her aunts, Mrs. Ernest Zerba, and Mrs. A. C. Knudson.

Menus for Riverside High school and Boardman Grade school for the week of January 24-28 are as follows: Monday—hash, rolls, breaded tomatoes, vegetable sticks and cookies; Tuesday—hamburgers with lettuce and onions, carrots and fruit; Wednesday—creamed chicken on mashed potatoes, green beans, biscuits and fruit; Thursday—spaghetti with meat sauce, French bread, green salad and jello; Friday—macaroni and cheese, peanut butter sandwiches, tuna fish sandwiches, beets and oranges. Bread, butter and milk are served with all meals.

Mrs. Roy Partlow was hostess for the Boardman Tillicum Club at her home Monday night of last week. The Sweetheart dinner to be held next month at the home of Mrs. H. M. Walker was discussed, and plans were made for the annual arthritis breakfast to be at the home of Mrs. Zoe Billings in March. More will be announced about these later.

The nominating committee appointed for officers for the two year period June 1966-68 is as follows: Mrs. Ronald Beck, Mrs. Roy Partlow and Mrs. Dewey West.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Ralph Skoubo January 24.

The Mothers Club of Boardman Grade school met Thursday of last week at the school at 2 p.m. with Mrs. Ron Daniels and Mrs. Bob Sclard as hostesses.

A report was made on the Christmas doll and boy's toy, with $30 taken in.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Allen and

New Grange Hall Talked at Meeting

By MARY LEE MARLOW

BOARDMAN—Plans for a new grange hall were discussed Saturday night at the meeting of the grange which started at 8:30 with potluck supper. Hosts were Mrs. Glen Carpenter and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bedord. A special meeting will be called later to decide what will be done about the new hall.

Carla Mokert, a new member, was obligated in the fourth degree. She comes here from Star-buck, Wash.

The grange will sponsor the Heart Fund drive, which will be conducted by the Junior Grange members.

A new flag is to be purchased for the Junior Grange.

The grange voted to get liability insurance for the grange hall.

Mrs. Bedord was presented with a past Home Economics Club chairman pin by Nathan Thorpe, master.

Announcement was made that Pomona Grange would be held at the Rhea Creek Grange hall Saturday, January 29.

During the lecturer's hour a bingo game was played, with several small prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ballweg of Fort Worth, Texas, are the parents of a 6 lb., 5 oz. son, born January 16. Grandparents are lows and Rebekahs, headquarters in Good Samaritan hospital in Portland. A fancy work committee was appointed to get more things for the fall bazaar. Refreshments were enjoyed by Mrs. Charles Colley, Mrs. A. F. Majeske, Mrs. Frank Robinson, Mrs. Joe Yocom, Mrs. Alonzo Henderson, Mrs. C. C. Jones, Mrs. Florence McMillan, Mrs. Oris Padberg, Mrs. Al Fetsch and the hostess Mrs. Hunt.

Mrs. Florence McMillan spent several days this week at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Irvin, and family in Arlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Fetsch spent the week-end in Salem visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Jones attended the White Eagle Grange meeting in Umatilla county on Monday night. Mr. Jones is the Grange Insurance Agent for this Grange. The evening started with a potluck dinner and was followed with the meeting and lecturers' program, a school of instruction.

Ray Williamson Promoted to Burns

Raymond Williamson, district ranger of the Blue Mountain U. S. Forest District at Prairie City since August, 1964, has been selected to fill a vacancy as Burns district ranger at Burns and will assume his new duties before the first of March, the supervisor of the Malheur National Forest in John Day announces.

Williamson served in the Heppner ranger district from 1959 until 1964 and was assistant district ranger here from 1960 until 1964. Mrs. Williamson and their four sons will move to Burns from Prairie City later in the spring. The family will live in the Burns ranger's home located in Hines.

Losses

All Profits Protected

Your investment in valuable livestock and your potential profit can be fully insured! Call us.

FOR ALL NEEDS

Turner, Van Marter and Bryant Ins.

Heppner Ph. 676-9652

Mrs. Dick Killed In Car Accident

A telephone call Wednesday from Dennis Dick in Jackson, Calif., to his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Pieper of Lexington, informed them of the accidental death of his wife, Carol, in a car accident near Jackson that day. Particulars of the accident are not yet known, except that Dick was driving the car but escaped serious injury. The young couple was married only last fall.

Services for Mrs. Dick were set for Friday afternoon, January 21, at 2 p.m. at the First Methodist church in Jackson.

YOUR EAGER BEAVER NORTHWEST FORD DEALERS...

are selling 28%* more Fords than last year!

... thanks to the eager-to-please quietness, quality, performance and features of our '66 Fords! Thanks to our eager-beaver service and eager-beaver deals!

Ford's quietness rivals that of $20,000 imports. Performance choices from a Big Saving Six up to a blistering 425-hp V-8! Way-ahead features for '66 include the new Magic Doorgate on wagons that opens out for people, down for loads. See it!

SUCCESS SPECIAL! Now—a specially priced big Ford, specially equipped. Limited time!

SEE YOUR EAGER BEAVER NORTHWEST FORD DEALERS

Heppner Auto Sales, Inc
Heppner, Oregon

Complete Line of PERSONALIZED NAPKINS for WEDDINGS

ANNIVERSARIES, COFFEE TIME, WELCOME, OTHERS FOR ANY OCCASION

Also: Personalized Wedding and Guest Books, Match Books
Monogrammed Playing Cards

THE GAZETTE-TIMES

*Sales increase—Washington, Oregon, Northern Idaho and Alaska, first 10 months 1965 vs. first 10 months 1964.