Parts of Beef Animal Studied by 4-H Club

At 7:30 p.m. January 16, the Rhea Creek Livestock 4-H club held a meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hall. Visitors present were Mrs. Albert Wright, Diana Wright and Mrs. Rawlins.

During the meeting David Hall gave a demonstration dealing with the various parts of the beef animal. Before and after the demonstration he gave the other members of the club a test on the parts. After the last test the members entered into a discussion about the practicality of knowing these parts when it comes to giving reasons at a judging contest.

A decision to help some other clubs paint the inside of the fair pavilion was made. The Morrow County Fair Board is to supply the paint. The meeting was adjourned and refreshments were served.

Clubs Hold Joint January Meetings

Ruralettes 4-H club met January 11 at the home of our leader, Mrs. Roland Bergstrom. Mrs. Bergstrom showed us how to set a table correctly. After each of us had a turn setting the table, we had a business meeting. The Little Sister 4-H group had their meeting with us. We discussed plans for the year and the dates of our meetings. Nancy Pettyjohn of the Little Sisters group brought cookies and Ruth McCabe made hot chocolate.
